NOTES ON THE CRIMINAL STATEMENTS FOR 1870.

THE first statement shows the number of offences reported, and prosecuted, and the number of persons brought under trial, or enquiry in the Magisterial Courts of these Provinces in the year 1870.

It also gives the number of persons acquitted, discharged, and convicted, as well as the number of persons whose cases remained undetermined at the end of the year.

The figures under these heads for the last three years, respectively, are given in the table subjoined:—

	Reported.	Prosecuted.	Under trial.	Acquitted.	Convicted and committed.	Undisposed of.
In 1868 ...	1,09,629	57,400	1,06,830	34,906	70,249	1,231
In 1869 ...	1,24,314	67,085	1,24,097	38,751	83,631	996
In 1870 ...	1,09,339	60,661	1,14,399	34,748	78,152	1,003
Decrease ...	14,975	6,424	9,698	4,003	5,499	...
Increase ...	...	...	...	...	...	7

It will be seen from this table that there has been a very considerable decrease in crime in 1870, as compared with the calendar of 1869. The number of offences reported has fallen very nearly to what it was in 1868; but the number of offences prosecuted, of persons tried and of offences prosecuted to conviction, is still in excess of the corresponding figures for 1868. There were 7 more persons, whose cases remained undetermined at the end of 1870, than there were at the close of 1869; but that there were 228 persons less on the pending file in 1870 than in 1868 is creditable to the Courts, and proves general punctuality and despatch in the disposal of their work. In most districts the cases remaining over from 1870 were instituted during the last ten days of the year.

It is satisfactory to find that the graver offences, both against person and property, show a very considerable decrease. Offences of causing hurt and grievous hurt, have increased, as also have crimes of house-breaking in order to commit theft, the great majority of which were little more than attempts, which did not proceed beyond making a hole in a wall, or lurking about premises, where grain, vegetables, and such articles are kept.

	1870.	1869.	1868.
Murder ...	339	380	427
Culpable Homicide ...	215	282	296
Grievous Hurt,	935	854	969
Hurt ...	7,788	6,711	7,368

The Statements given in the margin exhibit the number of offences of violence, and of crimes against property reported during the last three years.

	1870.	1869.	1868.
Theft	26,692	36,532	34,199
Robbery	488	614	532
Dacoity	79	129	113
House-breaking for theft	17,868	10,316	16,569

Of the entire bulk of the offences reported (1,09,339) not less than (20,742) or nearly 20 per cent. were offences of a very minor character, being mainly breaches of special acts for the protection of the Revenue; offences against Municipal Bye-laws, and against the Canal Act.

Besides these 4,134 nuisances were reported, and 984 persons were dealt with as vagrants, and persons of bad repute.

From these figures it will be seen that the crime calendar of the year was mainly of a light and insignificant character. This result is attributed in some districts to the increased agricultural prosperity of the year; and in others, as in Saharunpore, to the great prevalence of fever and other illness.

The percentage of persons convicted and committed to the Superior Courts to the entire number whose cases were disposed of during the year was 69, against 68 in 1869, and 66 in 1868.

This apparent improvement is probably due to the increased number of prosecutions for Municipal and Canal offences, in which the percentage of convictions is ordinarily high.

The highest and lowest percentages of convictions were attained in the districts quoted in the margin.

At the beginning of the year 1870, the cases of 996 persons were pending from the previous year.

51,930 persons were brought to trial by arrest, and 60,779 by summons during the year.

There were also 694 persons to be dealt with whose cases were received by transfer in the Magistrates' Courts.

The total number of persons for disposal was thus: 1,14,399.

The figures given in the margin show how these persons were disposed of by the Courts in the last three years.

Of the 1,003 persons awaiting trial, 629 were in custody and 374 on bail. The column giving the number of persons discharged without trial, shows a marked improvement, except in the most Subordinate Courts. The figures for the majority of the districts, under this head, furnish reason for believing that greater care and discretion are now exercised in issuing the processes of the Courts. The proportion of persons acquitted after trial to the entire number of persons disposed of was 15 per cent. being the same as in the previous year.

Of the cases undisposed of at the end of 1870, 42 had been pending above six weeks, 13 of these were in the Banda District.

Punishment was inflicted by the several Magisterial tribunals to the following extent, viz., 15,613 persons were fined an aggregate sum of Rs. 3,83,861, of which Rs. 2,89,576 were realized.

16,653 persons were imprisoned, and 4,140 persons were flogged, of whom 990 were juveniles, and 3,150 adults.

1293 persons were ordered to find security for good behaviour.

1635 persons were required to find security, and 2,129 to enter into recognizances to keep the peace

3028 were imprisoned and fined; 535 were imprisoned and flogged; 8 were fined and flogged; and one was fined, imprisoned and flogged.

The total number of persons thus punished amounted to 75,365.

The table given below shows these figures for the last three years.

	Fined.	Imprisoned.	Flogged.	Security for good behaviour.	Security to keep the peace.	Recognizance to keep the peace.	Imprisoned and fined.	Imprisoned and flogged.	Fined and flogged.	Total.

Of the persons fined, 35,132 were fined sums not exceeding Rs. 5; 12,839 were fined sums not exceeding Rs. 50; leaving a remainder of 709 only, who were fined sums exceeding Rs. 50.

Of the 18,895 persons punished with rigorous imprisonment, 2,223 were imprisoned for periods not exceeding 15 days; 11,350 for periods not exceeding 6 months; 5,254 for periods not exceeding 2 years; and 68 for periods exceeding 2 years.

1322 persons were punished with simple imprisonment

1019 persons were imprisoned in default of furnishing security.

2,56,700 witnesses attended the Magistrates' Courts in the year under review, being 35,333 less than in the previous year. It is stated that of these 12,710 only were detained more than one day. But the Court has reason to think that these statements are not always trustworthy. In the District of Boolundshuhur, for instance, the attention of the Magistrate was directed by the Court to this statement in consequence of certain figures, which attracted notice; and it was found on scrutiny, that the returns of some of the Courts in that district were quite incorrect.

The average duration of cases in the Magistrates' Courts is shown to have been eight days.

2707 persons appealed from the sentences passed by the Subordinate Magistrates to the Magistrate; of these appeals 119 were rejected, 1,730 failed, 766 prevailed, 46 cases were remanded for further trial or investigation, and 43 remained pending at the end of the year.

3936 persons appealed to the Sessions Courts, being 10 more than in the previous year. Of these appeals 601 were rejected, 2,091 failed, 1,074 succeeded, 42 were returned for new trial, and 127 remained pending at the end of the year.

2960 persons, including those awaiting trial at the end of the previous year, were committed for trial to the Sessions Courts, being 375 less than the commitments in 1869. Of these persons 1,959 were convicted, 713 were acquitted, and 237 remained untried at the end of the year.

The percentage of convictions to trials 73 was good.

The largest and smallest number of commitments was made in the districts noted in the margin. The highest percentage of conviction was attained in Dehra Doon, Lullutpore, Jaloun and Jhansie, where it was 100 per cent., in Saharunpore, where it was 94 per cent., in Shahjehanpore, where it was 92 per cent., in Cawnpore and Humeerpore, where it was 85 per cent., and in Mirzapore, where it was 84 per cent. The only conspicuous failure in this respect was in the Azimgurh District, where as many as 84 per cent. of the commitments failed.

1,885 persons were punished by the Sessions Judges in the year under review.

Rs. 26,093 were imposed as fines, of which only Rs. 9,229 were realized in the year. It has been reported that measures are being taken to levy the remainder.

The Sessions Courts sentenced 1,505 persons to rigorous, and 43 to simple imprisonment.

3 persons were transported for terms of years, and 191 persons for life.

One sentence only of forfeiture of property was passed.

3 adults and 9 juveniles were punished with flogging.

1229 cases were tried with the aid of assessors; 3,594 persons served in this capacity of whom the great majority were of the land-holding and trader classes.

In 1,088 cases the Judges concurred with, and in 141 cases differred from the assessors.

The majority of the Judges write favorably of the aid rendered by the assessors.

105 capital sentences, being one less than in the previous year, were referred for confirmation to the High Court in 1870; 88 of these sentences were confirmed, 14 were modified, and 3 were remitted altogether.

The cases of 727 persons came before the High Court in appeal, or on revision in the year under review.

Of these cases sentence was confirmed in 495, was modified in 149, and was reversed in 83. 457 cases came before the High Court in the exercise of its powers under Sections 404 and 434 of the Criminal Procedure Code.

In 337 of these the order of the Lower Courts was confirmed, in 103 it was modified, and in 17 reversed. 23 commitments were made to the High Court in the year under review. All were disposed of. The accused were 24 in number, of whom 10 were acquitted, and 14 convicted.

105 witnesses were examined in these trials.

The statement given in the margin shows the sentences confirmed, or sanctioned on appeal, or passed in the exercise of its original jurisdiction, by the High Court, in the years 1869 and 1870, respectively.

NOTES ON THE CRIMINAL STATEMENTS FOR 1871.

I.

THE first General Statement showing the number of offences reported and prosecuted, the number of persons under trial, and the mode in which their cases were disposed of in the Magisterial Courts of the North-Western Provinces, gives the following results for 1871, viz., 108,425 offences were reported during the year, 56,682 were prosecuted, 107,663 persons were brought before the Courts, of whom 31,939 were acquitted or discharged, 74,216 were convicted and committed, while 1,102 persons remained under disposal at the close of the year.

2. It will be convenient for comparison sake to show the figures under those heads for the last three years in a tabular form :—

	Reported.	Prosecuted.	Under trial.	Acquitted.	Convicted and committed.	Undisposed of.
In 1869	1,24,314	67,065	1,24,097	38,761	83,631	996
In 1871	1,08,425	56,682	1,07,663	31,939	74,216	1,002

From the above table it will be seen that there was a decrease under each one of the heads given.

3. The number of persons whose cases were pending at the end of the year may appear somewhat large, but it has been ascertained that, with few exceptions, these cases came before the Courts during the last few days of the year. The lightness of the pending files in some districts was highly creditable. For instance, in Kumaon 4, in Budaon 6, in Etawah 7, and in Meerut 12. The highest pending files were in Moradabad 84, and in Benares, 73.

4. The percentage of persons convicted and committed to those whose cases were disposed of is 69, as it was in the previous year. The highest results in this respect were attained in the districts mentioned in the margin. The lowest averages are found in Jounpore, Kumaon, and Gurhwal. The failure of success in prosecution in the Hill districts is ascribed partly to geographical and partly to social causes. It is stated that a large portion of the offences reported in those parts of the country consists of supposed or suspected offences against the laws relating to marriage. These complaints it seems are seldom prosecuted to conviction.

5. The figures extracted in the margin show the number of the graver offences against the person reported during the last four years respectively. With the exception of the offence of murder, the other figures show a progressive increase.

Culpable homicide ...	296	282	215	263
Grievous hurt ...	909	854	935	1,073
Hurt	7,368	6,711	7,788	8,858

6. The figures extracted in the margin show the number of offences against the property reported during the same years. The crime of dacoity is pretty much as it was in 1870. A creditable instance of grappling with this most disreputable and demoralizing form of crime is to be found in the Goruckpore District, where also, as Mr. Phillipps points out, it was very satisfactory to find the neighbouring landholder giving efficient help to the police in discovering and over-powering the criminals. It is satisfactory to find a decrease in the offences of theft and robbery.

	1868.	1869.	1870.	1871.
Robbery	582	614	489	404
Dacoity ...	112	129	79	80
House-breaking for theft...	16,568	10,316	17,868	20,238

The increase under the heading house-breaking for theft may be to some extent more apparent than real, being ascribable to greater accuracy in recording reports of this class of offence under their proper heads. But it must be noted, as will be seen from examination of a synoptical statement of these offences in the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, that while there is little variation in the figures for each year in the Divisions of Meerut, Rohilkhund, and Agra, there has been a considerable increase during the year under review in the tale of crime of this class in the Benares and Allahabad Divisions. It is alleged that the chowkeedar force has been largely reduced in these Divisions; this, if it be a fact, would act both directly and indirectly on the statistics of this kind of crime :—

* In the year 1869 there was considerable distress among the Agricultural classes.

7. Of the bulk of the offences reported, as many as 10,946 were petty offences against municipal and sanitary laws.

8. Three hundred and seventy persons were reported as vagrants without ostensible means of livelihood, 595 as being persons of bad habit and repute, 520 were required to give personal recognizance, and 342 to find security to keep the peace, and 4,276 attempts to commit offences were reported.

9. From the above facts it will be seen that, as in the previous year, the bulk of the crimes reported was not of a grave and heinous character.

II.

10. The second statement shows in detail the results of the trials in the Magisterial Courts during the year under review.

11. At the beginning of the year, 970 persons were awaiting trial from the previous year, 47,390 persons were brought to trial by arrest, and 58,835 by summons. These figures, with the addition of 468 persons whose cases were received by transfer from other provinces, make a total of 1,07,663 whose cases were under disposal during the year.

12. Of these persons, 17,398 were discharged without trial, 14,541 were acquitted, 74,216 were convicted and committed, 406 died, escaped, or were transferred elsewhere, and 1,102 persons remained undisposed of at the end of the year. Of these latter, 641 persons were in custody, and 461 on bail or recognizance.

13. These figures are compared in the subjoined statement with those of the previous year.

	In 1870.	In 1871.
Discharged	17,652	17,398
Acquitted	17,096	14,541
Convicted including committed ...	78,132	74,216
Died, escaped, or transferred	516	406

14. The proportion of persons acquitted after trial by the Magistrates to the entire number disposed of by them amounted to 13 per cent., being two per cent. less than in the previous year. The proportion of persons discharged without trial by the Magistrates, (16 per cent) was not excessive.

15. The Court has had frequent occasion to notice the rarity with which the Courts avail themselves of the provisions of the law for making local inquiries by Subordinate Magistrates under the Criminal Procedure Code.

16. Only 756 such enquiries were held during the year; of these 232 were in Jounpore, 91 in Benares, and 56 in Bareilly. None were made in the districts of Dehra Dhoon, Meerut, Etah, Muttra, Mynpoory, Etawah, Mirzapore, Ghazeepore, and Jaloun.

17. The Court conceives that if this provision of the law was more extensively utilised, the number of persons unnecessarily brought before the Courts would diminish, detection of serious crimes would improve, and the Subordinate Magistracy generally would acquire profitable information and experience.

18. As many as 63 cases pending at the close of the year had been so pending for more than six weeks. Lullutpore and Cawnpore were accountable each for 13 of these cases, Jhansie for 7, Mirzapore and Banda for 6 each, and Budaon, Moradabad and Dehra Dhoon for 4, respectively.

III.

19. The next statement shows the various degrees of punishment inflicted by the Magistrates during the year.

20. 44,721 persons were fined in sums amounting to an aggregate of Rs. 2,86,717, of which Rs. 2,23,462 or ·78 were realised. 14,901 were imprisoned, and 3,280 were flogged: of the latter, 624 were juveniles and 2,656 adults. 1,296 persons were ordered to find security for good behaviour, 1,802 to find security to keep the peace, 2,370 to enter into recognizance for the same. 2,376 persons were imprisoned and fined, 408 were imprisoned and flogged, 6 were fined and flogged, making a total of 71,352 persons punished during the year.

21. The proportion of fines realised, ·78, is observed by the Court to be generally creditable. It would have been much higher for the Province generally had it not been for especial failures in a few districts among which the most conspicuous were Moradabad, Meerut, Furruckabad, Bareilly, Dehra Dhoon, Ghazeepore, and Kumaon.

22. Of the persons fined, 37,312 were fined sums not exceeding Rs. 5. 9,393 persons were fined sums not exceeding Rs. 50. 356 were fined sums ranging from Rs. 50 to 200, and 42 persons were fined sums exceeding Rs. 200.

23. Of the 16,571 persons punished with rigorous imprisonment, 2,244 were imprisoned for periods not exceeding 15 days. 9,604 for periods not exceeding 6 months, 4,701 for periods limited to two years, and 22 for periods extending to seven years.

24 1,115 persons were sentenced to simple imprisonment, and 1,086 were imprisoned in default of furnishing security as required.

25. The foregoing figures may be tabulated advantageously with those of the two preceding years :—

	Fined.	Imprisoned.	Flogged.	Security for good behaviour.	Security to keep the peace.	Recognizance to keep the peace.	Imprisoned and fined.	Imprisoned and flogged.	Fined and flogged.	Total.
In 1871 ...	44,721	14,901	3,280	1,296	1,802	2,370	2,376	408	6	71,352

26. These statistics suport the belief that crime of a grave character has been on the decrease within the last few years.

IV.

27. The fourth statement shows the number of witnesses who attended the Magisterial Courts, and the duration of their detention. 2,34,071 witnesses attended, being 22,629 less than in the preceding year.

28. Of these witnesses, 22,804 were discharged on the first day, and 11,267 were detained more than one day, of whom 1,057 were detained more than three, and 124 more than seven days.

29. If these figures are correct, they are creditable to the diligence and punctuality of the Courts, and it is only fair to record that no reason has been shown for discrediting these figures.

30. The average duration of cases in the Magisterial Courts, as in the previous year, was eight days.

V.

31. The fifth statement shows the result of appeals from the Subordinate-Magistracy to the Court of the Magistrates of the District. 2,262 persons appealed.

32. Of the appeals heard, 1,259 failed, and 755 or ·37 prevailed. 69 cases were remanded for further trial, and 34 remained pending at the end of the year.

33. 3,647 persons appealed to the Sessions Courts, being 209 less than in the previous year. Of these appeals, 2,092 failed, 834 succeeded, 37 were remanded, and 133 remained pending.

34. It is creditable to the judgment of the Lower Courts, that not more than ·27 of the appeals heard and decided prevailed.

VI.

35. 3,089 persons, committed for trial to the Sessions Courts, were before those Courts for disposal during the year. This was 129 less than the total number for disposal in 1870. Of the persons tried in 1871 by the Sessions Courts, 1,998 were convicted, and 711 or ·27 were acquitted. This result is not unsatisfactory. It is the same as in the previous year.

36. The largest and smallest number of commitments was made in the Judgeships noted in the margin.

37. In those Judgeships in which the number of commitments was sufficiently considerable to justify comparisons, the districts marginally noted were remarkable for failure of the prosecution.

38. 2,001 persons were punished by the Sessions Judges during the year 1871.

39. Of these, 89 persons were sentenced to death, and 1,691 to imprisonment.

40. Rs. 28,350 were imposed as fines, of which Rs. 6,199 only have been realised. The Judges have been admonished of the necessity of seeing that the Magistrates take due steps for the realisation, as far as possible, of these fines.

41. One person was transported for a term of years, and 194 for life.

42. 1,328 cases were tried with the aid of Assessors during the year; 3,938 Assessors served; the Judges concurred with the Assessors in 1,104, and differed from them in 220 cases. Highly favourable opinions have been recorded by some of the most experienced and thoughtful of the Judges regarding the value of the help rendered by Assessors, especially with regard to the facts and probabilities of a case, as to which their practical knowledge of native social and domestic life makes them valuable Judges.

43. The average number of days during which each trial lasted in the Sessions Courts is given as 30 days for the Province; but, while the calculation in the majority of instances seems to have been made properly and according to rule, it is clear that in some districts it has been stupidly miscalculated. For instance, in Allahabad it is represented as one day, but it is impossible that every commitment was begun and ended within one day from the date of the commitment reaching the Sessions Court. Again, similar difficulties beset the statement, that in Jounpore and Etah, which are under the jurisdiction of non-resident Judges, the average duration was five days and eight days only. There is likewise a difficulty in believing that the average duration of the Sessions trials in Ghurwal and Kumaon was six and five days only.

44. The average duration of appeals, 16 days, was decidedly creditable.

45. 83 persons were sentenced to death during the year, 65 of these sentences were confirmed by the High Court, 12 were modified, and 6 persons were acquitted.

Order Confirmed for	Modified or remanded.	Order reversed.
35.	155.	62.

652 cases came before the High Court in appeal or revision, the mode in which these cases were disposed of is shown in the margin.

46. 240 cases came before the High Court under Sections 54, 434, or 404 of the Criminal Procedure Code.

In 169 of these, the order of the Lower Court was confirmed, in 54 it was modified, in 17 it was reversed.

VIII.

47. 14 cases were tried by the High Court in the exercise of its original jurisdiction at Allahabad. These cases occupied one Barrister Judge for nine days.

A Civilian Judge, on deputation at Bareilly, tried and determined 10 commitments in eight days.

48. The Court is glad to learn that, in the opinion of some officers qualified to form a sound judgment on the subject, the Honorary Magistracy has worked efficiently. The evils to the administration of justice, and the inconvenience to the public, that must attend on frequent changes in the Magisterial Staff of a District are too obvious to require to be insisted on. The Court hopes that the subject will receive the attention it deserves from the Government.

Extracts from the Meerut Criminal Report for 1871.

I HAVE continued to inspect the record of cases tried by these gentlemen, Honorary Magistrates, and am glad to be able to give a very favourable report on their proceedings during the present year. Notice has been taken from time to time of the errors, and I find that I have had occasion to find fault with Oomrao Singh and Bakur Ali Khan only. Oomrao Singh is a very intelligent gentleman, and his errors were those simply of procedure which did not affect the issue of the case. Bakur Ali Khan has lately been invested with powers, and has made a few mistakes to which his attention has been called, such as issuing summons bearing the signature of the Mohurrir, swearing a defendant, and the like. In one case he admitted and decided a charge laid under a section which he was not empowered to try. The case was reported to the High Court for reversal of order.

The Honorary Magistrates have given much assistance to me besides the relief they have afforded to the people and the District Officer, by distributing medicines during the late unhealthy season, and supplying information on all subjects. In fact, I have made use of them on every possible occasion, and my efforts to induce them to prove of service to the Government and the people have been most successful. I have lately recommended three other gentleman to be created Honorary Magistrates.

Extracts from the Benares Criminal Report for 1871.

THE Bench of City Honorary Magistrates has worked well, and, since three of their number were invested with first class powers, have really proved an efficient help to the District staff of Stipendiary Magistrates. When I took charge of the District in October, complaints reached me that the City Magistrates had frequently to sit idle in Kutcherry, and this although the regular staff was at the time very weak and work in their Courts falling into arrears. I immediately made such arrangements as to ensure the Bench of Honorary Magistrates being fully employed, and since then (especially in disposing of petty theft cases during the Eclipse fair) they have efficiently discharged a fair share of the petty criminal work of the city. Speaking generally, I have found their judgments to be sound, and I believe they command the respect and confidence of the native community.

This statement shows that there have been several changes among the Magisterial staff during the past year, and to these changes, I think, in some measure is to be attributed the longer duration of cases, which has increased, from four days six hours in 1870, to five days and six hours in 1871. In cases transferred from the Court of one Magistrate to that of another, the witnesses have generally to be re-summoned and examined de novo. This necessarily causes considerable delay in the decision of cases.

Extract from the Goruckpore Criminal Report for 1871.

DURING the past year a case occurred in this district quite unique in my experience of the country in regard to two features. First, that the Superintendent of Police, Mr. Berril, was enabled, by prompt intelligence received by him as to the movements of a band of dacoits, who had collected for dacoitee, to personally apprehend the ringleaders to the amount of six and to kill another red handed while inside the house into which they had broken; and secondly, that in so doing he received prompt and effectual assistance from the zemindar of a neighbouring village, Baboo Mohur Singh.

GOVERNMENT 1873 N.W.P.

NOTES ON THE CRIMINAL STATEMENTS FOR 1872.

1. The statement exhibiting the criminal work of the Courts of the Magistrates in the North-Western Provinces for the year 1872 shows a considerable increase of crime reported, prosecuted, and disposed of.

2. 119,569 offences were reported in the year; 63,239 were prosecuted, and 115,949 persons were brought to trial; of whom, 35,211 were acquitted or discharged, 79,146 were convicted or committed to the higher Courts, and 1,242 persons were awaiting trial at the end of the year.

3. The subjoined table gives these figures with those of the three preceding years.

Year.	Reported.	Prosecuted.	Under trial.	Acquitted.	Convicted and committed.	Undisposed of.
„ 1871 ...	108,425	56,682	107,663	31,939	74,216	1,002
„ 1872 ...	119,569	63,239	115,949	35,211	79,146	1,242

4. From these figures it appears that there was a general increase as compared with the returns of 1870 and 1871; but the figures of the year under review are still considerably lower than they were in 1869.

5. The increase in 1872 is attributed, by many Magistrates, to improved police action; and it is certain that the returns for that year were not unduly swelled, as in former years, by a mass of prosecutions and convictions for the pettiest misdemeanours and infringements of local rules and bye-laws.

6. Looking to the considerable increase in the number of persons who came under trial, the increase in the pending file at the end of the year was not unreasonable.

7. The heaviest files were in the districts of Goruckpore (101), Bareilly (99), and Banda (91). Geographical conditions are probably sufficient to account for these results in the two former districts; but in Banda, the Court regrets to say, the procrastinating and unmethodical habits of the Magistrate are responsible for the undue delay in the disposal of the criminal work.

8. The lightest files were in the districts of Kumaon (2), Gurhwal (5), Allahabad (5), Muttra (6), Dehra Doon (6). It is true that some of these districts had a comparatively small calendar of crime to deal with. But this was not the case in the Cawnpore district, where 12 only of 5,589 persons brought to trial were awaiting disposal at the end of the year.

9. The percentage of persons convicted and committed is, again, ·69, as it was in the years 1871 and 1870.

10. The best results in this respect were found in the districts given in the margin.

Bijnour	... ·84
Cawnpore	... ·82
Mynpoory	... ·79
Allahabad	... ·78
Azimgurh	... ·78
Goruckpore	... ·76
Bustee	... ·76
Etawah	... ·75
Etah	... ·75
Futtehpore	... ·74
Muttra	... ·73
Budaon	... ·73
Moradabad	... ·73

11. Of these districts, seven, viz., Mynpoory, Cawnpore, Allahabad, Bijnour, Budaon, Bustee and Moradabad, were creditably conspicuous in this respect in the year 1871 also.

12. The least successful results were in Bareilly (·57), in Allygurh (·57), in Shahjehanpore (·61), in Jounpore (·62), in Benares (·62), in Dehra Doon (·62), in Ghazeepore (·63), in Kumaon (·63), in Boolundshuhur (·63), in Gurhwal (·64), and in Humeerpore (·64).

13. Of the foregoing districts, bad averages under this head were found in Jounpore, Kumaon and Gurhwal in the preceding year.

14. The marginal statement shows the total number of the graver offences against the person during the last five years respectively.

	1868.	1869.	1870.	1871.	1872.
Culpable homicide,	296	282	215	263	293
Grievous hurt ...	909	854	935	1,073	1,069
Hurt	7,868	6,711	7,768	8,858	8,725

15. It is satisfactory to find that the crime of murder is still, even though in a slight degree only, on the decrease; the other figures do not call for any particular remark.

16. The statement given in the margin exhibits the offences against property in the same years.

It will be observed that theft has considerably increased; crimes of robbery and house-breaking by thieves, on the contrary, have fallen off in number.

	1868	1869.	1870.	1871.	1872
Theft	34,199	36,532	26,692	22,541	31,139
Robbery	582	614	488	404	391
Dacoity	113	129	79	80	83
House-breaking for theft ..	16,568	10,316	17,868	20,238	19,771

17. Under the laws for the protection of the revenue and other special subjects, 10,563 offences, including 375 under the recent Infanticide Act were reported during the year.

18. 291 persons were reported as vagrants and 624 persons as of bad habit and repute; 5,243 attempts to commit crime were reported.

19. At the beginning of the year 1872, the Courts of the Magistrates had 1,102 persons awaiting trial before them. 53,934 persons were brought to trial during the year by arrest; 60,501 by summons; and 412 were received by transfer, making a total of 115,949 persons to be dealt with.

20. These persons were disposed of in the following manner :—

Discharged without trial	19,034
Acquitted	16,177
Convicted, including committed	79,146
Undisposed of at end of the year	1,242

21. Of the latter, 718 were in custody and 524 at large, on bail or recognizance.

22. The above figures may conveniently be classified with those of the previous two years.

	In 1870.	In 1871.	In 1872.
Convicted, including committed,	78,132	74,216	79,146
Died, escaped, or transferred ...	516	406	350

23. The proportion of persons discharged without trial to the number disposed of was ·16.

24. The proportion of acquittals in cases disposed of was ·14.

25. These figures are probably no higher, on the whole, than might fairly have been expected.

26. But in some districts the returns of work of certain Courts showed an excessive number of discharges without trial; the attention of the Magistrates of those districts has been specially directed to this subject, and the Court is assured that the returns for the current year will show improvement in this respect.

27. All that is wanted is that Magistrates, by a patient and judicious examination of complaints, should, before issuing process against accused persons, satisfy themselves reasonably of the probability and good faith of the complaint.

28. The provisions of the law for making local enquiries by the agency of the subordinate magistracy were more extensively applied in 1872 than in previous years.

1,173 such enquiries were made—

435 were in the Jounpore district, 110 in Goruckpore, 71 in Bijnour, 63 in Shahjehanpore, and 81 in Benares.

29. No local enquiries were made in the districts of Dehra Doon, Muttra, Mynpoory, Bustee, Mirzapore, Ghazeepore, Jaloun, and Lullutpore.

30. 69 cases of more than six weeks' standing were pending at the end of the year. Of these cases, 34 were in Cawnpore, 23 in Banda, 4 in Dehra Doon, 2 in Moradabad, 2 in Allahabad, and 1 in each of the districts Budaon, Furuckabad, Benares, and Ghazeepore.

31. Except in the case of Banda, the delays in most instances have been sufficiently accounted for.

32 The various punishments inflicted by the district Magisterial Courts during the year are shown in the third general statement.

33. They may be summarised thus—

Fined	43,869	persons.
Imprisoned	18,837	„
Flogged	4,652	„
Ordered to find security for good behaviour ...	1,253	„
Ordered to keep the peace	2,174	„
„ to enter into recognizance	1,810	„
Imprisoned and fined	2,809	„
„ and flogged	582	„
Fined and „	13	„
Grand Total ...	75,999	„

34. The aggregate of fines imposed in the year amounted to Rs. 2,94,940.

35. Of this sum, Rs. 2,23,188, or ·76, were realized.

This result is very creditable to the Courts generally, showing that fines were assessed with judgment and were realized with diligence.

36. Rs. 11,332 were paid to injured parties by way of compensation.

37. Of the persons punished by fine, 36,699 were fined sums not exceeding Rs. 5; 9,509 were fined sums not exceeding Rs. 50; 137 were fined sums between that amount and Rs. 200, and 46 persons were fined sums exceeding Rs. 200.

38. Of the persons punished with imprisonment (22,228) rigorous imprisonment was inflicted on 21,147 and simple on 1,081.

39. The degrees of imprisonment imposed are shown in the subjoined figures.

Imprisoned up to 15 days, 2,753 rigorous and 471 simple.

Up to six months, 12,191 rigorous, 578 simple Up to two years, 6,173 rigorous, 29 simple. Above two years, 30 rigorous and no simple.

40. Of the persons punished with flogging (4,652), 3,872 were adults and 780 juveniles.

41. The average number of stripes was 17; and the highest number of stripes inflicted was 30.

42. 1,042 persons were imprisoned during the year in default of furnishing security under the Criminal Procedure Code.

43. The statistics of punishment in the last four years will be seen in the annexed table.

	Fined.	Imprisoned.	Flogged.	Security for good behaviour.	Security to keep the peace.	Recognizance to keep the peace.	Imprisoned and fined.	Imprisoned and flogged.	Fined and flogged.	Total.

„ 1872 ...	43,869	18,837	4,652	1,253	2,174	1,810	2,809	582	13	75,999

44. The fourth general statement shows the attendance of witnesses in the Magistrates' Courts: 258,707 attended in the course of the year, being 24,636 more than in the previous year.

45. Of these witnesses, 43,336 were dismissed from attendance on the first day.

13,845 were detained between one and three days.

1,406 were detained between three and seven days, and 120 were detained more than seven days.

46. Of these latter, no less than 70 were so detained in the Banda District, owing to the culpable remissness of the Magistrate, who has been duly admonished on the subject.

47. The results shown by this statement are especially creditable to the district Courts of Muttra, Mynpoory, Etah, Saharunpore, Budaon, Agra, Furruckabad, Azimgurh, Mirzapore, Kumaon, and Gurhwal.

48. The average duration of cases in the Magisterial Courts was eight days.

49. The statement giving the results of appeals from the subordinate magistracy to the Magistrate of the district shows that 2,791 persons appealed; that 198 appeals were rejected, that 1,557 failed, that 957 prevailed in whole or in part; and that 39 resulted in remands for new trial, or further investigation.

39 appeals were pending at the end of the year.

50. There were 3,658 appellants to the Sessions Courts during the year. Their appeals were thus disposed of:—612 appeals were rejected; 2,129 failed; 760 prevailed; 10 resulted in remands; and 147 remained undisposed of at the end of the year.

51. Of the appeals heard by the Sessions Courts ·24 were successful.

52. The largest number of appeals was in the Sessions Courts of Benares (280), Cawnpore (263), Moradabad (201), Saharunpore (188), and Shahjehanpore, (186).

53. The fewest appeals came from Dehra Doon (16), Budaon (13), and Mynpoory, (31).

54. The Sessions Courts had 3,148 commitments to dispose of during the year, being 59 more than in the previous year.

54. The Sessions Courts disposed of 2,794 of these commitments, convicting 2,022 persons and acquitting 772.

* This gave a provincial average of ·72 of convictions.

55. 335 persons were awaiting trial at the end of the year.

56. The most successful commitments were had in Humeerpore, Dehra Doon, Banda, Bustee, Mirzapore, Moozuffernuggur, and Moradabad.

57. The least successful were in Gurhwal, Lullutpore, Allygurh, and Saharunpore.

58. 2,023 persons were punished by the Sessions Judges in 1872.

GOVERNMENT 1875 N.W.P.

NOTE ON THE CRIMINAL STATEMENTS FOR 1873.

As the number of offences reported and prosecuted in the year 1872 showed a considerable increase over the figures for the year 1871, so the crime calendar of 1873 is much in advance of that of the previous year.

2. 138,895 offences were reported during the year, 70,752 were prosecuted, and 128,208 persons were under trial. Of these persons, 36,251 were acquitted or discharged, 90,337 were convicted or committed for trial, and 1,215 persons were awaiting trial at the close of the year.

3. The corresponding results in 1871 and 1872 are shown with those of 1873 in the marginal table.

Year.	Reported.	Prosecuted.	Under trial.	Acquitted.	Convicted and committed.	Undisposed of
1871 ...	108,425	56,682	107,668	31,939	74,216	1,002
1872 ...	119,569	63,239	115,949	35,211	79,146	1 212
1873 ...	138,895	70,752	128,208	36,251	90,337	1,915

4. The increase in offences, other than those of violence, reported and prosecuted, shown in the marginal table, is, the Court believes, not due to any general increase of grave crime. The apparent result is probably attributable to the order of Government requiring the Police to investigate cases of theft, in which, although the value of property stolen was in itself small, it was, relatively to the means of the owner, of importance: to the multiplication of offences by the enactment of municipal bye-laws: to increased police efficiency, and to the general accessibility of the Magistrates' Courts in the Mofussil. In the eastern districts an increase in crime against property is generally attributed, and perhaps with some truth, to the prevalence of scarcity and high prices of food during the latter part of the year. In many of the upper and western districts the increase in the number of reported crimes is mainly to be found in petty offences against municipal and local laws, and in house-breaking for the purpose of theft. The Court has received assurances that the record of offences cognizable by the district police is generally kept with greater fidelity than used to be the case.

5. The state of the pending files in the criminal courts at the close of the year was very satisfactory. The heaviest pending file (109) was in the district of Azimgarh, and the next heaviest, (89) is found in Ghazipur; but it was explained that most of these cases were brought to light in or about the last week of the year. Most of the other districts of the province show creditable results in this respect; especially when we remember the very considerable increase in the district averages of offences reported and offences prosecuted, being 4,085 and 2,081 respectively in 1873, against 3,517 and 1,860, in 1872.

The Court regrets to be compelled to except from the general commendation the Court of the Magistrate of the District of Banda.

6. The percentage of persons convicted and committed rose to ·71 in 1873 from ·69, which was the average in 1872, 1871 and 1870. Prosecution was most successful in the districts shown in the margin. Of these districts, Cawnpore, Mainpuri, Basti, Allahabad, Moradabad and Bijnaur maintained the creditable position which they occupied in the years 1871 and 1872.

Azimgarh and Mainpuri	...	·82
Saháranpur	...	·77
Meerut ...	...	·76
Muzaffarnagar	...	·75
Eta, Bijnaur and Etawa	...	·74
Muttra ...	...	·73
Allahabad	...	·73
Basti ...	...	·73
Moradabad	...	·73

The worst results were found in the districts of Garhwal (·55), Hamirpur (·63), Aligarh (·61), Dehra Dún (·62), Benares (·63) and Lalitpur (·64). Of these districts similarly unfavourable remarks were recorded respecting Garhwal, Hamirpur, Dehra Dún, Benares and Aligarh, in the previous year.

7. Offences against the person of the more heinous sort are shown synoptically for the last six years in the annexed table :—

	1868.	1869.	1870.	1871.	1872.	1873.
Murder	427	380	339	322	321	354
Culpable homicide ...	296	282	215	263	293	285
Grievous hurt ...	909	854	935	1,073	1,069	1,199

8. Offences against property are similarly exhibited in the following statement:—

	1868	1869.	1870.	1871.	1872.	1873
Theft	31,199	36,532	26,992	22,541	31,139	35,381
Robbery	532	611	488	404	391	470
Dacoity	113	129	79	80	83	118
House-breaking for theft,	16,568	10,316	17,868	20,238	19,771	23,433

The increase in the offences of house-breaking for theft was to a large extent limited to attempts to commit the crime. These offences were formerly in some Districts erroneously entered under the head of house-breaking with the intent to commit an offence other than theft. Greater accuracy in the compilation of the registers has probably produced the apparent increase in the number of offences reported.

9. 457 cases were reported in 1873 under the Infanticide Act, against 375 in the previous year. 2,039 offences against the Revenue Laws, and 4,580 under the Municipalities' Act were brought before the courts in the year.

10. 3,710 persons were dealt with under the provisions of the law for keeping the peace : 766 persons were required to furnish security for good behaviour ; 314 persons were reported as vagrants, having no means of livelihood; and 5,368 attempts to commit offences were recorded. The Court has seen reason to doubt whether magistrates have always used the powers confided to them under chapter 37 of Act X. of 1872 with due regard to the status and means of the persons dealt with. For example, in the contiguous districts of Moradabad and Bareilly we find that of 326 persons treated under that chapter in Moradabad one person only was confined, while in Bareilly, a large number of the persons (58) so treated were thrown into prison in default of finding the required security. Again, in Benares, till lately notorious for offences against the person, these provisions of the law were worked with marked success against 93 persons in 1873, all of whom, except eight, furnished the security demanded ; but in the greater number of districts a considerable proportion of orders under this chapter ended in the incarceration of the persons concerned. In Farrukhabad 83 persons out of 321 were imprisoned.

11. The second general statement shows the working of the magisterial courts of the provinces in the year under review.

1,242 persons were awaiting trial on the first day of the year; 60,511 persons were arrested, and 65,901 were summoned before the magisterial tribunals ; making in all, with 554 transferred for trial from other parts of the country, a total of 128,208 persons for disposal, against a total of 115,949 in the previous year.

12. These persons were disposed of as follows :—

Discharged without trial	19,210
Acquitted	17,041
Convicted, including committed	90,337
Died, escaped, or transferred	405
Undisposed of at end of the year	1,215

Of the latter, 724 were in custody, and 491 were at large on bail or recognisance.

13. Compared with the results of the three previous years, these figures were—

	In 1870.	In 1871.	In 1872.	In 1873.
Discharged	17,652	17,398	19,034	19,210
Acquitted	17,096	14,541	16,177	17,041
Convicted, including committed,	78,132	74,216	79,146	90,337
Died, escaped, or transferred	516	406	350	405

14. Of the entire number of persons disposed of, ·14 were discharged without trial.

15. The proportion of acquittals was ·13.

16. These results may be regarded as satisfactory, indicating a steady improvement each year, and justifying the assurances received from the local courts that discretion would be exercised in the issue of processes. It is true that in certain courts the number of discharges in the year was still unjustifiably high; but special notice has been taken by the Court of these cases, and amendment in this respect has been promised for the future.

17. 82 cases of more than six weeks' duration were pending at the end of the year,—22 were in Banda, 21 at Jhánsi, 12 in Badaon, 8 in Bijnaur, 4 in Dehra Dún and Hamirpur, 2 in Benares, Farrukhabad, Agra and Muzaffarnagar, and 1 in Aligarh Moradabad and Mirzapur. The procrastination of trials in Banda must be attributed to the magistrate, Mr. E. B. Thornhill, whose conduct in this respect was brought to the notice of Government by this Court. Of the 21 cases unduly protracted in the Jhánsi district, the Gursarai Honorary Magistrates are responsible for no less than 18.

18. The Court has requested the Commissioner of the Jhánsi division to enquire into and report on the fitness of these gentlemen (Raja Kosho Rao and Seeta Ram Nana) to continue to exercise judicial functions.

19. The third general statement summarizes the punishments imposed by the magisterial courts during the year.

They were as follows :—

Fined	48,088
Imprisoned	22,719
Flogged	6,550
Ordered to find security for good behaviour ...	1,683
„ to keep the peace	1,927
„ to enter into recognizance	2,276
Imprisoned and fined	3,114
„ and flogged	784
Fined and flogged	21

The total of the previous year amounted to 75,999.

20. The entire amount of fines imposed during the year was Rs. 3,21,037, of which Rs. 2,45,123 or ·76 were realized, and Rs. 14,431 were paid as compensation to injured persons.

21. Of the persons fined, 40,180 were sentenced to fines not exceeding Rs. 5; 10,495 were fined sums not exceeding Rs. 50; 504 persons were sentenced to fines not less than Rs. 50, and not exceeding Rs. 200; and 49 persons were fined in sums ranging from Rs. 200 to Rs. 1,000.

22. 25,423 persons were sentenced to rigorous, and 1,200 persons to simple imprisonment during the year. The various periods of imprisonment thus inflicted were as follows :—

Imprisonment not exceeding 15 days, 3,593 rigorous, and 560 simple ; not exceeding 6 months, 14,349 rigorous, and 620 simple ; not exceeding 2 years, 7,439 rigorous, and 20 simple ; and in excess of two years, 42 rigorous, and no simple.

23. 915 juveniles and 5,635 adults were flogged ; the average number of stripes being 17, and the highest number inflicted in one case being 30.

24. 1,235 persons were imprisoned in default of finding security for being of good behaviour and for keeping the public peace.

25. The foregoing figures for the last five years are summarized in the annexed table.

	Fined.	Imprisoned.	Flogged.	Security for good behaviour.	Security to keep the peace.	Recognizance to keep the peace.	Imprisoned and fined.	Imprisoned and flogged	Fined and flogged.	Total.

26. The next (fourth) statement shows the number of witnesses who attended the magisterial courts, and the period of their detention there. 287,957 witnesses were examined in the year, of whom 272,281 were dismissed by the courts on the first day. Of the rest, 15,676 in number, 14,845 were detained between one and three days; 779 were detained above three and less than seven days ; and 54 above seven days. Of these latter, the magistrate of Banda was responsible for as many as 25, and the Hamirpur courts for 22.

27. The average duration of cases in the magisterial courts in the year was eight days, being the same as in the previous year.

The Court is glad to recognize a marked improvement in the despatch of judicial work in many of the districts of the North-Western Provinces ; eminently so in Meerut, Eta and Allahabad, where the duration was four days only; and in Dehra Dún, Cawnpore and Benares, where it was five only.

The duration is still high in Garhwal (21 days), where it is in a measure to be explained from the circumstances of the district, Mirzapur (13 days), Moradabad (11 days), Aligarh (10 days), Ghazipur, Juanpur, Badaon and Basti (9 days).

28. The fifth statement shows the results of appeals from subordinate magistrates to the magistrates of districts. 2,938 such appeals were preferred, of which 182 were rejected in limine, 1,660 were dismissed, 1,029 were wholly or partially successful, and 76 remained undecided at the end of the year.

The Magistrate of Juanpur, Mr. R. Wall, was responsible for the large number of 36 undetermined appeals pending at the end of the year. The Court has taken appropriate notice of this failure of duty.

The percentage of successful appeals to the appeals disposed of was as much as ·36.

29. The seventh statement shows in detail the results of appeals to the sessions courts in the provinces.

3,572 persons appealed, 465 appeals were summarily rejected, 2,148 failed, 818 succeeded, and 37 resulted in remands, while 109 remained pending at the close of the year. The percentage of successful appeals in the sessions courts was ·24, being the same as in the previous year. The largest number of appeals appeared in the sessions courts of Shahjahanpur (219), Cawnpore (218), Benares (198), and Ghazipur (188). The smallest number of appeals was in Dehra Dún (14), and Hamirpur and Garhwal (20 each).

30. The eighth statement shows the details of cases committed to the sessions courts during the year 1873.

The sessions courts had 3,259 commitments to dispose of during the year, being 111 more than in the previous year.

The sessions courts disposed of 2,905 of these commitments, convicting 2,258 persons, and acquitting 647, being an average of ·78 convictions against ·72 in the previous year.

347 persons were awaiting trial at the end of the year.

31. The largest number of commitments was made in the districts of Azimgarh (249), Banda (212), Gorakhpur (189), Ghazipur (167), and Bareilly (159).

The percentage of success was highest in Ghazipur (·95), Azimgarh (·92), Badaon and Fatehpur (·88), Mirzapur (·87), Basti (·85), and Moradabad (·84).

The worst results are found in Juanpur (·38), and Bulandshahar (·51).

The heaviest pending files at the end of the year were in the courts of the judges of Azimgurh and Banda. 2,259 persons were punished by the sessions judges in 1873; of whom 22 were fined, 1,928 imprisoned, 12 flogged, 162 imprisoned and fined, 9 imprisoned and flogged, and 125 sentenced to death.

The fines imposed by the sessions judges during the year aggregated Rs. 30,251, of which Rs. 11,596 were realized. 215 persons were sentenced to transportation for life, and one person to transportation for a term of years. Two persons were sentenced by the judge of Ghazipur to solitary confinement in addition to imprisonment; and sentences of forfeiture of property were passed on six persons, five by the judge of Mirzapur, one by the judge of Bareilly.

1,324 cases were tried with the aid of assessors during the year. The judges agreed with the assessors in 1,102, and differed from them in 215 cases.

The great majority of the assessors were drawn from the land-holding, banking and trading classes.

32. 139 persons were sentenced by sessions judges to death. 100 of these sentences were confirmed by the High Court, 24 were modified, and 15 annulled. 875 cases came before the High Court in appeal or revision; the Court modified the order or remanded the case in 207 instances, and annulled the sentence in 127.

300 cases came before the Court under sections 322, 295 and 296 of the new Criminal Procedure Code; the Court confirmed the sentence in 204 cases, modified it in 66, and annulled it in 30.

33. The High Court on the original side disposed of two cases, which occupied one Barrister Judge for two days.

34. In some Districts the Court has seen reason to believe, that the Chief Magistrates have unduly procrastinated the performance of judicial criminal work. The Court continues to be impressed with the very great advantages, direct and indirect, resulting from the practice of those magistrates of the district who find leisure to take a substantial share in the administration of criminal justice. It is undeniable that the magistrate of the district has also other important duties to attend to; but the High Court regrets that these duties should be so onerous as to deprive him of leisure to perform a fair share of case-work; whereby he not only furnishes to his subordinates a local standard and example of good work, but also leaves them more adequate time for the proper discharge of their labours. It was obvious, from the examination of last year's returns, that an unduly heavy burden of work was imposed on the subordinate courts, more especially in the Jhansi and Kumaon divisions; as well as elsewhere in these provinces.

Among the magistrates who earned and received the approval of the Court for their exemplary attention to their judicial duties, Messrs. Lumsden, Willock, C. Robertson, Clifford, Simson, E. S. Robertson, Duthoit, and Boulderson may be specially, mentioned.

35. The Court regrets that more general use is not made of the useful provisions of the law (sections 115 and 146, &c., Act X. of 1872) for holding inquiries and investigations on the scene of an alleged offence by the agency of the subordinate magistracy. Moreover, it is found, that the influence of the magistrate is often more effective than the agency of the Police to unravel a crime with which the inhabitants of the neighbourhood of the scene of the crime have more or less sympathized or of which they are induced by family or other ties to attempt to shield the perpetrator from justice.

36. Among the sessions judges Messrs. Turnbull, Brodhurst, Probyn, Ironside, Sherer and Pollock earned the special commendation of the Court for the zealous and careful administration of criminal justice in the districts under their charge.

37. The compilation of the provincial statements and of this report was delayed by the censurable tardiness in the submission of correct returns from the Banda and Mainpuri judgeships.

The magistrate of Banda was to blame in the former case: the judge's office at Mainpuri in the latter. In Mainpuri also the administration of the judgeship was lamentably impeded by the numerous changes, no less than five, in the year, in the personnel of the bench.

38. In the opinion of the Court, the salaries at present paid to the Government Pleaders are inadequate and ought to be considerably augmented, so as to secure the services of efficient Wakeels.

39. The subjoined extracts, extracted from the district reports, appear to the Court as deserving the attention of Government..

ALLAHABAD :
Dated the September, 1874.

W. TYRRELL,
Registrar.

Extract paras. 9, 15, and 17 of the Report on the Administration of Criminal Justice in the District of Moradabad, during the year 1873.

PARA. 9.—I entirely concur with the Magistrate that the administration of the district has been successful in respect to the amount of cases adjudicated, but I am not prepared to withdraw the remarks recorded by me last year and approved by the Court with reference to the necessity of the Magistrate's taking his fair share of criminal work. Admitting the multiplicity of his duties as chief executive, I maintain that if any success in prevention of heinous crime is to be attained, he must ensure that his position and influence are felt throughout the police establishment, and this desirable result can only be expected when the Magistrate personally interests himself in their exertions. The Court will, I trust, again concur with me in these remarks.

PARA. 15.—On general subjects, I desire to record my opinion that the condition of the police is extremely unsatisfactory and calls urgently for reform. I need in support of this view only recall to the Court's recollection the case of Sub-Inspector Abdul Kadur transported for murder, caused by torture. That crime was committed within two miles of a Railway Station and within 16 miles of this city, and no complaints were allowed to reach the Magistrate till some days after the death of the victim. In the meantime an inquest, which proved to have been fictitious, was stated by the Sub-Inspector to have been held, and a verdict of suicide was obtained and signed by neighbouring landholders. When the father of the victim at last succeeded in obtaining a hearing, the enquiry was taken up by Inspector Moosee Ruzza, an official of very nearly 60 summers, whose age is, I understand, recorded, with reference to the 55 years rules, as 52 in 1873.

He is wholly incapable of actively performing the duties of his position, by hydrocele; but having for many years been regarded as the actual District Superintendent of Police, has managed to retain his position of Inspector and has filled every grade of the police with his relatives and connections.

This officer, having completed his enquiry, found that the crime of murder was committed, but took no steps to arrest the murderers, on the plea that in a translation of the Medical Officer's post mortem examination, it was stated that, the deceased had appeared to have suffered from disease of the lungs. He omitted to regard the fact stated by the Civil Surgeon, viz., that such disease would result from suspension of the tortured man with his head downwards, and he disregarded the overwhelming evidence of the witnesses to the murder, who proved to him that the deceased, a young man of 25, was able to sustain life during three days of acute torture. And finally, after the manner of his subordinates, he forwarded Table B., the ready resource of the police department.

It is difficult to conceive anything more damnatory to the whole system. The door of escape secured by the Inspector in this case was the isolated passage in the Medical Report abovementioned, which alone saved him from a charge of complicity in suppressing the truth.

I have had occasion also in cases that have been before me to notice the tampering with the check receipts which are required to be given to persons reporting offences at stations. That is to say, the entries in the check receipt and in the diary do not correspond and are so worded as to admit of a double interpretation.

And I have recently heard that complaints of burglary and robbery have been met on the part of the police by a threat that they would report that the charges were false, and that in fact an intrigue existed among the females of the complainant's household, and that the object of the so-called robbers was in fact to prosecute such intrigue.

The remedy for this state of the police is the weeding out of old and inefficient men and the disruption of the cliquedom which exists throughout its ranks. It is my opinion that no efficiency can be obtained until radical reforms are introduced. I have officially and demi-officially urged these reforms, and trust that my representations may eventually be successful.

PARA. 17 —The Magistrate remarks. "The offences reported and prosecuted show a slight increase on those of last year. It is probable that crime has been more faithfully reported. The police are generally charged with concealing crime, and I believe chiefly from the reason that there is none to bear the onus. From enquiries during the last two years of my stay in this district, I have every reason to believe that the pudhans and zemindars, by settling cases, prevent report being made by the chowkeedars, who of course cannot afford to disobey the headman of their village.

"The number of police has been also so curtailed that they are unable to make frequent rounds, and learn what may be happening in the villages. I believe also that the police have been instructed that it is not for them to learn what may be going on by frequent rounds, as it is for the villagers to come and report at the stations. Such an order must have followed on the reduction of the police, and I see but small chance of effectively checking the concealment of crime. Chowkeedars under the eye and influence of the zemindars cannot in every single instance make a faithful report of the commission of crime.

"I have everywhere endeavoured to bring about a better state of things, and hope that in the course of a few years the practice may entirely cease."

Extract para. 6 of the Report on the Administration of Criminal Justice in the District of Goruckpore, during the year 1873.

PARA. 6.—It is right, however, that I should notice that the increase is to some extent, in my opinion, attributable to a more faithful record of cognizable crime by the district police. Shortly after taking charge of this district, I discovered that such crimes were not faithfully recorded at the police station; the fault did not lie with the rural police, who made the necessary report at the police stations, but with the officers in charge of the latter, who, each anxious to excel his neighbour in showing good returns, omitted to enter many offences reported to them in their registers. On discovering this, stringent orders were issued on the subject, and during the year one police officer was tried and convicted of willful neglect of duty in this respect; and two others, against whom there was not sufficient legal proof, were dealt with departmentally for the same offence.

Extract para. 15 of the Report on the administration of Criminal Justice in the District of Azimgurh during the year 1873.

The new Code of Criminal Procedure throws the conduct of Sessions cases and the watching of appeals on this* officer. When the amount of work is looked at, that the salary should remain at Rs. 20 per mensem is a state of things surely calling for reform, but the matter speaks for itself and requires no exposition from me.

Government Vakeel.

Extract para. 3 of the Report on the Administration of Criminal Justice in the District of Ghazeepore, during the year 1873.

I myself was laboring under the same impression that the Magistrate* is, with regard to the inadequacy of the Police force for the criminal population of a district like Ghazeepore;

* See the Magistrate's remarks below.

but this illusion was dispelled by the then Inspector-General of Police, Mr. Carmichael, in his extremely able and lucid report for the North-Western Provinces for the year 1871, in which he went most thoroughly into the question, at the request of Government, and showed very convincingly that Ghazeepore was not under-policed by comparison with the statistics of other districts in these Provinces. Mr. Oldham's acquaintance, however, with the district is of longer date than my own, and we are all indebted to him for a very comprehensive and succinct memoir of the district, from which much of the information for the Government Gazetteer was compiled. I must therefore assume that if his assertion be correct, notwithstanding the opinion expressed by the Inspector-General of Police, there must have been something faulty in the data from which his judgment was formed.

Remarks by the Magistrate of Ghazeepoor.

It is probable that the total outturn of the crops of the khureef harvest fell short of the average outturn by more than a million maunds of grain. The result of this had been the occurrence of a great number of cases of burglary during the rainy season, and of theft since the commencement of the cold season. Simultaneously with this great increase of crime there has been a small decrease (of 5) in the number of cases prosecuted, and, furthermore, the smaller number of cases of "receiving stolen property" seems to indicate a falling off in police activity. The case of this apparent failure in police energy seems to be that the District of Ghazeepore is not provided with an adequate police force.

A perusal of Statement E., Appendix 14 and 15C., of the general police report for 1872, will show that in other parts of the North-Western Provinces, omitting the Benares Division, for every 973 persons, there is one policeman, while in Ghazeepore for every 1,939 persons, there is one policeman. So that one policeman in Ghazeepore has to do as much work as two policemen in the districts of the Meerut, Rohilkhund, Agra, Allahabad, or Jhansie Divisions. The details upon which this statement is based are as follows :—

Divisions.	Number of population to one policeman.
Meerut Division, containing six districts	887
Rohilkhund Division, five districts	1,203
Agra Division, six districts	959
Allahabad, six districts	1,242
Jhansie Division, three districts	582
Average of the five divisions	973
Ghazeepore District	1,939

If the people of the Ghazeepore District were eminently distinguished for their orderly and law-respecting character, this smallness of the police force would undoubtedly be a subject of congratulation. Unfortunately, however, this is not the case. The Ghazeepore Aheers, of whom they are about two hundred thousand, the Bhurs, of whom there are about fifty-six thousand, the Doosadhs, of whom there are twenty-eight thousand, and the Binds, who number several thousand, are all disposed towards offences against property, and supply thousands of able-bodied men to the habitually criminal population.

Under these circumstances, it is not a matter of wonder that the police force of the district, which is unable to cope with the ordinary and normal crime of the district, find themselves helpless to repress any special outbreak of crime arising from prevailing scarcity or other causes.

The attention of the Inspector-General of Police has been in several annual reports called to the necessity of increasing the strength of the regular police of the district. It is hoped that the results of the administration of the past year have more influence than previous representations have had. I may here mention, that the present allocation of police force in Ghazeepore was based on a statement of population in which, by a clerical error on a large scale, the population was made to appear less by half a million than it actually was in accordance with the returns of the last census. So long as the police force remains so feeble as it is now, it can hardly be expected that the exertions of the District Superintendent and of his subordinates, however strenuous, can be crowned with the success which they deserve.

N.W.P.

NOTE ON THE CRIMINAL STATEMENTS FOR 1874.

THE number of offences reported and prosecuted in the year 1874 showed a considerable increase over the figures for the year 1873. It is observed that this increase has been progressive in the last four years.

2. 148,176 offences were reported during the year, 74,048 were prosecuted, and 134,159 persons were under trial. Of these persons, 37,037 were acquitted or discharged, 95,673 were convicted or committed for trial, and 1,240 persons were awaiting trial at the close of the year.

3. The corresponding results in 1872 and 1873 are shown with those of 1874 in the marginal table.

Year.	Reported.	Prosecuted	Under trial	Acquitted.	Convicted and committed.	Undisposed of.
1872 ...	119,566	63,239	115,949	35,211	79,146	1,212
1873 ...	138,895	70,752	128,208	36,251	90,337	1,215
1874 ...	148,176	74,048	134,159	37,037	95,673	1,240

4. The increase in offences is mainly owing to the multiplication of municipal and other local and special rules, and to the greater attention which such matters engage year by year. It is partly attributable to the alteration effected by Act XI. of 1874, by which cases of simple hurt have been brought within the cognizance of the police; and the vigilant attention of the latter and of the magistrates to the suppression of the crime of infanticide has also contributed to swell the list.

5. In the eastern districts generally crime against property prevailed to a large extent during the first half of the year. The high prices of food are assigned, and no doubt with much truth, as the main cause of this state of things. In certain districts the magistrates have shown that prices ranged higher in the first and second quarters of 1874 than in the corresponding periods of 1873. In illustration of these remarks it may be mentioned that in the Gházipur district seven-eighths of the increase of crime in 1874 consisted of the offences of simple hurt and theft.

There is still a large and remarkable disproportion between the number of offences reported and prosecuted in the year. It may be, and the Court has reason to believe that in some districts it is the case, that the magisterial courts generally have been more careful in sifting complaints before issuing their process; and the result of this is, that many hasty or false reports are checked from growing into the proportions of a prosecution. But it is feared that a large mass of offences against property remains unprosecuted for reasons of a less satisfactory nature. The police are not successful in preventing or detecting these crimes. The following figures illustrate this remark:—

	Offences of House-breaking.
	Reported.	Prosecuted.
Benares	2,183	125
Bareilly	2,016	14
Allahabad	1,742	107
Budaun	1,593	49
Agra	1,105	153
Cawnpore	1,009	108
Sháhjahánpur	825	49

6. The state of the pending files in the criminal courts at the close of the year was very satisfactory. The heaviest pending file (115) was in the district of Gházipur, and the next heaviest (100) is found in Mirzapur. But sufficient explanations have been rendered in both instances.

Most of the other districts show creditable results in this respect, especially when we remember the very considerable increase in the district averages of offences reported and offences prosecuted being 4,358 and 2,178, respectively, in 1874, against 4,085 and 2,081 in 1873.

The Court has observed, with much satisfaction, a marked improvement in the punctual and timely despatch of criminal business generally. In a few districts only were many cases found which had been protracted for more than six weeks, and with respect to some of these districts special circumstances exist which explain delays of this kind. The courts of districts for instance which adjoin native states experience considerable difficulty in getting their processes executed and returned with due despatch; while the geographical conditions of other districts, of which Gorakhpur and Mirzapur are fair examples, are such, as in some seasons of the year, sufficiently account for a somewhat protracted duration of cases. In the former district, however, the Court was highly satisfied to find that not one case was so protracted during the year; a result which is probably due to the careful supervision of the chief magistrate, Mr. Lumsden. The Court notices with regret a very different state of things in this respect in the district of Moradabad, where as many as 72 cases were protracted over six weeks in the course of the year. Doubtless local conditions may to a certain extent account for delay in the disposal of criminal inquiries in this district, but many of the explanations offered were insufficient, and betrayed dilatory procedure in some of the courts, and inadequate supervision on the part of the magistrate of the district.

7. The percentage of persons convicted and committed rose to ·72 in 1874 from ·71 in 1873. Prosecution was most successful in the districts shown in the margin. Of these districts, Cawnpore, Basti, Mainpuri, Moradabad and Allahabad maintained the creditable position in this respect, which they occupied in the years 1871, 1872 and 1873.

Azamgarh	...	·84
Cawnpore	...	·82
Meerut	...	·80
Mainpuri and Basti	...	·79

Fatehpur	...	·77
Moradabad and Gorakhpur	...	·76
Etah, Kumaun and Lalitpur	...	·75
Saháranpur and Allahabad	...	·74

The worst results were found in the districts of Garhwál (·55), Benares (·61), Jaunpur and Mirzapur (·59), Agra (·63) and Dehra Dún (·64). Of these districts, Garhwál, Benares, and Dehra Dún were similarly conspicuous in the previous year.

	1869.	1870.	1871.	1872.	1873.	1874.
Murder ...	380	339	322	321	354	349
Culpable homicide ...	282	215	263	293	285	298
Grievous hurt ...	854	935	1,073	1,069	1,199	1,186

9. Offences against property are exhibited in the following statement :—

	1869.	1870.	1871.	1872.	1873.	1874.
Theft	36,532	26,992	22,541	31,139	35,381	30,898
Robbery	614	488	404	391	470	433
Dacoity	129	79	80	83	118	131
House-breaking for theft,	10,316	17,868	20,238	19,771	23,433	22,941

The decrease, such as it is, in the offence of house-breaking for theft, in 1874, is due to greater accuracy in the compilation of the registers of some districts. Attempts to commit the crime, erroneously entered under this head in most of the returns, have been to some extent excluded in the returns for the year under review.

10. 530 cases were reported in 1874 under the Infanticide Act, against 457 in the previous year: 1,962 offences against the Revenue laws, and 4,315 under the Municipalities' Act were brought before the courts in the year.

11. 4,093 persons were dealt with under the provisions of the law for keeping the peace; 2,202 persons were required to find security for good behaviour; 515 persons were reported as vagrants, having no means of livelihood; and 6,490 attempts to commit offences were recorded.

There is still reason to fear that some magistrates overstrain the powers conferred on them in the matter of requiring security for good behaviour and for keeping the peace.

The returns showing the action of the magistracy under these heads in 1874 in the neighbouring districts of Mainpuri and Etáwah tend to confirm such apprehensions.

In Etáwah 116 persons were required to find security for good behaviour, and 104 for keeping the peace. 90 of these persons were imprisoned in default of furnishing such security.

In Mainpuri no persons were called on to give security for good behaviour; 25 only were required to furnish security for keeping the peace. And all these persons satisfied the magistracy with the required security.

12. The second general statement shows the working of the magisterial courts of the provinces in the year under review.

1,215 persons were awaiting trial from the previous year; 67,891 persons were arrested, and 65,026 were summoned before the magisterial tribunals, making in all, with 607 transferred for trial from other parts of the country, a total of 134,739 persons for disposal, against a total of 128,208 in the previous year.

13. These persons were disposed of as follows:—

Discharged without trial...	...	19,592
Acquitted	...	17,400
Convicted including committed	...	96,090
Awaiting trial at the end of the year...	...	1,240

Of the latter 748 were in custody, and 492 were at large on bail or recognizance.

14. Compared with the results of the three previous years, these figures were—

	1871.	1872.	1873.	1874.
Acquitted	14,541	16,177	17,041	17,400
Convicted including committed ...	74,216	79,146	90,337	96,090
Died, escaped, or transferred ...	406	350	405	417

15. Of the entire number of persons disposed of, ·15 were discharged without trial against ·14 in the previous year. Excessive averages of persons discharged without trial were found in the following districts:—

Garhwál	·34
Benares	·29
Mirzapur	·21
Saháranpur	·20

A similar remark is applicable to some, but not all, the magisterial courts of the Meerut and Etáwah districts. These figures almost compel the belief that due enquiry was not always made, nor a sound discretion in all cases exercised in the issue of processes upon complaint. With respect to the Benares courts, the magistrate, Mr. E. Colvin, recorded the following remarks:—"It will be seen that the very great majority of persons so discharged were in the courts of the assistant and honorary magistrates with whom the trial of petty cases, such as mischief, &c., rests. It is very difficult in such to discriminate whether summons should issue, the hardship is not so great as it looks." While the Court is ready to admit the first part of the magistrate's proposition, it cannot allow that the hardship involved in a large number of persons being unjustifiably dragged into a criminal court is by any means inconsiderable, and it looks with confidence to improved results in this respect in Benares and the other districts noticed in future years.

16. The proportion of acquittals was ·13, the same as it was in 1873.

17. On the whole, the Court is satisfied with the general result of the despatch of criminal business in the past year.

18. 118 cases of more than six weeks' duration were pending at the end of the year; 24 were in Jaunpur, 17 in Aligarh, 16 in Dehra Dún, 15 in Fatehpur, 14 in Budaun, 9 in Mirzapur, 7 in Bijnor, 5 in Benares and Jalaun, 2 in Agra, and 1 in Farukhabad, Etáwah, Allahabad and Kumaun.

19. The third general statement exhibits the punishments imposed by the magisterial courts during the year.

They were as follows :—

Fined	... 49,844
Imprisoned	... 24,672
Flogged	... 7,418
Ordered to find security for good behaviour ...	... 2,202
„ to keep the peace...	... 1,493
„ to enter into recognizance	... 2,600
Imprisoned and fined	... 3,643
„ and flogged	... 935

The total of the previous year amounted to 87,162.

20. The entire amount of fines imposed during the year was Rs. 3,60,777, of which Rs. 2,74,874 or ·76 were realized, and Rs. 14,328 were paid as compensation to injured persons.

21. Of the persons fined, 46,584 were sentenced to fines not exceeding Rs. 10; 6,290 were fined sums not exceeding Rs. 50; 433 persons were sentenced to fines not less than Rs. 50, and not exceeding Rs. 100; and 180 persons were fined in sums ranging from Rs. 100 to Rs. 500.

22. 27,690 persons were sentenced to rigorous, and 1,418 persons to simple imprisonment during the year. The various periods of imprisonment thus inflicted were as follows :—

Imprisonment not exceeding 15 days—4,195 rigorous, and 617 simple; not exceeding six months, 15,456 rigorous, and 772 simple; not exceeding two years, 7,960 rigorous, and 29 simple; and in excess of two years, 79 rigorous, and 7 simple.

23. 2,246 juveniles and 5,172 adults were flogged; the average number of stripes being 17, and the highest number inflicted in one case being 30.

24. 1,255 persons, being ·33, were imprisoned in default of finding security for being of good behaviour and for keeping the public peace.

25. The foregoing figures for the last five years are summarized in the annexed table :—

	Fined.	Imprisoned.	Flogged.	Security for good behaviour.	Security to keep the peace.	Recognizance to keep the peace.	Imprisoned and fined.	Imprisoned and flogged.	Fined and flogged.	Total
1870 ...	45,643	16,653	4,140	1,293	1,635	2,129	3,028	535	9	75,065
1871 ...	44,721	14,901	3,280	1,296	1,802	2,370	2,376	408	6	71,352
1872 ...	43,869	18,837	4,652	1,258	2,174	1,810	2,809	582	18	75,999
1873 ...	48,088	22,719	5,550	1,683	1,927	2,276	3,114	784	21	87,414
1874 ...	49,844	24,672	7,418	2,202	1,493	2,600	3,643	935	7	92,814

26. The next (fourth) statement shows the number of witnesses who attended the magisterial courts, and the period of their detention there. 295,538 witnesses were examined in the year, of whom 278,406 were dismissed by the courts on the first day. Of the rest, 17,132 in number, 15,582 were detained between one and three days ; 1,473 were detained above three and less than seven days ; and 77 above seven days. Of these latter the magistrate of Dehra Dún was responsible for 43, the Basti courts for 27, and Muzaffarnagar for 7.

27. The average duration of cases in the magisterial courts in the year was seven days as compared with eight days in the previous year.

The best results were attained in Meerut, Allahabad, and Benares, where the duration was four days only, and in Etah, Cawnpore, and Azamgarh, where it was only five. The duration was high in Garhwál (15 days), but of this district the circumstances are peculiar; in Moradabad (12 days), in Aligarh and Mirzapur (11 days), and in Jaunpur (10 days). The excessive duration of cases in Moradabad is attributed by the magistrate to the insufficient staff of officers placed at his disposal by the Government. He remarks that the district has always of late years been underofficered, and that during the past year the staff was further weakened by his own absence and that of Mr. Whiteway, his assistant, on privilege leave for some months. It is obvious to remark that this leave need not and should not have been taken at the cost of the efficient administration of the district.

28. The fifth statement shows the results of appeals from subordinate magistrates to the magistrates of districts. 2,972 appeals were preferred, of which 335 were rejected, 1,551 were dismissed, 1,013 were wholly or partially successful, and 66 remained undecided at the end of the year.

The percentage of successful appeals to the entire number disposed of was, as in 1873, ·36.

29. The seventh statement shows the results of appeals to the sessions courts in the provinces.

3,967 persons appealed, being 395 in excess of the previous year ; 684 appeals were summarily rejected ; 2,197 failed on the hearing ; 942 succeeded ; and 24 resulted in remands, while 100 remained pending at the close of the year. The percentage of successful appeals in the sessions courts was ·25, as compared with ·24 in the previous year. The largest number of appeals was made to the sessions courts of Gorakhpur (333), Moradabad (259), Cawnpore (248), and Benares (201).

The smallest number of appeals was in Dehra Dún (13), Hamírpur (20), and Garhwál (34).

30. The eighth statement shows the details of cases committed to the sessions courts during the year 1874. The sessions courts had 3,424 persons awaiting trial before them in the year. This total was 165 more than in 1873, which again was 111 in advance of the figures of 1872.

The sessions courts disposed of 3,066 of these commitments, convicting 2,398 persons, and acquitting 668, being an average of ·78 convictions, as in the previous year.

31. 332 persons were awaiting trial at the end of the year.

32. The largest number of commitments was made in the districts of Azamgarh (288), Basti (269), Agra (196), Gorakhpur (195), and Bánda (176).

The fewest commitments were in Bulandshahr (42), Jaunpur (31), and Dehra Dún (10).

33. The percentage of persons convicted to the number disposed of was highest in the districts of—

Gházipur	·94
Hamírpur	·92
Azamgarh and Mirzapur	·91
Fatehpur	·90
Bareilly, Kumaun and Gorakhpur	·85
Etáwah and Muzaffarnagar	·80
Muttra and Mainpuri	·79
Benares and Basti	·77
Cawnpore and Jhánsi	·76
Meerut and Etah	·75

The worst results were found in the following districts :—

Sháhjahánpur	·54
Jaunpur	·52

34. The heaviest pending files at the end of the year were in the courts of the judges of Gorakhpur and Bánda.

35. 2,300 persons were punished by the sessions judges in 1874; of whom 8 were fined, 1,953 imprisoned, 12 flogged, 159 imprisoned and fined, 16 imprisoned and flogged, 1 fined and flogged, and 151 sentenced to death.

36. The fines imposed by the sessions judges during the year aggregated Rs. 19,113, of which Rs. 6,534 were realized ; 259 persons were sentenced to transportation for life, and 26 persons to tranportation for terms of years. 10 persons were sentenced by the judge of Gorakhpur, 3 by the judge of Benares, and 4 by the judge of Gházipur to solitary confinement in addition to imprisonment ; and sentences of forfeiture of property were passed on 6 persons, on 5 by the commissioner of Jhánsi and on 1 by the judge of Mainpuri.

37. 1,241 cases were tried with the aid of assessors during the year. The judges agreed with the assessors in 1,033, and differed from them in 208 cases.

The great majority of the assessors, as in previous year, were drawn from the landholding, banking, and trading classes.

38. 151 persons were sentenced by the sessions judges to death ; 116 of these sentences were confirmed by the High Court, 30 were modified, and 5 annulled. 778 cases came before the High Court in appeal or revision ; the Court modified the order, or remanded the case in 159 instances, and annulled the sentence in 107.

361 cases came before the Court under sections 322, 295, and 296 of the new Criminal Procedure Code (Act X. of 1872) ; the Court confirmed the sentence in 246 cases, modified it in 101, and annulled it in 14.

39. The High Court on the original side disposed of no case during the year.

40. The following gentlemen, as chief magistrates of districts, distinguished themselves by the diligent and successful discharge of the duties of their office :—

Messrs. Lumsden, Moore, Oldham, Duthoit, C. Robertson, E. S. Robertson, and J. C. Colvin.

41. As sessions judges, Messrs. Probyn, C. A. Daniell, Saunders, and Pasley received the commendation of the Court.

NOTE ON THE CRIMINAL STATEMENTS FOR 1875.

THE number of offences reported and prosecuted in the year 1875 showed a considerable increase over the figures for the year 1874. It is observed that this increase has been progressive in the last five years.

2. One lakh fifty-four thousand five hundred and seventy-eight offences were reported during the year, 76,519 were prosecuted, and 1,42,521 persons were under trial. Of these persons, 38,839 were acquitted or discharged, 1,02,394 were convicted or committed for trial, and 1,035 persons were awaiting trial at the close of the year.

3. The corresponding results in 1872, 1873, and 1874 are shown with those of 1875 in the marginal table.

Year.	Reported.	Prosecuted.	Under trial.	Acquitted.	Convicted and committed	Undisposed of.
1872 ...	1,19,566	63,239	1,15,949	35,211	79,146	1,212
1873 ...	1,38,895	70,752	1,28,208	36,254	90,337	1,215
1874 ...	1,48,176	74,948	1,34,159	37,037	95 673	1,240
1875 ...	1,54,578	76,519	1,42,521	38,839	1,02,394	1,035

4. The increase in a measure is to be attributed to a truer system of reporting offences, and to the fact that closer attention than formerly has been given to petty offences, such as public nuisances, offences against municipal bye-laws, and to town offences under the Police Act. It is partly attributable to the failure of the kharif harvest in some of the western districts, which led to an increase in the offences against canal laws.

The increase in the number of persons brought to trial was due to the activity of the courts and of the police rather than to any real augmentation of crime.

The court has had reason to observe that the provisions of section 124 of the criminal procedure code are too commonly ignored altogether in practice, and it is feared that the police sometimes detain accused persons in custody more than 24 hours. The court has, however, issued stringent instructions that any occurrence of the kind should be at once brought to its notice.

5. The state of the pending files in the criminal courts at the close of the year was very satisfactory. The heaviest pending files (85) were in the districts of Agra and Azamgarh, and the next heaviest (63) is found in Sháhjahánpur. These have been sufficiently explained. Most of the other districts show creditable results in this respect.

6. The court notices with much regret that the number of cases which had been protracted for more than six weeks increased from 118 in 1874 to 155 in 1875. In Aligarh, so many as 44 were protracted for more than six weeks, in the course of the year, in Basti 28, and in Bulandshahr and Jaunpur 21 respectively. The delays in Basti, Bulandshahr, and Jaunpur have been sufficiently explained. The Judge of Aligarh has been called upon for an explanation of the delay.

7. The percentage of persons convicted and committed (·72) was the same as in the previous year 1874. Prosecution was most successful in the districts shown in the margin. Of these districts Cawnpore, Basti, Mainpuri, and Allahabad, maintain the creditable position in this respect which they occupied in the years 1872, 1873, and 1874.

Tarái	·87
Cawnpore and Kumaun	·82
Allahabad ...	·80
Meerut and Budaun...	·79
Saháranpur, Etáwah, and Lalitpur,	·78
Bijnor and Basti ...	·77
Mainpuri ...	·76
Hamírpur ...	·75
Etah and Gorakhpur	·74

The worst results were from the districts of Garhwál (·54), Jaunpur (·59), Benares (·60), and Agra (·61). All these districts were similarly conspicuous in the previous year.

	1870.	1871.	1872.	1873.	1874.	1875.
Murder ...	339	322	321	354	349	324
Culpable homicide,	215	263	293	285	298	274
Grievous hurt ...	935	1,073	1,069	1,199	1,186	1,045

9. Offences against property are exhibited in the following statement:—

	1870.	1871.	1872.	1873.	1874.	1875.
Theft ...	26,992	22,541	31,139	35,381	30,898	32,047
Robbery ...	488	404	391	470	433	378
Dacoity ...	79	80	83	118	131	41
House-breaking for theft,	17,868	20,238	19,771	23,433	22,941	27,379

The increase, as stated above, was in non-bailable offences, and chiefly under the head of house-breaking and theft, and is due to a better system of reporting offences by the police. The offence of house-breaking with a view to theft has apparently not been materially checked by the recent alterations in the system of village police. The paucity of prosecutions is still out of all proportion to the number of cases reported. Some of the judges have of late tried the effect of severe sentences. It is hoped that thereby the offence may be materially repressed.

10. Four hundred and thirty-six cases were reported in 1875 under the Infanticide Act against 530 in the previous year: 2,101 offences against the revenue laws, and 6,022 under the Municipalities Act were brought before the courts in the year.

Three thousand one hundred and seventy attempts to commit offences were recorded.

11. Four thousand two hundred and seventy-three persons were dealt with under the provisions of the law for keeping the peace, 2,351 persons were required to find security for good behaviour, 307 persons were reported as vagrants, having no means of livelihood

12. The second general statement shows the working of the magisterial courts of the provinces in the year under review.

One thousand two hundred and thirty-one persons were awaiting trial from the previous year, 66,124 persons were arrested, and 74,824 were summoned before the magisterial tribunals, making in all, with 748 transferred for trial from other parts of the country, a total of 1,42,927 persons, for disposal, against a total of 1,34,739 persons in the previous year.

13. These persons were disposed of as follows:—

Discharged without trial	22,131
Acquitted	16,631
Convicted, including committed	1,02,899
Died, escaped, or transferred	235
Awaiting trial at the end of the year	1,031

Of the latter, 501 were in custody and 530 were at large on bail or recognizance.

14. Compared with the results of the three previous years, these figures were—

	1872.	1873.	1874.	1875.
Discharged ...	19,034	19,210	19,592	22,131
Acquitted ...	16,177	17,041	17,400	16,631
Convicted, including committed,	79,146	90,337	96,090	1,02,899
Died, escaped, or transferred ...	350	405	417	235

15. Of the entire number of persons disposed of, ·15 discharged without trial, was the same as in the previous year 1874. Excessive averages of persons discharged without trial were found in the following districts :—

	Average discharged without trial.
Benares	·33
Muzaffarnagar	·28
Agra	·28
Bulandshahr	·21

The number of persons discharged without trial in some of the districts does not speak well either for the police or for the magisterial officers who summoned the accused. The attention of the several officers concerned has been called to this subject, and the court trusts that future returns will shew better results.

16. The proportion of acquittals was ·12, as compared with ·13 in the previous year.

17. The court has reason to be satisfied generally with the result of the despatch of criminal business in the past year.

18. One hundred and fifty-five cases of more than six weeks' duration were pending at the end of the year ; 44 were in Aligarh, 28 in Basti, 21 in Bulandshahr and Jaunpur, 11 in Dehra Dún, 10 in Bánda, 8 in Bijnor, 6 in Budaun, 2 in Benares, and 1 in Agra, Farukhabad, Etáwah, and Fatehpur.

19. The third general statement exhibits the punishments imposed by the magisterial courts during the year.

They were as follows :—

Fined	59,261
Imprisoned	24,048
Flogged	6,092
Ordered to find security for good behaviour ...	2,351
„ to keep the peace	1,158
„ to enter into recognizance	3,115
Imprisoned and fined	3,602
„ and flogged	886
Fined and flogged	7
Grand Total ...	1,00,520

The total of the previous year amounted to 92,814.

20. The entire amount of fines imposed during the year was Rs. 3,70,281, of which Rs. 2,92,049, or ·79 were realized, and Rs. 18,086 were paid as compensation to injured parties.

21. Of the persons fined, 56,746 were sentenced to fines not exceeding Rs. 10, 5,513 were fined sums not exceeding Rs. 50, 481 persons were sentenced to fines not less than Rs. 50 and not exceeding Rs. 100, and 145 persons were fined in sums ranging from Rs. 100 to Rs. 500.

22. Twenty-six thousand five hundred and twenty-nine persons were sentenced to rigorous, and 1,494 persons to simple, imprisonment during the year. The various imprisonments thus inflicted were as follows:—

Imprisonment not exceeding 15 days, 4,074 rigorous and 686 simple ; not exceeding 6 months, 14,924 rigorous and 787 simple ; not exceeding two years, 7,431 rigorous and 21 simple, and in excess of two years, 100 rigorous and none simple.

23. Nine hundred and six juveniles and 5,186 adults were flogged; the average number of stripes being 16, and the highest number inflicted being 30.

24. Two thousand and eight persons, being ·59, were imprisoned in default of finding security for being of good behaviour and for keeping the public peace.

Comparing the very different results exhibited in different districts, the court sees reason to fear that the extraordinary powers under which magistrates require security are not always exercised with sufficient discretion.

In support of this view the annexed memo. will show the use of these powers in certain adjacent districts :—

	Ordered to find security for good behaviour, and to keep the peace.	Imprisoned in default of furnishing security.
Aligarh	151	77
Etah	20	14
Agra	112	67
Muttra	41	10
Cawnpore	251	251
Fatehpur	21	21
Mainpuri	58	19
Etáwah	120	95
Bánda	147	147
Hamírpur	55	25
Azamgarh	202	78
Jaunpur	63	40
Mirzapur	156	88
Benares	34	22
Ghazipur	204	66

From the above it will be seen that in Cawnpore, Fatehpur, and Bánda all the persons required to find security were imprisoned.

The remarks on this subject of Mr. Young, the Magistrate of Mainpuri, which received the concurrence and approval of the court, are recorded in an appendix.

25. The statistics of punishment for the last five years are summarized in the annexed tabular statement :—

	Fined.	Imprisoned.	Flogged.	Security for good behaviour.	Security to keep the peace.	Recognizance to keep the peace.	Imprisoned and fined.	Imprisoned and flogged.	Fined and flogged.	Total.

1875 ..	59,261	24,048	6,092	2,351	1,158	3,115	3,602	886	7	1,00,520

26. The next (fourth) statement shows the number of witnesses who attended the magisterial courts, and the period of their detention there; 3,01,105 witnesses were examined in the year, of whom 2,78,905 were dismissed by the courts on the first day; of the rest, 22,200 in number, 20,382 were detained between 1 and 3 days, 1,769 were detained above three and less than seven days, and 49 above seven days. Of these latter, the Magistrate of Basti was answerable for 27, the Bulandshahr and Gházipur courts for six, Hamírpur for four, and Bijnor and Budaun for three.

27. The average duration of cases in the magisterial courts in the year was eight days, as compared with seven days in the previous year, or the same as in the year 1873.

The best results were attained in Meerut and the Tarái, where it was three days only; in Dehra Dún and Allahabad, where it was four, and in Bareilly and Bánda, where it was five. The duration was high in Garhwál (17 days), but, as remarked in previous years, the circumstances of this district are peculiar; in Mirzapur, Gházipur, and Kumaun (10 days), in Muzaffarnagar, Moradabad, Bijnor, Agra, Fatehpur, Hamírpur, Gorakhpur, Basti, Jhánsi, and Jalaun (8 days).

The excessive duration of cases in Gházipur is attributed by the magistrate to the insufficient staff of officers, to illness of officers resulting from over-work, and the dilatoriness of the officer in charge of the Ballia sub-division. The magistrate of Gházipur complains that the magisterial staff in the sub-division of Ballia is insufficient.

28. The fifth statement shows the results of appeals from subordinate magistrates to the magistrates of districts; 3,153 appeals were preferred, of which 431 were rejected, 1,689 were dismissed, 969 were wholly or partially successful, and 27 remained undecided at the end of the year.

The percentage of successful appeals to the entire number disposed of was ·30 in 1875, as compared with ·36 in 1874.

29. The seventh statement shows the results of appeals to the sessions courts in the provinces.

Four thousand three hundred and eight persons appealed, being 341 in excess of the previous year; 818 appeals were summarily rejected, 2,274 failed on the hearing, 948 succeeded, and 77 resulted in remands, while 112 remained pending at the close of the year. The percentage of successful appeals in the sessions courts was ·23 in 1873, as compared with ·25 in the previous year. The largest number of appeals was made to the sessions courts of Benares (269), Moradabad (263), Gorakhpur (256), Aligarh (228), and Allahabad (205).

The smallest number of appeals was in Tarái (15), Dehra Dún (16), Hamírpur (26), Garhwál (28), and Budaun (35).

30. The eighth statement shows the details of cases committed to the sessions courts during the year 1875: 2,891 persons were sent for trial to the sessions courts in the year. This total was 533 less than in 1874, a diminution partially explained by recent changes in the law.

The sessions courts disposed of 2,697 of these commitments, convicting 1,986 persons and acquitting 711, being an average of ·74 in 1875, as compared with ·78 in the previous year.

31. One hundred and eighty-two persons were awaiting trial at the end of the year.

32. The largest number of commitments was made in the districts of Basti (218), Cawnpore (177), Sháhjahánpur (163), Bareilly (153), Gházipur (147), and Bánda (143).

The fewest commitments were in the districts of Saháranpur (47), Bulandshahr (40), Kumaun (14), Lalitpur (7), Garhwál (5), Dehra Dún (3), and Tarái (2).

33. The percentage of persons convicted to the number disposed of was highest in the districts of—

Hamírpur	·96
Sháhjahánpur	·94
Fatehpur	·91
Budaun, Farukhabad, and Gházipur	·90

Bánda	...	...	...	·86
Mirzapur	...	...	...	·83
Garhwál	...	...	...	·80
Cawnpore	...	...	...	·79
Muttra	...	...	...	·78
Benares	...	...	...	·77
Bareilly and Jalaun		...	...	·76

The worst results were found in the following districts:—

Lalitpur and Tarái		...	...	·50
Muzaffarnagar	...	...	...	·48
Moradabad	...	...	...	·34

34. The heaviest pending files at the end of the year were in the courts of the judges of Moradabad, Sháhjahánpur, and Cawnpore.

35. Two thousand and fifty-nine persons were punished by the sessions judges in 1875, of whom 129 were sentenced to death, 199 to transportation for life, 70 to transportation for terms, 1,447 to rigorous imprisonment, 21 to simple imprisonment, 134 to fine with imprisonment, 20 to fine without imprisonment, 19 to whipping in addition to other punishment, and 20 to whipping in lieu of other punishment.

36. The fines imposed by the sessions judges during the year aggregated Rs. 12,989, of which Rs. 4,582 were realized.

Sentences of solitary confinement in addition to imprisonment were passed on nine persons by the judge of Farukhabad, three by the judge of Gorakhpur, and two by the judge of Sháhjahánpur.

In one district solitary confinement was regarded as a peculiarly appropriate punishment in the cases of twice-convicted women, and the court enjoined that great care should be exercised that only persons physically fit to undergo this punishment are subjected to it.

37. One thousand one hundred and ninety-eight cases were tried with the aid of assessors during the year. The judges agreed with the assessors in 1,045, and differed from them in 148, cases. As in previous years, the great majority of the assessors were drawn from the land-holding, banking, and trading classes.

38. The cases of one hundred and thirty-one persons sentenced by the sessions judges to death came in the year before the High Court for confirmation; 92 of these sentences were confirmed by the High Court, 31 were modified, and eight annulled; 760 cases came before the High Court in appeal or revision, the court modified the order or remanded the case in 186 instances, and annulled the sentences in 82.

Four hundred and fifty cases came before the court under sections 322, 295, and 296 of Act X. of 1872; the court confirmed the sentences in 297 cases, modified it in 177, and annulled it in 36.

39. The High Court on the original side disposed of one case during the year.

40. With reference to the orders of Government in regard to the payment of extra remuneration to Government pleaders in conducting and prosecuting criminal cases, the court has had reason to believe that these orders are very differently interpreted in the different districts. In some districts the judges appear to have regarded the power vested in them as to be exercised only in extremely exceptional cases, while in other districts the court inclines to think that the power was exercised perhaps more freely than the Government orders allowed. Inquiry has been made on this point and the court proposes to address the Government in the matter at an early date.

HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE, N.-W. P.:
Allahabad, the 16th September, 1876.

W. TYRRELL,
Registrar.

APPENDIX.

Remarks recorded by the Magistrate of Mainpuri in his report on the Administration of Criminal Justice during the year 1875.

I HAVE myself taken a fair share in the original criminal work during the nine months I have been here, keeping in my own hands a portion of the district where my staff of officers was reduced, as it was for four months, by Mr. Mulock's transfer, and reserving important cases when it was complete. I have also retained all charges against police officers, and also all cases where persons suspected of bad livelihood were called on to give security, as I found that the extensive powers given under the law against suspected persons were in my judgment much too freely used.

I cannot but think that this power is one which should be exercised with great circumspection.

It is the ready resort of inefficient or lazy police, and its tendency is to create a profound dread of the police not only among the predatory classes, but also among the most peaceable and industrious. It is a very difficult thing for a man to disprove a charge of this kind, and it is often a very difficult thing even for a respectable man to find persons willing and able to give security for him. I am fully alive to the highly beneficial effect of a resort to the provisions of this law against such persons as wealthy fences or dangerous and notorious leaders or robbers; but the constant application of police officers, who have failed to trace a theft or burglary, to be allowed to send up the accused for trial as badmashes, should, I think, be generally discountenanced.

GOVERNMENT N.W.P.

NOTE ON THE CRIMINAL STATEMENTS FOR 1876.

THE number of offences reported and prosecuted in the year 1876 showed a considerable increase over the figures for the year 1875. As remarked last year, this increase has been progressive in the last six years.

2. One lakh fifty-eight thousand six hundred and twenty-three offences were reported during the year, 76,937 were prosecuted, and 139,863 persons were under trial. Of these persons 39,682 were acquitted or discharged, 98,722 were convicted or committed for trial.

Inasmuch as the increase in the number of offences reported, as shown hereinafter, is chiefly observable in the offences of hurt, assault, and criminal trespass, which more frequently form the subject of frivolous or groundless complaints than do graver offences, these figures would not appear to show, as far as the police are concerned, that offences were not as vigorously enquired into and prosecuted in 1876 as in 1875, but that more frivolous or groundless complaints and reports were made in the year under review than in 1875. They do appear to show, however, that either a number of persons were unnecessarily brought to trial by the criminal authorities, or were improperly acquitted or discharged by them after being brought to trial.

One thousand one hundred and twenty persons were awaiting trial at the close of the year.

3. The corresponding numbers in 1873, 1874, and 1875, are shown with those of 1876 in the marginal table.

Years.	Reported.	Prosecuted.	Under trial.	Acquitted.	Convicted, committed.	Undisposed of.
1873 ...	138,895	70,752	128,208	26,254	90,337	1,218
1874 ...	148,176	74,048	134,159	37,037	96,673	1,240
1875 ...	154,578	76,519	142,521	38,639	102,394	1,035
1876 ...	158,623	76,937	139,863	39,682	98,722	1,126

4. The increase in the number of offences reported was in the districts of Muzaffarnagar, Dehra Dún, Moradabad, Bijnor, Sháhjahánpur, Agra, Muttra, Mainpuri, Gorakhpur, Basti, Azamgarh, Jaunpur, Mirzapur, Kumaun, Garhwál, and in the Tarái. Putting aside breaches of municipal and canal laws, as being offences of slight importance, the increase was chiefly observable in the offences of hurt, assault, and criminal trespass.

5. The state of the pending files in the criminal courts at the close of the year increased from 1,035 to 1,126. The heaviest pending file (108) was in the district of Bulandshahr, and the next heaviest (86) is found in Allahabad. The increase in Allahabad is owing to 56 persons being implicated in two cases under section 147 of the Penal Code. Most of the other districts show creditable results in this respect.

6. Of the persons committed to the sessions for trial ·72 per cent. were convicted.

Committals were most successful in the districts shown in the margin. They were least successful in the districts of Garhwál (·12), Lalitpur (·40), Kumaun (·62), Gorakhpur (·64), and Cawnpore (·65).

	1871.	1872.	1873.	1874.	1875.	1876.

8. Offences against property are exhibited in the following statement :—

	1871.	1872.	1873.	1874.	1875.	1876.
Theft	22,541	31,139	35,381	30,898	32,047	30,6[illegible]8
Robbery	404	391	470	435	378	308

House-breaking for theft ...	20,238	19,771	23,433	22,941	27,379	26,360

The proportion in these Provinces of prosecutions for the offences of theft, and house-breaking to commit theft to the number reported, shows an improvement is still desirable in the protection afforded to property.

9. Three hundred and seventy-six cases of infanticide were reported as having occurred in 1876 as against 436 in the previous year, 2,468 offences against the revenue laws, and 6,833 under the Municipalities' Act were brought before the courts in the year.

Three thousand three hundred and eighty-one attempts to commit offences were recorded.

10. Four thousand and three hundred persons were dealt with under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure for keeping the peace ; 1,779 persons were required to find security for good behaviour ; 259 persons were reported as vagrants, having no visible means of livelihood.

11. The second general statement shows the working of the courts of the magistrates in the Provinces in the year under review.

One thousand and thirty-five persons were awaiting trial from the previous year, 60,966 persons were arrested, and 77,369 were summoned before the magistrates—making in all, with 891 transferred for trial from other parts of India, a total of 140,291 persons for disposal, against a total of 142,927 persons in the previous year.

12. These persons were disposed of as follows :—

Discharged without trial	21,441
Acquitted	18,223
Convicted, including committed	99,098
Died, escaped, or transferred	403
Awaiting trial at the end of the year	1,126

Of the latter, 598 were in custody and 528 on bail or recognizance at the end of the year.

13. The results of the year under review and of the three previous years are shown as follows :—

	1873.	1874.	1875.	1876.
Discharged	19,210	19,592	22,131	21,441
Acquitted	17,041	17,400	16,611	18 223
Convicted, including committed	90,337	96,090	102,899	99,098
Died, escaped, or transferred	405	417	235	403

14. The percentage of persons discharged without trial in the year 1876 is the same as in the two previous years—viz., ·15.

An excessive number of persons were discharged without trial in the following districts :—

	Average number discharged without trial.
Benares	·34
Muzaffarnagar	·31
Mirzapur	·26
Agra	·25

The excessive number of persons discharged without trial in some of the districts does not speak well for the magistrates who summoned them, as it exhibits an apparent want of discretion in issuing processes. These magistrates have been warned to be more careful in issuing processes.

15. The proportion of persons acquitted to those disposed of was ·14 as compared with ·12 in the previous year. It is noticeable that, notwithstanding a decrease in the number of persons under trial, the number of those acquitted increased.

16. The Court, however, has no reason to be dissatisfied with the general result of the despatch of criminal business in the past year.

17. One hundred and forty-three cases were pending at the end of the year which had lasted more than six weeks: 56 were in Aligarh, 22 in Etáwah, 18 in Bulandshahr, 10 in Bánda and Hamírpur, respectively, 6 in Mirzapur and Bijnor, respectively, 5 in Jaunpur, 3 in Gházipur, and 1 in Farukhabad, Mainpuri, Cawnpore, and Garhwál, respectively.

18. The third general statement exhibits the punishments imposed by the magistrates during the year.

They were as follows :—

Fined	58,754
Imprisoned	22,396
Flogged	5,261
Ordered to find security for good behaviour	1,779
Ditto to keep the peace	1,256
Ditto to enter into recognizances	3,044
Imprisoned and fined	3,605
Imprisoned and flogged	617
Fined and flogged	3
Grand Total	96,635

The total of the previous year amounted to 100,520.

19. The entire amount of fines imposed during the year was Rs. 3,69,415, of which Rs. 2,87,457, or ·78, were realized, and Rs. 19,180 were paid in compensation to injured parties.

Judging from the small amount of fines realized in the districts of Aligarh, Bareilly, Bijnor, and Sháhjahánpur, the Court fears that unreasonably large fines were imposed, or that proper steps to realize the fines were not taken in those districts.

20. Of the persons fined 56,251 were sentenced to fines not exceeding Rs. 10, 5,479 were fined sums not exceeding Rs. 50, 442 persons were sentenced to fines not less than Rs. 50 and not exceeding Rs. 100, and 184 persons were fined in sums ranging from Rs. 100 to Rs. 500.

21. Twenty-four thousand nine hundred and thirty-two persons were sentenced to rigorous and 1,438 persons to simple imprisonment during the year. The various terms of imprisonment thus inflicted were as follows :—

Imprisonment not exceeding 15 days, 3,776 rigorous and 634 simple; not exceeding six months, 14,457 rigorous and 776 simple; not exceeding two years, 6,587 rigorous and 28 simple; and in excess of two years, 112 rigorous and none simple.

22. One thousand one hundred and seventeen juveniles and 4,164 adults were flogged; the average number of stripes inflicted being 18, and the largest number being 30.

23. One thousand three hundred and eighty-four persons, being ·45 of those called on to find security to be of good behaviour and to keep the peace, were imprisoned.

As the Court has before observed, this provision of the law may be used harshly and oppressively. Great diversity of practice prevails, as the Judge of Farukhabad remarks, in different districts, and even in the same district under different magistrates. The Court has reason to fear that the security required is in many cases fixed at an amount which it is quite unreasonable to expect the party ordered to find security to produce.

24. The statistics of punishment inflicted during the last five years are summarized in the annexed tabular statement:—

Year.	Fined.	Imprisoned.	Flogged.	Security for good behaviour.	Security to keep the peace.	Recognizance to keep the peace.	Imprisoned and fined.	Imprisoned and flogged.	Fined and flogged.	Total.

25. The next (fourth) statement shows the number of witnesses who attended the magisterial courts, and the period of their detention there; 318,668 witnesses were examined in the year, of whom 302,761 were dismissed by the courts on the first day; of the rest 15,173 were detained between 1 and 3 days; 723 were detained above 3 and less than 7 days, and 11 above 7 days. Of these last the magistrate of Basti was answerable for the detention of 9, the Bulandshahr and Muzaffarnagar courts for 1 each.

26. The average duration of cases in the magisterial courts in the year was 7 days as compared with 8 days in the previous year.

The best results were attained in Dehra Dún, where it was 2 days; in the Tarái, where it was 3 days; in Meerut, Budaun, Bánda, Hamírpur, and Jaunpur, where it was 4 days; and in Sháhjahánpur, Allahabad, and Jhánsi, where it was 5 days. The duration was high in Garhwál (20 days), but, as remarked in previous years, the circumstances of this district are peculiar; in Mirzapur (12 days); Azamgarh (10 days); Aligarh, Moradabad, Bijnor, Fatehpur, and Gorakhpur (9 days); and in Muzaffarnagar, Bulandshahr, Farukhabad, Basti, Gházipur, and Jalaun (8 days).

The excessive duration of cases in Gorakhpur is attributed by the magistrate to the district being deprived of the services of one full power magistate for six months.

27. The fifth statement shows the results of appeals from subordinate magistrates to the magistrates of districts; 3,085 appeals were preferred, of which 363 were rejected, 1,486 were dismissed, 1,089 were wholly or partially successful, and 48 remained undecided at the end of the year.

The percentage of successful appeals to the entire number disposed of was ·33 in 1876 as compared with 30 in 1875.

28. The seventh statement shows the results of appeals to the sessions courts in the Provinces.

our thousand one hundred and thirty-one persons appealed, being 177 less than in the previous year; 813 appeals were summarily rejected, 2,045 were dismissed, 951 succeeded, and 22 resulted in remands, while 184 remained pending at the close of the year. The percentage of successful appeals in the sessions courts was ·22 in 1876 as compared with ·23 in the previous year. The largest number of appeals was made to the sessions courts of Moradabad (265), Benares (261), Aligarh (240), Allahabad (234), Gorakhpur (220), and Meerut (197).

The smallest number of appeals was in the Tarái (7), Dehra Dún (20), Hamírpur and Jhánsi (31), and Jaláun (33).

29. The eighth statement shows the details of cases committed to the sessions courts during the year 1876; 2,605 persons were sent for trial to the sessions courts in the year. This total was 286 less than in 1875.

The sessions courts disposed of 2,423 of these commitments, convicting 1,801 persons, or ·72 per cent., as compared with ·74 in 1875.

30. One hundred and seventy-two persons were awaiting trial at the end of the year.

31. The largest number of commitments was made in the districts of Sháhjahánpur (184), Cawnpore (172), Bareilly (159), Agra and Allahabad (130) respectively, and Gorakhpur (128).

The fewest commitments were in the districts of Saháranpur (40), Muzaffarnagar (37), Bíjnor (36), Kamaun (32), Dehra Dún (16), Jhánsi and Jalaun (12), Garhwál (9), Lalitpur (6), and the Tarái (2).

32. The percentage of persons convicted to the number disposed of was highest in the districts of—

33. The heaviest pending files at the end of the year were in the courts of the judges of Bareilly, Mainpuri, and Moradabad.

34. One thousand eight hundred and nine persons were punished by the sessions judges in 1876, of whom 114 were sentenced to death, 174 to transportation for life, 64 to transportation for a term of years, 1,275 to rigorous imprisonment, 16 to simple imprisonment, 132 to fine with imprisonment, 11 to fine without imprisonment, 4 to whipping in addition to other punishments, and 16 to whipping in lieu of other punishments.

35. The fines imposed by the sessions judges during the year aggregated Rs. 19,369, of which Rs. 7,820 were realized. Sentences of solitary confinement in addition to imprisonment, were passed on 26 persons—viz., 17 by the judge of Gorakhpur, 6 by the judge of Agra, and 3 by the judge of Farukhabad.

36. One thousand one hundred and sixty-seven cases were tried with the aid of assessors during the year. The judges agreed with the assessors in 1,013 and differed from them in 154 cases. As in previous years, the great majority of the assessors were drawn from the landholding, banking, and trading classes.

37. The cases of one hundred and twelve persons sentenced by the sessions judges to death came before the High Court for confirmation; 90 of these sentences were confirmed by the High Court, 16 were modified, and six annulled. The cases of 708 persons came before the High Court in appeal or revision; the Court modified the order or remanded the case in 165 instances, and annulled the sentence in 84. The cases of 399 persons came before the Court under section 322, 295, and 296 of Act X. of 1872; the Court confirmed the sentence in 229 instances, modified it in 142, and annulled it in 28.

38. The High Court, in the exercise of original criminal jurisdiction, disposed of three cases during the year.

The causes of difference between the figures of this statement and those of No. 1 are, that in some districts cases committed and referred to sessions, included in this statement, are not included in No. 1, and cases transferred from one court to another in the same district are twice, sometimes thrice, entered in this statement.

GOVERNMENT 1878 N.W.P.

THE effects of the scarcity which prevailed during a great part of the year under review are seen in the great increase in the number of reports of offences and prosecutions.

2. One hundred and eighty-six thousand two hundred and fifty-four offences were reported during the year, 87,007 were prosecuted, and 158,779 persons were under trial. Of these persons 40,292 were acquitted or discharged, and 116,488 were convicted or committed for trial. From the year 1872 to the year 1876 the largest number of persons under trial in any year was 142,521.

3. There was a general increase throughout the provinces in the number of offences reported, except in the districts of Dehra Dún, Mainpuri, Etáwah, Jaunpur, and Garhwál, where there was a slight decrease. The increase is principally under the heads of house-breaking with intent to commit theft and simple theft.

Offences under the Municipal Acts and under section 34, Act V. of 1861 increased, owing to the more stringent enforcement of the provisions of the law.

One thousand six hundred and thirty-five persons were awaiting trial at the close of the year.

4. The corresponding results in 1874, 1875, and 1876 are shown with those of 1877 in the following table :—

Year.	Reported.	Prosecuted.	Under trial.	Acquitted.	Convicted, committed.	Undisposed of.
1874	148,176	74,048	134,159	37,073	96,673	1,240
1875	154 578	76,519	142,121	38,859	104,394	1,035
1876	156,623	76,937	139,863	39,682	98,722	1,126
1877	186,254	87,007	158,779	40,292	116,488	1,635

5. The number of persons awaiting trial in the criminal courts at the close of the year increased from 1,126 to 1,635. The heaviest pending file (179) was in the district of Sháhjahánpur, the next heaviest (120) is found in Etáwah, and the next (106) in Bulandshahr. The Magistrate of Sháhjahánpur states that the cases of most of these men were only reported during the Christmas vacation. This result is no doubt due to the great increase in the number of persons brought to trial during the year.

6. Of the persons committed to the sessions for trial, 74 per cent. were convicted. Committals were most successful in the districts shown in the margin. They were least successful in the districts of Muzaffarnagar (·57), Garhwál (·58), Benares (·61), Mirzapur (·63), and Dehra Dún and Bánda (·64) respectively.

Murder	321	354	349	324	288	351

8. The reports of offences against property are exhibited in the following statement :—

	1872.	1873.	1874.	1875.	1876.	1877.
Robbery	391	470	433	378	308	466

House-breaking for theft ...	19,771	23,433	22,941	27,379	26,360	34,005

The proportion of prosecutions to the number of offences reported was under the head of theft ·56, and under that of house-breaking to commit theft ·12. There is still room for improvement.

9. Three hundred and thirty-seven cases of infanticide were reported as having occurred in 1877 as against 376 in the previous year; 3,338 persons were brought to trial for offences against the revenue laws, and 5,462 for offences punishable under the Municipalities Act; 4,495 attempts to commit offences were recorded.

10. Three thousand four hundred and twenty-two persons were dealt with under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure for keeping the peace, and 267 persons were reported as vagrants, having no visible means of livelihood. It is observed that there was a decrease compared with the year 1876 of 121 persons in the number (1,658) required to find security for good behaviour.

11. The second general statement shows the working of the courts of the Magistrates in the provinces during the year under review.

One thousand one hundred and twenty-five persons were awaiting trial from the previous year, 85,310 were arrested, and 71,940 were summoned before the Magistrates, making in all, with 984 transferred for trial from other parts of India, a total of 159,359 persons for disposal, against a total of 140,291 persons in the previous year.

12. These persons were disposed of as follows :—

Discharged without trial	20,914
Acquitted	19,370
Convicted, including committed	116,932
Died, escaped, or transferred	508
Awaiting trial at the end of the year	1,635

Of the latter, 1,245 were in custody and 390 on bail or recognizance at the end of the year.

13. The results of the year under review and of the three previous years are shown as follows :—

Discharged	19,592	22,131	21,441	20,914
Acquitted	17,400	16,681	18,223	19,370
Convicted, including committed	96,090	102,899	99,098	116,932
Died, escaped, or transferred	417	235	403	508

14. The percentage of persons discharged without trial in the year 1877 is the same as in the three previous years, viz. 15.

An excessive number of persons were discharged without trial in the following districts :—

	Discharged without trial.
Muzaffarnagar	1,498
Agra	1,015
Allahabad	1,392
Benares	2,592

Due notice has been taken of this in the review of the annual reports, and Magistrates have been enjoined to examine the prosecutor carefully, and not to issue summonses without being satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the complaint is correct.

15. The proportion of persons acquitted to those disposed of was ·12, as compared with ·14 in the previous year. The increased proportion of convictions is probably due to the number of petty thefts which came before the courts in consequence of the famine.

16. The Court is satisfied with the general result of the despatch of criminal business in the past year.

17. Ninety-six cases were pending at the end of the year which had lasted more than six weeks; 23 were in Aligarh, 18 in Hamírpur, 16 in Azamgarh, 15 in Etáwah, 9 in Meerut, 8 in Bánda, 2 in Bijnor, 2 in Jaunpur, and one in each of the districts of Benares and Garhwál.

18. The third general statement exhibits the punishments imposed by the Magistrates during the year. They were as follows:—

Fined	61,827
Flogged	11,301
Ordered to find security for good behaviour	1,658
„ to keep the peace	1,118
„ to enter into recognizance	2,304
Imprisoned and fined	3,742
„ flogged	842
Fined and flogged	21
Grand total ...	112,586

The total of the previous year amounted to 96,635.

19. The entire amount of fines imposed during the year was Rs. 3,89,921, of which Rs. 3,00,891, or ·79, were realized, and Rs. 22,944 were paid in compensation to injured parties.

As observed last year, the small amount of fines realized in some districts shows either a want of discretion in imposing fines or a want of energy in realizing them.

20. Of the persons fined, 59,352 were sentenced to fines not exceeding Rs. 10; 5,960 were fined sums not exceeding Rs. 50, 418 persons were sentenced to fines of not less than Rs. 50, and not exceeding Rs 100; and 136 persons were fined in sums ranging from Rs 100 to Rs. 500.

21. Thirty-two thousand one hundred and thirteen persons were sentenced to rigorous, and 1,709 persons to simple imprisonment during the year. The various terms of imprisonment thus inflicted were as follows:—

Imprisonment not exceeding 15 days, 5,720 rigorous and 947 simple; not exceeding six months, 18,028 rigorous and 736 simple; not exceeding 2 years, 8,180 rigorous and 10 simple; and in excess of two years, 133 rigorous and none simple.

22. One thousand four hundred and fifty-seven juvenile and 9,844 adults were flogged; the average number of stripes being 16, and the largest number being 30.

23. One thousand one hundred and seventy-one persons, being ·43 of those called on to find security, to be of good behaviour, and to keep the peace, were imprisoned.

In some districts the provisions of the law for the prevention of crime by requiring suspects to find security for good behaviour have been exercised with great discretion, but in others there is still reason to believe that the amount of security demanded is greater than that which the accused can reasonably be expected to find. The attention of the Magistrates has, where necessary, been directed to this matter.

24. The statistics of punishment inflicted during the last five years are summarized in the annexed tabular statement :—

Year.	Fined.	Imprisoned.	Flogged.	Security for good behaviour.	Security to keep the peace.	Recognizance to keep the peace.	Imprisoned and fined.	Imprisoned and flogged.	Fined and flogged.	Total.

1877 ...	61,827	29,723	11,301	1,658	1,118	2,304	3,742	842	21	112,536

25. The next (fourth) statement shows the number of witnesses who attended the magisterial courts and the period of their detention there; 359,981 witnesses were examined in the year, of whom 338,515 were dismissed by the courts on the first day; of the rest, 19,630 were detained between one and three days, 1,734 were detained above three and less than seven days, and 102 above seven days. Of those last, the Magistrate of Azamgarh was answerable for the detention of 48, the Magistrate of Hamírpur for 32, the Magistrate of Moradabad for 17, and the Magistrate of Muttra for 5.

26. The average duration of cases in the magisterial courts in the year was seven days, which was the same as in the previous year.

The best results were attained in the Dún, where it was two days; in the Tarái, where it was three days; in Meerut, Budaun, and Bánda, where it was four days; and in Etah, Bijnor, Muttra, Allahabad, Benares, and Lalitpur, where it was five days. The duration was high in Garhwál (17 days), in Mirzapur (11 days), Muzaffarnagar, Gházipur, Farukhabad, and Azamgarh (9 days), and in Saháranpur, Bulandshahr, Aligarh, and Gorakhpur (8 days).

This return, and that showing the attendance of witnesses, appeared to the Court to be inaccurately prepared for some districts, and the attention of the District Judges and Magistrates was drawn to the fact, and they were directed to see that the statements were correctly prepared and submitted.

27. The fifth statement shows the result of appeals from Subordinate Magistrates to the Magistrates of districts; 3,109 appeals were preferred, of which 394 were rejected, 1,627 were dismissed, 964 were wholly or partially successful, and 49 remained undecided at the end of the year.

The percentage of successful appeals to the entire number disposed of was ·32, as compared with ·33 in 1876.

28. The seventh statement shows the results of appeals to the Sessions Courts in the provinces: 4,141 persons appealed, being 10 more than in the previous year; 933 appeals were summarily rejected; 2,033 were dismissed, 865 succeeded, and 61 resulted in remands, while 180 remained pending at the close of the year. The percentage of successful appeals in the Sessions Courts was ·23 in 1877, as compared with ·22 in the previous year. The largest number of appeals was made to the Sessions Courts of Benares (383), Moradabad (276), Aligarh (247), and Bulandshahr (234).

The smallest number of appeals was in the Dún and Tarái (15 each), Jhánsi (23), Garhwál (36), and Jalaun (62).

29. The eighth statement shows the details of cases committed to the Sessions Courts during the year 1877 ; 4,492 persons were sent for trial to the Sessions Courts in the year. This total was 1,887 more than in the previous year.

The Sessions Courts disposed of 3,559 of these commitments, convicting 2,665 persons, or ·75 per cent., as compared with ·72 in 1876.

30. Five hundred and twenty persons were awaiting trial at the end of the year.

31. The largest number of commitments was made in the districts of Sháhjahánpur (651), Budaun (3,677), Bareilly (320), Gorakhpur (269), Agra (224), and Etáwah (190).

The fewest commitments were in the districts of Tarái (3), Jhánsi (7), Dehra Dún (8), Kumaun (18), Garhwál (20), Jalaun (46), and Jaunpur (52).

32. The percentage of persons convicted to the number disposed of was highest in the districts of—

Muzaffarnagar and Jalaun	·89
Bijnor	·88
Farukhabad	·87
Budaun and Mirzapur	·86
Gházipur	·85
Bareilly	·81
Saháranpur	·80

The worst results were found in the following districts :—

Jaunpur	·52
Dehra Dún	·38
Garhwál	·35

33. The heaviest pending files at the end of the year were in the courts of the Judges of Bareilly, Budaun, and Basti.

34. Two thousand six hundred and twenty-five persons were punished by the Sessions Judges in 1877, of whom 124 were sentenced to death, 262 to transportation for life, 110 to transportation for a term of years, 1,821 to rigorous imprisonment, 14 to simple imprisonment, 171 to fine with imprisonment, 14 to fine without imprisonment, 40 to whipping in addition to other punishments, and 69 to whipping in lieu of other punishments.

35. The fines imposed by the Sessions Judges during the year aggregated Rs. 30,702, of which Rs. 4,719 only were realized. Sentences of solitary confinement, in addition to imprisonment, were passed on 79 persons, viz., 60 by the Judge of Allahabad, 8 by the Judge of Mirzapur, 4 by the Judge of Gorakhpur, 2 by the Judges of Saháranpur and Cawnpore, and one by the Judges of Agra, Farukhabad, and Benares.

36. One thousand three hundred and forty-two cases were tried with the aid of assessors during the year. The Judges agreed with the assessors in 1,131, and differed from them in 170 cases. As usual, the great majority of the assessors were drawn from the landholding, banking, and trading classes.

37. The cases of 123 persons sentenced by the Sessions Judges to death came before the High Court for confirmation; 97 of these sentences were confirmed by the High Court, 22 were modified, and 4 annulled. The cases of 903 persons came before the High Court in appeal or revision; the Court modified the order or remanded the case in 263 instances, and annulled the sentence in 91. APPENDIX.

Extract from Criminal Report submitted by the Judge of Sahâranpur.

THE Canal Magistrates are officers from whose decisions appeals are but seldom preferred. Judging, however, from such as have come before me, as also from others taken up indiscriminately in review, I regret to say that my opinion is that they are too apt to approach the case with a certain amount of bias in favour of the prosecution. The consequence of which is that sufficient opportunity is not given to the accused for making his defence, nor is he examined in relation thereto to the extent that is desirable. The effect of this is that the real defence comes out sometimes for the first time in the appellate court, which generally necessitates a further investigation, and which is not as it should be.

The causes of difference between the figures of this statement and those of No. 1 are that in some districts cases committed and referred to Sessions, included in this statement, are not included in No. 1, and cases transferred from one Court to another in the same district are twice, sometimes thrice, entered in this statement.

NOTE

ON THE

CRIMINAL STATEMENTS

For the year 1878.

THE actual scarcity of food at the beginning of the year, and the high prices that prevailed till the end of it, had their effect in producing an abnormal increase of crime throughout the provinces.

The number of offences reported was 220,852, against 186,254 in the previous year; and of these reports 108,934, or nearly 50 per cent., resulted in prosecutions.

The number of persons under trial was larger than it had been during any one of the preceding nineteen years, and the proportion of convictions, inclusive of commitments, was higher.

2. The statistics of the twenty years ending with 1878 are compared in the following table:—

Year.	Number of persons under trial.	Percentage of convictions and commitments to persons whose cases were disposed of.	Percentage of discharges and acquittals to persons whose cases were disposed of.
1859	63,504	57	43
1860	64,101	64	36
1861	64,755	63	37
1862	74,100	57	43
1863	81,601	58	42
1864	95,940	59	41
1865	98,115	62	38
1866	103,440	64	36
1867	94,806	67	33
1868	106,830	67	33
1869	124,097	69	31
1870	114,899	70	30
1871	107,663	71	29
1872	115,949	70	30
1873	128,208	72	28
1874	134,159	72	28
1875	142,521	73	27
1876	139,863	72	28
1877	158,779	75	25
1878	183,231	76	24

If it may be assumed that crime is not more rife than formerly, these figures go to prove how much more efficient the criminal administration has become since 1862, the year in which the Code of Criminal Procedure came into force, and the first year during the whole of which Act V., 1861, was in operation. In that year convictions or commitments were obtained in only 57 per cent. of the cases disposed of by Magistrates, as compared with 75 per cent. in 1877 and 76 per cent. in 1878.

The number of persons under trial whose cases were left undisposed of in the courts of Magistrates at the end of the year was, notwithstanding the great increase of business, both criminal and revenue and in connection with relief works, smaller than in any one of the preceding five years.

3. The number of persons committed whose cases were disposed of in Courts of Session during the year was 3,759, of whom 2,905, or 77 per cent., were convicted, as against 75 per cent. in 1877. The number both of cases and of persons committed was largest in the Sháhjahánpur, Cawnpore, and Bareilly districts.

4. In the following statement the number of persons under trial for offences in respect of which the increase in prosecutions is most noticeable in the returns of 1878 is compared with the numbers under trial in the first and last of the five preceding years :—

Offence.	Number of persons under trial.
	1873.	1877.	1878.
Relating to coin, chap. XII., Indian Penal Code ...	156	199	302
Ditto stamps, ditto ...	20	22	41
Housebreaking in order to commit theft ...	4,354	6,182	11,476
Theft	19,724	26,633	44,753
Dishonestly receiving stolen property	7,527	8,455	14,576
Relating to opium	158	467	1,032
Ditto general stamps	174	424	3,815
Gambling	905	1,635	2,185
Relating to cantonments	1,923	2,113	2,984
Ditto license tax	...	59	1,281

The increase in the number of offences relating to stamps under Chapter XII. of the Penal Code will probably be progressive as long as the present practice of requiring court fees to be paid in adhesive labels is allowed to continue.

The enormous increase in offences against property is, of course, the direct result of the scarcity and high prices of food grains; and in the number of persons under trial for offences relating to general stamps it may be attributed partly to improved administration and partly to an excess of zeal, untempered with discretion, on the part of the officer in charge of the Stamp Department in the Hamírpur district.

Cases in which fines were levied under the orders of Collectors appear to have been erroneously shown in the returns as offences against the North-Western Provinces and Northern India License Acts.

5. One thousand two hundred and forty-one persons were called on to furnish security for good behaviour, against an annual average of 1,393 while Act XXV, 1861, was in force, 1,934 during the five preceding years under Act X., 1872, and 1,573 during the sixteen years from 1862 to 1877. It will be remembered that the operation of Chapter XXXVIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure was the subject of discussion during the year under review, with reference to the letter of the Government of India in the Home Department (Judicial), No. 3-221, dated the 16th of February, 1878.

6. The number of witnesses who attended the courts of Magistrates was 383,439, or more by nearly 24,000 than attended in any one of the preceding nineteen years. The proportion (·6) of witnesses detained beyond one day was the same as in 1877.

7. The average duration of cases in the courts of Magistrates was 6 days, against 7 in the preceding year; in Courts of Session, of committed cases 30 days, and of appeals 14, against 29 and 17 respectively; and, in the High Court, of references and appeals, 14 days, against 16.

In the year 1862, some results obtained in which have already been compared with those of 1878, the average duration of cases in the courts of Magistrates was 14 days, and of appeals in Courts of Session 26. The average duration of committed cases cannot be compared, the duration being calculated then from the date fixed by the Magistrate for trial, and now from the date of committal.

8. Persons convicted in the courts of Magistrates were fined, imprisoned, and whipped in the following numbers :—

Fined	59,834
Imprisoned	44,179
Whipped	22,840
Ditto and whipped	1,559
Fined and whipped	24

Sixty-three thousand four hundred and eighty-nine persons were punished with fines amounting to Rs. 3,66,494, of which Rs. 2,89,179, or 79 per cent., were realised before the close of the year. The number of persons fined in the courts of Magistrates, and the amount of fines imposed and realised during each year since 1862, are compared in the following statement :—

Years.	Number of persons fined.	Amount of fines imposed.	Amount of fines realised.	Proportion realised.
		Rs.	Rs.
1862	20,134	3,08,561	1,44,169	·47
1863	24,302	3,17,531	1,63,582	·51
1864	28,214	3,99,124	2,29,226	·58
1865	30,360	3,46,763	2,08,344	·60
1866	34,992	3,55,140	2,32,891	·65
1867	36,134	3,27,378	2,35,282	·72
1868	39,609	3,53,581	2,56,107	·72
1869	41,763	3,58,731	2,61,916	·73
1870	45,643	3,83,861	2,89,576	·75
1871	44,721	2,86,717	2,23,462	·78
1872	46,691	2,94,940	2,23,188	·76
1873	51,228	3,21,037	2,45,123	·76
1874	53,487	3,60,777	2,74,874	·76
1875	62,885	3,70,281	2,92,049	·79
1876	62,356	3,69,415	2,87,457	·78
1877	65,866	3,89,021	3,00,891	·79
1878	63,489	3,66,494	2,89,179	·79

From this statement it appears that fines generally are now lighter and more suited to the means of those on whom they are imposed than was formerly the case.

9. Persons convicted in Courts of Session were sentenced as follows :—

To death	169
To be transported	399
„ rigorously imprisoned	2,192
„ simply imprisoned	22
„ fined	14
„ fined and imprisoned	114
„ whipped	24
„ whipped and fined or imprisoned	39

The fines imposed amounted to Rs. 10,623, of which Rs. 2,121, or 20 per cent., were realised, against 15 per cent. in 1877.

10. The number of persons who preferred appeals from orders of Magistrates to Magistrates of Districts was 3,143, of whom 901, or 29 per cent. succeeded in obtaining the reversal or modification of the order appealed against.

The number of persons who appealed from orders of Magistrates to Courts of Session was 4,294, of whom 978, or 23 per cent., succeeded.

In the High Court, the result of references in respect of the 169 persons on whom sentence of death had been passed was confirmation in respect of 139, or 82 per cent.; modification in respect of 22, or 13 per cent.; and acquittal in respect of 8, or 5 per cent.

Nine hundred and eighty-eight persons appealed to the High Court, and 216, or 22 per cent. of them, succeeded in obtaining either a modification or a reversal of their sentences, or an order for the re-trial of their cases.

The High Court called for the cases of 299 persons under section 294 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, and interfered with the orders passed in respect of 149, or 50 per cent. of them.

The cases of 384 persons were submitted to the High Court by Courts of Session and Magistrates of Districts under section 296 of the Code, on the ground either that the punishment inflicted was too severe or was inadequate, or that the judgment or order of the Magistrate was contrary to law. In 287, or 75 per cent. of these cases, the High Court declined to interfere; and in the remaining 97, or 25 per cent., it modified the judgment or order reported, or it directed re-trial.

Thus, on appeal, reference, and revision, the High Court disposed of the cases of 1,840 persons, as against those of 1,522 in the preceding year. On its original side five criminal trials were held and concluded.

11. The number of Special Magistrates in the North-Western Provinces in 1878 was 138, and the number of persons dealt with by them was 19,015, of whom 14,450, or 76 per cent., were convicted. Where so many have done good work, it may seem invidious to single out the names of particular gentlemen for honourable mention ; but the services of Shaikh Sharf-ud-din of Budaun and Babu Durga Prasad of Gorakhpur appear to the Court to be deserving of special recognition. These gentlemen sat regularly and disposed of as much work as paid Magistrates, and so satisfactorily that not one of the orders of the former, and less than one per cent. of the orders of the latter, was reversed or modified on appeal.

Of the 138 Special Magistrates, 63 sat in benches at Brindaban, Agra, Farukhabad, Etáwah, Sháhjahánpur, Moradabad, Sambhal, Chandausi, Bareilly, Pilibhít, Benares, Azamgarh, and Gházipur. Six of these benches are authorised to take up cases under municipal bye-laws, and section 34, Act V., 1861, on complaint without reference.

12. Among the Judges and Magistrates whose administration and conduct of business during the year commanded the Court's approval were Mr. Brodhurst, Mr. Lane, Mr. King, Mr. Quinton, Mr. Duthoit, Mr. Tyrrell, Mr. Sells, Mr. Ward, Mr. McConaghey, Mr. Donovan, Mr. Irvine, Mr. Church, Mr. G. R. C. Williams, Mr. Robinson, Mr. White, Mr. Rose, Mr. Denniston, Mr. Thomson, Mr. Crooke, Mr. Stack, Raja Lachman Singh, Mír Imdád Ali, C.S.I., Rai Balmukund, Pandit Radha Kishn, Munshi Kalyan Singh, and Saiyad Ali Husain.

ON THE

CRIMINAL STATEMENTS

For the year 1879.

THE number of offences reported was 166,138 against 220,852 in 1878, and of those prosecuted 73,400 against 108,934.

The number of persons under trial in the Courts of Magistrates during the year was smaller than in any one of the preceding five years, and smaller by over 50,000 than in 1878. Of the 133,158 persons under trial, 13 per cent. were discharged without trial, 13 per cent. were acquitted, 71 per cent. were convicted, and 2 per cent. were committed, the remaining 1 per cent. being represented by those who died or escaped or whose cases were undisposed of at the close of the year.

2. The decrease in crime is most noticeable in the case of offences against property, convictions for theft having fallen from 38,176 in 1878, to 17,274 in 1879, and for receiving stolen property from 11,537 to 5,913. There is a marked decrease also in convictions for offences relating to coin and weights and measures, and against the Excise, Opium, and Inland Customs' Acts.

3. Of the 95,017 persons convicted by Magistrates, 57 per cent. were fined, 25 per cent. imprisoned, 9 per cent. whipped, 3 per cent. imprisoned and fined, and the remaining 6 per cent. otherwise punished.

4. The amount of the fines imposed by Magistrates was Rs. 3,11,214, of which Rs. 2,32,537, or 75 per cent. only were realised. The amount of the fines imposed was lower than in any year since 1872, and the percentage of fines realised to fines imposed, than in any year since 1870.

Only 7 per cent. of the fines realised were paid to injured parties in compensation or amend.

5. One thousand six hundred and fifty-three persons were disposed of under Chapter XXXVIII. of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Of these, 498 were discharged, and 1,155 required to give security for good behaviour, 266 gave the security required, and 889, who failed to give it, were imprisoned.

6. The number of witnesses who attended the Courts of Magistrates was 291,616, as compared with 383,439 in 1878; 338,515 in 1877; and 302,761 in 1876. Only 5 per cent. of these witnesses were detained above one day.

7. The average duration of cases in the Courts of Magistrates was six days, the same as in the previous year.

8. The number of persons who preferred appeals from orders of Magistrates to Magistrates of Districts was 3,297, or larger by 154 than in the preceding year, notwithstanding the much smaller number of persons convicted. The percentage of these appellants, who succeeded in obtaining the reversal or modification of the order appealed against, was 29, the same as in the preceding year.

The number of persons who preferred appeals from orders of Magistrates to Courts of Session was 3,575, or smaller by 719 than in 1878; and the percentage of those who succeeded in their appeals was 23, being the same as in the year preceding.

9. Two thousand five hundred and thirty-one persons were committed to Courts of Session during the year, and 270 having remained over from 1878, there were 2,801 persons to be tried. Of those whose cases were disposed of, 76 per cent. were convicted, against 77 per cent. in the previous year. Of those who were convicted, 5 per cent. were sentenced to death, 8 per. cent. to transportation for life, 5 per cent. to transportation for a term, 75 per cent. to imprisonment, 4 per cent. to fine, and 3 per cent. to whipping.

10. Seven thousand six hundred and seventy-five witnesses attended Courts of Session during the year.

11. The average duration of committed cases in Courts of Session was 34 days against 30 in 1878, and of appeals 13 days against 14.

12. In the High Court, the result of references in respect of the 103 persons on whom sentence of death had been passed, was confirmation in respect of 89, or 86 per cent. ; modification in respect of 6, or 6 per cent. ; and acquittal in respect of 8, or 8 per cent.

Seven hundred and twelve persons appealed to the High Court, and 152, or 21 per cent. of them, succeeded in obtaining either a modification or a reversal of their sentences, or an order for the retrial of their cases.

The High Court called for the cases of 284 persons under section 294 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, and interfered with the orders passed in respect of 88, or 31 per cent. of them.

The cases of 704 persons were submitted to the High Court by Courts of Session and Magistrates of Districts under section 296 of the Code. In the case of 643, or 91 per cent., of these persons, the High Court concurred with the referring officer. Nearly half the cases submitted during the year came from the Bánda Sessions Division, and arose out of the prosecutions in the Hamírpur district, to which allusion was made in para. 4 of the note on the Criminal Statements for the year 1878.

Thus, on appeal, reference and revision, the High Court disposed of the cases of 1,803 persons, as against those of 1,840 in 1878, and 1,522 in 1877. On its original side five criminal trials were held and concluded.

13. The average duration of cases in the High Court was 14 days.

14. The sums paid by Magistrates and Courts of Session to complainants and witnesses, in pursuance of the rules passed in 1878 under section 421 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, amounted to Rs. 16,385 in 1879. Of this sum Rs. 13,769 were expended on diet allowances, and Rs. 2,616 for travelling expenses. Of the Rs. 13,769, Rs. 10,826 were paid to 36,193 natives of the ordinary labouring class, Rs. 1,384 to 3,777 natives of higher rank in life, and Rs. 1,559 to 2,032 Europeans and Eurasians and natives of superior rank.

The sum of Rs. 2,616 for travelling expenses was distributed among 1,960 persons.

The sum disbursed in 1876 under the rules of 1875 was Rs. 8,229, or about half that disbursed in 1879 under the rules of 1878.

The distribution of expenditure was unequal. Sixteen per cent. of the whole expenditure in the provinces was incurred in the Allahabad district, or just twice as much as in the Moradabad or Gorakhpur Sessions Division, in each of which the number of witnesses who attended Court was larger than in Allahabad. The expenditure in Mirzapur was one-ninth of that incurred in Allahabad, in Benares one-eigthh, and in Ghazipur one-seventh.

Out of every 150 witnesses who attended the Courts of Magistrates and Sessions Judges in 1879, twenty received diet allowance, and one his travelling expenses.

15. The effect of placing an officer in special charge of the Stamp Department in each district seems apparent in the increased number of prosecutions for offences against the Stamp Revenue. In 1876, the year preceding that in which the system of the Stamp Administration of the provinces was revised, there were 248 persons under trial for offences against the Stamp Law, of whom 212 were convicted : in 1879 there were 2,529 persons under trial for such offences and 2,111 convicted. Prosecutions were most numerous in the Allahabad, Jalaun, Hamírpur, Lalitpur, and Jhánsi districts, and fewest in the districts of Farukhabad, Moradabad, Aligarh, Saháranpur, Cawnpore, and Meerut. Thirty-three per cent. of all the convictions in the provinces were obtained in the Allahabad district alone.

16. The revision of the system of the Excise Administration, which was also carried out in 1877, has had no marked effect on criminal business. In 1876 there were 2,016 persons under trial, and 1,626 convicted for offences against the Excise and Opium Revenue ; in 1878 the numbers were 2,330, and 1,920 respectively ; and in 1879, 1,936 and 1,518.

In 1879, prosecutions and convictions were most numerous in the Gorakhpur, Bareilly, and Allahabad districts, and fewest in the districts of Lalitpur, Bulandshahr, Garhwál, and Aligarh.

NOTE

ON THE

CRIMINAL STATEMENTS

For the year 1880.

THE number of offences reported was 167,899 against 166,138 in 1879 and 220,852 in 1878, and of those prosecuted 74,489 against 73,400 in 1879 and 108,934 in 1878.

2. The number of persons under trial in the Courts of Magistrates was still smaller than in the previous year, being 132,476 against 133,158 in 1879. Of these 132,476 persons 71 per cent. were convicted and 2 per cent. committed to Courts of Session.

3. There was a marked decrease in convictions for offences against property and an equally marked increase in convictions for offences against the person. Convictions for theft and dishonestly receiving stolen property were fewer by 2,473 than in the previous year. Convictions and committals for murder, attempt to murder, and culpable homicide not amounting to murder, on the other hand, were 694 in number against 501 in 1879. Convictions for hurt were 8,094 against 7,329, and for offences against the public tranquillity 3,843 against 3,055. Convictions for offences affecting the public health, safety and convenience were 37 per cent. more numerous than in the previous year, and convictions under the Municipalities Act 12 per cent. Five hundred and three persons were convicted under the Arms Act against 265 in 1879; 1,211 under the Excise Act against 977; and 1,768 under the Gambling Act against 1,327. Under the Cantonments Act, on the other hand, 2,869 persons were convicted against 3,474 in the preceding year; under the Canal Act 2,726 against 3,656; under the Indian Customs Act 448 against 701; under the Opium Acts 480 against 541; and under the Stamp Act 882 against 2,111.

4. Convictions under the Excise Act were most numerous in the Gorakhpur (316), Allahabad (110), Mirzapur (90), Bareilly (88), Fatehpur (51), Basti (40), Sháhjahánpur (38), Pilibhít (37), Mainpuri (37), Benares (35), and Azamgarh (35) districts; and fewest in the Etáwah (10), Saháranpur (9), Aligarh (8), Ballia (7), Bulandshahr (6), Muzaffarnagar (5), Kumaun (4), Tárai (3), Jalaun (3), Lalitpur (2), and Garhwal (0) districts.

5. Convictions under the Gambling Act were most numerous in the Benares (320), Farukhabad (174), Allahabad (141), Mirzapur (138), Moradabad (135), and Agra (133) districts; under the Opium Acts in Gorakhpur (79), Farukhabad (64), Etáwah (46), Cawnpore (44), and Basti (34); and under the Stamp Act in Meerut (190), Muttra (98), Bánda (95), Cawnpore (69), and Agra (50). In the Bulandshahr, Moradabad, and Pilibhít districts there were no prosecutions under the Stamp Act.

Of the 53 persons tried under the Treasure Trove Act 22 were acquitted—one in Jaunpur, six in Bulandshahr, and 15 in Meerut.

6. Of the 93,163 persons convicted by Magistrates 62 per cent. were fined, 22 per cent. imprisoned, 7 per cent. whipped, 3 per cent. imprisoned and fined, and the remaining 6 per cent. otherwise punished.

7. The amount of the fines imposed by Magistrates was Rs. 3,29,805, of which Rs. 2,75,994, or 84 per cent., were realized. In the previous year the percentage of fines realized to fines imposed was 75 only.

Seven per cent. of the fines realized were paid to injured persons in compensation or amend.

8. One thousand eight hundred and fifteen persons were called on to show cause why they should not be required to find security for good behaviour—593 under section 504 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and 1,222 under section 505. Of the former 405, and of the latter 850, were required to find security. Of these 1,255 persons, 235 only were able to find the security demanded and 1,020 were imprisoned in default. In 57 per cent. of the cases under section 505 the security was required by Magistrates who were members of the Civil Service, in 6 per cent. by other Magistrates of European descent, and in 37 per cent. by Native Magistrates.

The number of persons required to give security under section 504 was largest in the Gorakhpur (66) and Aligarh (46) districts, and of those required to give security under section 505 in the Meerut (110), Bareilly (85), Agra (71), and Gorakhpur (68) districts.

The Court has recently communicated to the Government its opinion that the power to require security for good behaviour from persons alleged to be habitual offenders should be made a power specially conferrable by the Local Government and not be left inherent, as it now is, in every Magistrate of the 1st class.

9. The number of witnesses who attended the Courts of Magistrates was 294,248, as compared with 291,646 in 1879, 383,439 in 1878, 338,515 in 1877, and 302,761 in 1876. Only 5 per cent. of the witnesses who attended were detained above one day.

10. The average duration of cases in Courts of Magistrates was six days, the same as in 1879 and 1878.

11. The number of persons who preferred appeals from, or applied for the revision of, orders of Subordinate Magistrates to Magistrates of Districts was 3,323, or larger than in either of the two preceding years. The percentage of these appellants and applicants who succeeded in obtaining the reversal or modification of the orders of which they complained was 31 against 29 in the previous year.

12. The number of persons who preferred appeals from, or applied for the revision of, orders of Magistrates to Courts of Sessions was 3,588, and the percentage of those who succeeded in their appeals or applications was 23, being the same as in the two preceding years.

13. Two thousand four hundred and forty persons were committed to Courts of Session during the year, and 170 having remained over from 1879, there were 2,610 persons to be tried. Of the 2,432 whose cases were disposed of, 1,802, or 74 per cent., were convicted against 76 per cent. in 1879 and 77 per cent. in 1878. Of those who were convicted, 4 per cent. were sentenced to death, 7 per cent. to transportation for life, 4 per cent. to transportation for a term, 82 per cent. to imprisonment, 2 per cent. to fine, and 1 per cent. to whipping.

14. Ten thousand three hundred and twenty-seven witnesses attended Courts of Session during the year against 7,675 in the previous year.

15. The average duration of committed cases in Courts of Session was 33 days against 34 in 1879 and 30 in 1878, and of appeals 13 days against 13 in 1879 and 14 in 1878.

16. In the High Court the result of references in respect of the 66 persons on whom sentence of death had been passed was confirmation in respect of 56, or 84 per cent.; modification of sentence in respect of 5, or 8 per cent.; and acquittal in respect of 5, or 8 per cent.

Five hundred and eight persons appealed to the High Court, and 145, or 28 per cent. of them, succeeded in obtaining either a modification or a reversal of their sentences or an order for the retrial of their cases.

The High Court called for the cases of 181 persons under section 294 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and interfered with the orders passed in respect of 49, or 27 per cent.

The cases of 244 persons were submitted to the High Court by Courts of Session and Magistrates of Districts under section 296 of the Code. In the case of 176, or 72 per cent. of these persons, the High Court concurred with the referring officer.

Thus, on appeal, reference and revision, the High Court disposed, on the merits, of the cases of 999 persons as against those of 1,803 in 1879 and 1,840 in 1878. The returns of the two preceding years were abnormally swollen by the many illegal convictions under the Stamp Act which were submitted to the Court for revision from the Hamírpur district.

17. On the original side of the High Court five criminal trials were held and concluded.

18. The average duration of cases in the High Court as a Court of appeal, reference and revision was 15 days against 14 days in 1879.

19. From the commencement of the current year revised registers and statements have been brought into use as required by the Resolution of the Government of India, Home, Revenue, and Agricultural Department, No. $\frac{3}{91-102}$, dated the 27th January, 1880. In these Provinces the criminal registers, where they had been prescribed at all, had long become obsolete in form. The new statements are more complete and exhaustive than those they have superseded.

20. For its own information, and with the view of ultimately securing material to assist the subordinate Courts in the exercise of their discretion as to the infliction of punishment, the Court has added to these statements one showing the average terms of imprisonment awarded by Magistrates and Sessions Judges for certain offences under the Indian Penal Code.

One of these offences is cattle-lifting. During the first six months of the current year 1,037 persons were sentenced for this offence to terms of imprisonment amounting in the aggregate to 1,020 years. The average term of imprisonment throughout the Provinces was therefore about one year. But it differs greatly in different districts. In the Tarái, for instance, a term of two years appears to be the uniform sentence for cattle-lifting.

In Bánda the average sentence is less than six months. In Hamírpur the average term of imprisonment is three times as long as in the adjoining district of Cawnpore; in Bareilly more than twice as long as in Moradabad; and in Lalitpur nearly three times as long as in Jhánsi.

Another offence is theft and dishonest receiving of property other than cattle. During the first half of this year 4,456 persons were sentenced for this offence to terms of imprisonment amounting in the aggregate to 2,217 years, or to an average term of six months each. In the Aligarh district the average sentence passed on 136 convicts was 7½ months; in the Etah district, in the same Sessions Division, the average sentence passed on 203 convicts for this offence was 2¾ months. The average term of imprisonment was 3 months in Bánda and 8 months in Hamírpur: more than 8 months in Gorakhpur and but little more than 2 months in Basti: more than a year in Saháranpur and 4 months only in Muzaffarnagar.

Another offence is the enticing away of married women with criminal intent (section 498 of the Penal Code). One hundred and thirty-seven persons were sentenced for this offence to an average term of 5 months each. In Cawnpore the average sentence was 13 months; in the Tarái 9 months; in the Fatehpur district 9 months; and in Meerut 8 months. In Moradabad it was 4 months; in Sháhjahánpur and Aligarh less than 3 months.

Another offence is that punishable under section 376 of the Penal Code. Here the sentences run from one to ten years, the average sentence passed on 30 convicts being a little over four years. So, sentences for the offence described in section 377 of the Code vary from one to ten years, the highest and the lowest sentence having been passed on precisely similar facts in two cases now before the Court on revision.

It is needless to give further examples of the want of uniformity in the award of punishment. The subject is engaging the close attention of the High Court, and when the statements for the whole year have been received, they will be tabulated and circulated for the consideration of subordinate Courts.

21. In the annual reports allusion is made to the inconvenience Magistrates experience in the management of their record-rooms in consequence of there being no definite rules for the destruction of records of Criminal Courts. The rules of the Sadr Nizamat Adalat, which were made before there was either a Penal Code or a Code of Criminal Procedure, are obsolete, and in some districts no copy of them even exists. So far as judicial criminal records are concerned, the inconvenience complained of will be removed by the rules which have been framed by the High Court under Act III., 1879, and now only await confirmation by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and the sanction of the Government of India. But those rules will not touch the innumerable records pertaining to matters dealt with by Magistrates in their executive capacity, instructions as to the retention and disposal of which are said to be urgently needed.

HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE, N.-W. P.,
Allahabad, the 25th August 1881.

S. HARVEY JAMES,
Registrar.

CRIMINAL STATEMENTS

OF THE

FOR THE

CALENDAR YEAR 1881,

WITH

PREFATORY NOTE.

NORTH-WESTERN PROVINCES AND OUDH GOVERNMENT PRESS.

ON THE

ADMINISTRATION OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

IN THE

During the calendar year 1881.

THE number of offences reported is 227,165 against 167,899 in 1880; 166,138 in 1879; and 220,852 in 1878; and of cases brought to trial 92,673 against 74,489 in 1880; 73,400 in 1879; and 108,994 in 1878.

"Offences reported" in 1881 cannot, however, be properly compared with those of previous years, because, as a rule, only offences which were investigated by the police or came before a Magistrate used to be shown in the annual returns as "reported," whereas for 1881 all offences, cognizable and non-cognizable, of which information was given, complaint made, or cognizance taken, have been shown.

Similarly, no comparison can be made between cases brought to trial, persons under trial, and persons discharged or acquitted in 1881 and the cases brought to trial, persons under trial, and persons acquitted or discharged in any previous year, because, as a rule, till 1881, cases dismissed under section 147 or dismissed in default or on withdrawal from prosecution were not entered at all in the returns.

The only figures which admit of comparison are the number of convictions, which were 92,654 against 94,904 in 1880; 96,888 in 1879; 137,424 in 1878; 114,700 in 1877, and 97,955 in 1876. Crime, generally, therefore, may be taken to have been below the average of the normal years 1876, 1879, and 1880. Convictions (including committals) for theft were 15,226 against 15,191 in 1880; for receiving stolen property 5,900 against 5,553; for robbery and dacoity 368 against 581; for criminal misappropriation of property 282 against 373; for criminal breach of trust 429 against 449; for cheating 290 against 301; for mischief 2,668 against 2,075; for criminal trespass 5,949 against 5,328; and under the Code of Criminal Procedure and special and local laws 35,162 against 38,886.

2. Of the 92,654 persons who were convicted, 75,779, or 82 per cent., were tried regularly, and the rest summarily. Fifty-nine per cent. of those convicted were fined, 29 per cent. imprisoned, 6 per cent. whipped, and the remaining 6 per cent. otherwise punished. The decrease in the proportion of persons fined is doubtless due to the decrease in convictions under the Municipalities and Police Acts.

3. Of the fines imposed, amounting to Rs. 3,26,891, Rs. 2,67,685 were realised within the year. The High Court realised 33 per cent. of the fines it imposed; Sessions Judges 36 per cent; and Magistrates, as in the previous year, 84 per cent. The rules which have recently been issued will, it is believed, have the effect of increasing the present very small proportion of fines realised by Courts of Session to fines imposed by them. Of fines imposed, 43 per cent. were of sums not exceeding Rs. 10; 37 per cent. of sums exceeding Rs. 10 and not exceeding Rs. 50; 9 per cent. of sums exceeding Rs. 50 and not exceeding Rs. 100; and 11 per cent. of sums exceeding Rs. 100.

Only 5 per cent. of fines realised were paid to injured persons by way of compensation.

4. Of persons sentenced to imprisonment, 19 per cent. were sentenced to fifteen days and under; 54 per cent. to more than fifteen days and not more than six months; 23 per cent. to more than six months and not more than two years; 3½ per cent. to terms varying from two to seven years; and ½ per cent. to terms exceeding seven years.

5. Of the persons who were whipped, 37 received ten stripes or less, 45 per cent. over ten and not more than twenty stripes, and 18 per cent. from twenty-one to thirty stripes.

6. One thousand eight hundred and eighteen persons, or three more than in the previous year, were called upon to show cause why they should not be required to find security for good behaviour. 588 of them were discharged, and 1,189 required to furnish security, which 549 or 46 per cent. gave, and 640 or 54 per cent. were imprisoned in default of giving.

7. The total number of witnesses who attended the Courts was 381, 276; namely, 133 the High Court; 13,100 the Courts of Session, and 368,043 the Courts of Magistrates.

Of the 13,100 witnesses who attended the Courts of Session 8,762, or 67 per cent., were discharged on the first day; 2,227, or 17 per cent., on the second day; 973, or 7 per cent., on the third day; and 1,138, or 9 per cent., after the third day. Witnesses were detained longest in the Bareilly Sessions Court, where 603 of them, or 51 per cent. of all who attended the Court, were detained beyond three days. Such abnormal detention must be the result of defective arrangements in fixing dates for trials and the Sessions Judge will be asked for an explanation.

Of the 368,043 witnesses who attended the Courts of Magistrates during the year, 336,346, or 91 per cent., were discharged on the first day; 24,534, or 7 per cent., on the second day; 5,372 on the third day; and 1,791 after the third day. Detention of witnesses was longest in the Pilibhít, Allahabad, Gorakhpur and Basti districts.

Of the 133 witnesses who attended the High Court, 73 were examined and 115 received their expenses; of the 13,100 who attended Courts of Session, 9,891 were examined and 9,683 received their expenses; and of the 368,043 who attended Courts of Magistrates, 330,879 were examined and 27,374 received their expenses.

The amount paid to witnesses for travelling expenses was Rs. 19,479, of which Rs. 4,724 were expended in the High Court, Rs 5,511 in Courts of Session, and Rs. 9,244 in Courts of Magistrates.

In the High Court 86 per cent. of the witnesses who attended received their expenses; in Courts of Session 74 per cent., and in Courts of Magistrates less than 8 per cent. Each witness to whom payment was made received on the average Rs. 41-1-3 in the High Court; Re. 0-9-1 in Courts of Session; and Re. 0-5-5 in Courts of Magistrates.

The distribution of expenditure was very unequal. In the Cawnpur district 24 per cent. of the witnesses who attended the Courts of Magistrates received their expenses, and in the adjoining district of Fatehpur only 6 per cent. In Dehra, each witness to whom payment was made in the Court of a Magistrate received on the average Rs. 3-10-5; in Sahâranpur Re. 0-12-7; in Muzaffarnagar Re. 0-7-0; and in Bijnor Re. 0-3-2.

8. The average duration of cases in Courts of Magistrates was four days.

9. The number of appellants and applicants for revision was 10,932 against 8,097 in 1880 and 8,675 in 1879. Appellants to Magistrates of Districts were 3,445 in number; to Courts of Session 2,934, and to the High Court 1,101; of whom 36 per cent., 27 per cent., and 24 per cent., respectively, succeeded in obtaining the reversal or modification of the orders of which they complained.

The cases of 1,095 persons came before the High Court in revision. The Court refused to interfere in 53 per cent of these cases. In 5 per cent., most of which were called for on perusal of the monthly Sessions statements, sentences were enhanced; in 7 per cent. they were reduced; in 21 per cent. they were reversed; and in 14 per cent. new trial or further enquiry was ordered.

The duration of appeals was 8 days in Courts of Magistrates; 32 days in Courts of Session; and 29 days in the High Court.

The duration of applications for revision was 10 days in Courts of Magistrates and Courts of Session and 25 days in the High Court.

10. The number of persons under trial in Courts of Session during the year was 2,836 against 2,610 in 1880 and 2,801 in 1879. Of these 2,836 persons 715 were acquitted and 1,832 convicted.

Of the 266 persons whose cases were undisposed of at the close of the year, 50 were awaiting trial in the Court of the Sessions Judge of Muradabad, 36 in that of the Sessions Judge of Ghâzipur, the same number in the Court of the Sessions Judge of Bijnor-Budaon, and 34 in the Sessions Court of Agra.

Mr. Daniell has explained that the arrears in his Court were due to heavy calendars being sent up towards the close of the year. He complains that about a third of all the persons under trial in his Court are committed to it by reason of their being deemed to be habitual offenders; and remarks that Magistrates might often inflict the punishment of whipping in addition to other punishment on habitual offenders with quite as deterrent an effect as by sending such offenders to be tried by the Court of Session.

The duration of cases was 32 days in Courts of Session.

11. During the year the High Court had before it references in respect of 91 persons on whom sentence of death had been passed by Courts of Session. The results of the references were confirmation of sentence in the case of 67 persons (73 per cent); modification in respect of 10 (11 per cent.); acquittal in respect of 9 (10 per cent.); and new trial in respect of 5 (6 per cent). These results are less satisfactory than in the previous year.

12. On the original side the High Court disposed of seven cases, convicting 6 persons and acquitting the same number.

The average duration of the cases was 56 days.

13. The receipts of the Courts were Rs. 3,87,902, and the charges Rs 15,86,085. The receipts include process-fees, other Court fees, fines, penalties of forfeited recognizances and other bonds, and sale-proceeds of property under sections 172, 354 and 417 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and section 27, Act V., 1861. The charges include (1) a moiety of the salaries of officers exercising Criminal and Civil or Criminal and Revenue powers, and the same proportion of the salaries of their office establishments employed in both departments; (2) one-third of the salaries of officers exercising Criminal, Civil and Revenue powers, and the same proportion of the salaries of their office establishments employed in all three departments; (3) tour charges; (4) expenses of complainants and witnesses; (5) country stationery, and (6) all other contingent charges, such as cost of furniture, service telegrams and cloth for records.

14. The subject of securing greater uniformity in the award of punishment, to which reference was made in the note on the Criminal statements for 1880, has been receiving from several Magistrates the attention it deserves; and the improvement that has already begun will probably be still more marked in the returns for the current year.

The average terms of imprisonment awarded for some of the offences which, in the infliction of punishment, are most unequally regarded by the Courts, are shown in the following statement:—

In Courts of Magistrates the punishment for false evidence varied from little over one month's imprisonment in Agra to over a year in Farukhabad.

For cattle-theft the term of imprisonment was a year and nine months in the Tarai, and three months in Ghâzipur. In Etah, where there were more convictions for cattle-lifting than in any other district, the average term was nine months. In Bijnor and Bareilly the term was nearly twice as long as in Badaon and Muradabad, in Gorakhpur nearly twice as long as in Basti, and in Hamírpur more than three times as long as in Bánda.

For theft of other property the average punishment varied from a year and four months in the Tarai to little over a month in Farukhabad. In Gorakhpur it was eight months and in Basti but little over two months. In Aligarh and Hamírpur it was more than twice as severe as in Etah and Bánda. In Ballia it was nearly three times as severe as in Ghâzipur.

The punishment for house-breaking was six months in Gházipur and over a year in Ballia; less then six months in Bánda and nearly twelve in Hamírpur.

The offence of enticing away a married woman was visited with imprisonment for two or three months in ten cases in Aligarh; for three or four months in thirty-six cases in Muradabad and in eighteen cases in Sháhjahánpur; for four months in fifteen cases in Bijnor; for five or six months in twenty cases in Farukhabad and in twenty-two cases in Allahabad; for six months in Muzaffarnagar; for seven or eight months in fifteen cases in Benares; for eight or nine months in eight cases in Meerut and in nine cases in the Tarai; for nine or ten months in twelve cases in Cawnpore, and for eleven months in fourteen cases in Fatehpur.

15. During the year rules were issued under Act III., 1879, respecting the disposal of records, books and papers of Criminal Courts, and under Act VII., 1870, as to the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by Magistrates.

HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE, N.-W. P.,

Registrar.

ON THE

IN THE

DURING THE CALENDAR YEAR 1882.

THE number of offences reported is said to have been 254,048 against 227,165 in 1881 and 167,899 in 1880. In the note on the administration of criminal justice in 1881 it was explained that "offences reported" in that year could not properly be compared with those of previous years, because, as a rule, only offences which were investigated by the police or came before a Magistrate used to be shown in the annual returns as "reported," whereas the Resolution of the Government of India, Home, Revenue, and Agricultural Department No. $\frac{3}{91\text{-}102}$, dated the 27th January, 1880, had required all offences, cognizable and non-cognizable, of which information was given, complaint made, or cognizance taken, to be so shown.

In practice, it is a matter of no small difficulty to obtain accurate information respecting "offences reported," as they are now defined, and the increase in their number in 1882 is probably due as much to stricter observance of the directions of paragraph 8 of this Court's Circular Order No. 6 of 1880 (page 63, Criminal Rules and Orders) as to more accurate registration of reports by the police, to which some Magistrates attribute the larger number of offences reported in their districts.

2. With the increase in the number of offences reported, there was, of course, an increase in the number of "cases returned as true," that is to say, of cases in which the complaints were not dismissed under section 147, Act X., 1872, or in which Magistrates did not declare that the charges were false and that the offences never occurred.

The number of cases returned as true was 210,387 against 198,893 in 1881.

3. The number of cases brought to trial was 98,259 against 92,673 in the previous year.

The increase mainly occurs under the heads of cases under special and local laws, criminal trespass, criminal force and assault, mischief, offences against the lawful authority of public servants and against public justice, hurt, and offences against the public health. Prosecutions for such offences seem always to increase as serious crime diminishes.

There was a falling-off of 682 cases under the head of theft, and of 158 under that of receiving stolen property.

4. The number of persons under trial was 179,031 against 166,180 in 1881, most of the increase occurring under the heads of criminal force and assault, mischief, and special and local laws.

5. Of the accused whose cases were disposed of, 46 per cent. were acquitted or discharged. In 1880 the percentage was shown as 27 only. But there can be no useful comparison between the two years. During 1881 and 1882 persons, withdrawal from the prosecution of whom under section 188, 205, 208 or 210, Act X., 1872, operated, by section 188 or 212, as an acquittal, have been shown as acquitted. Up to the end of 1880 such persons were, as a rule, not even registered as under trial.

The more accurate system of registration which has been adopted under the Resolution of the Government of India, of January, 1880, has rendered previous statistics of acquittals and discharges useless for comparative purposes.

6. The number of persons convicted was 95,144 against 92,619 in 1881. Convictions for breaches of special and local laws were most numerous; next come those for theft; and then those for voluntarily causing hurt.

Of persons convicted under special and local laws, 12,382 were convicted under section 34 of the Police Act, 1861; 7,054 under the Municipalities Act, 1873; 3,779 under the Canal and Drainage Act, 1873; 2,867 under the Cantonments Act, 1880; 1,526 under the Public Gambling Act, 1867; 1,294 under the Cattle-trespass Act, 1871; 1,015 under the Excise Act, 1881; 645 under the Arms Act, 1878; 578 under the Inland Customs Act, 1875, and Salt Act, 1882; 518 under the Railway Act, 1879; 397 under the Female Infanticide Act, 1870; 396 under the Stamp Act, 1879; 363 under the Opium Acts of 1857 and 1878; 119 under the Stage Carriages Act, 1861; and 92 under the Ferries Act, 1878.

Of persons under trial under the several Acts, 86 per cent. were convicted under the Police Act; 82 per cent. under the Municipalities Act; 80 per cent under the Canal and Drainage Act; 80 per cent. under the Cantonments Act; 82 per cent. under the Public Gambling Act; 41 per cent. under the Cattle-trespass Act; 77 per cent. under the Excise Act: 83 per cent. under the Arms Act; 90 per cent. under the Inland Customs and Salt Acts; 78 per cent. under the Railway Act; 78 per cent. under the Female Infanticide Act; 89 per cent under the Stamp Act; 50 per cent. under the Opium Act; 75 per cent. under the Stage Carriages Act; and 67 per cent. under the Ferries Act.

Convictions under the Police Act were most numerous in Benares (1,522) and Gházipur (1,165); and under the Municipalities Act in Allahabad (1,600), Cawnpur (704), and Moradabad (682).

The increase in the number of convictions under the Canal and Drainage Act is attributed to an increase in the area under canal irrigation. 664 persons were convicted under that Act in Etáwah, 655 in Mainpuri, and 540 in Meerut.

Under the Cantonments Act more persons were convicted of breaches of rules at Landour than in any other cantonment in the North-Western Provinces.

Under the Public Gambling Act, prosecutions were most numerous in the Agra, Benares, Gházipur and Mirzapur districts, and most successful in Dehra Dún, Bulandshahr, Budaon, Bareilly, Gházipur and Allahabad.

Half the prosecutions instituted under the Cattle-trespass Act are withdrawn.

The number of cases brought to trial under the Excise Act was largest in Gorakhpur (118), Fatehpur (72), Bareilly (70) and Azamgarh (61), where the convictions obtained were 130, 81, 76 and 64 respectively.

Of the 645 convictions under the Arms Act, no fewer than 260 were obtained in the Kumaon district alone, where every one under trial under the Act was convicted.

Convictions under the Inland Customs and Salt Acts were obtained in twenty-five districts and were most numerous in Cawnpore and Etah.

In Cawnpore 106 persons were convicted of offences against the Railway Act: in Agra 79, in Benares 68, in Allahabad 63, and in Farukhabad 54. The remaining 148 convictions were obtained in fifteen other districts.

Of the 397 convictions under the Female Infanticide Act, 197 were had in the Azamgarh district alone.

Convictions under the Stamp Act were most numerous in Mirzapur (56), Gorakhpur (55) and Jhánsi (53).

The very low proportion of persons convicted to persons prosecuted under the Opium Act is due to the acquittal of no fewer than 204 out of 216 persons who were brought to trial under that Act in the Sháhjahánpur district. Of the 204 who were acquitted, the prosecution was withdrawn in the case of 162.

7. The falling-off in the number of cases under the Code of Criminal Procedure, and in the number of persons concerned in them, is nominal, and is due to the practice of registering proceedings against nuisances, which obtains in the Lower Provinces, having been extended to these Provinces. The result is that the number of cases under Chapter XXXIX., Act X., 1872, appears as 137 only, and of persons concerned in them as 352 only, against 1,333 and 6,221, respectively, in 1881. Cases in which the person against whom the order was directed neither obeyed it nor appeared in Court, either in person or by agent, and thus incurred the penalty provided in section 525, Act X., 1872, and cases in which the person simply obeyed the order by removing the nuisance complained of, have been excluded from the returns for 1882.

8. The number of original criminal cases disposed of by Benches of Magistrates was 2,713 ; by unpaid Magistrates sitting singly, 13,541 ; by stipendiary Magistrates, 83,260 ; by Courts of Sessions, 1,405 ; and by the High Court, 7.

Shaikh Sharf-ud-din, Honorary Magistrate, 1st class, Budaun, disposed of 442 cases ; Mr. E. J. Churcher, Honorary Magistrate, 1st class, Basti, of 408 ; Dr. Lazarus, Honorary Magistrate, 1st class, Benares, of 309 ; and Babu Durga Prasad, Honorary Magistrate, 2nd class, Gorakhpur, of 400. These gentlemen all took a substantial share in the criminal administration of the districts in which they reside.

2,508 persons were accused in the 1,405 cases of which Courts of Sessions disposed, and 68 percent. of them were convicted. At the close of the year fewer cases were pending in these Courts, and fewer persons under trial in them, than at the close of 1881.

In the seven cases disposed of by the High Court four persons were convicted and five acquitted.

9. The average duration of original cases calculated from date of apprehension or attendance on summons or otherwise was between four and five days in Courts of Magistrates, and, calculated from date of commitment, 35 days in Courts of Session and 38 days in the High Court.

The only Courts in which excessive duration has become chronic are those of the 1st class Magistrates of Farukhabad, and the Court has suggested to the District Magistrate that he should apply to the Government for the addition of another 1st class Magistrate to his staff.

10. The total number of witnesses who attended the Courts was 384,637 against 381,276 in 1881 ; namely, 121 the High Court, against 133 ; 13,710 the Courts of Session, against 13,100 ; and 370,806 the Courts of Magistrates, against 368,043.

11. Of the 13,710 witnesses who attended Courts of Session, 9,265, or 68 per cent., were discharged on the first day ; 2,198, or 16 per cent., on the second day ; 1,018 or 7 per cent., on the third day ; and 1,229, or 9 per cent., after the third day. In the previous year the percentages were 67, 17, 7 and 9 respectively.

Of the 370,806 witnesses who attended Courts of Magistrates, 342,059, or 92 per cent., were discharged on the first day ; 23,496, or 6 per cent., on the second day ; 3,911 on the third day ; and 1,340 after the third day.

12. All witnesses who attended the High Court received their expenses. Of those who attended Courts of Session, 73 per cent. received their expenses ; and of those who attended Courts of Magistrates, less than 7 per cent.

Of the witnesses who attended Courts of Magistrates, 43 per cent. received their expenses in Hamirpur, 18 per cent. in Shahjahánpur, and 13 per cent. in Moradabad, Jhánsi and Cawnpore : while 1 per cent. or less received them in Kumaun, Jaunpur, Benares and Gházipur.

The sum paid to witnesses was Rs. 18,146, of which Rs. 1,931 were expended in the High Court, Rs. 7,049 in Courts of Session, and Rs. 9,166 in Courts of Magistrates.

Each witness to whom payment was made received on the average Rs. 15-15-4 in the High Court; Re. 0-11-4 in Courts of Session; and Re. 0-5-11 in Courts of Magistrates.

The average sum paid to each witness to whom any payment was made varied in Courts of Magistrates from Rs. 2-2-0 in Garhwál, Re. 1-8-8 in Dehra Dún and Re. 1-0-8 in Agra to Re. 0-3-7 in Etah, Re. 0-3-6 in Mainpuri and Re. 0-3-4 in Bijnor.

Of the witnesses discharged after examination, 69 per cent. were examined, and of the sum paid in Courts of Magistrates to witnesses, 41 per cent. were awarded, by native Magistrates.

Orders have recently been issued by the High Court, after communication with the Government, with the object of securing more equable working of the rules as to the expenses of complainants and witnesses.

13. Notwithstanding the larger number of persons convicted, fewer persons were sentenced to death, to transportation, to rigorous imprisonment and to whipping than in 1881. In not one of the preceding ten years were whippings so few as in 1882, and in only one of those years were fines so numerous.

14. The decrease in the number of whippings is, of course, directly attributable to the Resolution of the Government of India, Home Department, No. $\frac{3}{41\text{-}54}$, which was published early in January, 1882, and made known to the Courts by the end of that month.

Of the 4,687 persons who were whipped, 526, or 11 per cent., received five stripes and under; 1,133, or 24 per cent., from six to ten stripes; 1,179, or 25 per cent., from eleven to fifteen stripes: 869, or 19 per cent., from sixteen to twenty stripes; 291, or 6 per cent., from twenty-one to twenty-five stripes; and 689, or 15 per cent., from twenty-six to thirty stripes.

3,993, or 85 per cent., of the whippings were awarded on first convictions, and 694, or 15 per cent., on second convictions.

3,354, or 72 per cent., of the whippings inflicted were awarded for theft; 648, or 14 per cent., for dishonest receiving of stolen property; and 526, or 11 per cent, for lurking house-trespass and house-breaking.

121 juveniles were whipped for offences other than those specified in sections 3 and 4 of the Whipping Act.

In order to ascertain the "total number of other punishments" to be shown in Part IV. of the statement showing particulars of whippings inflicted (Judicial Statement 5A), the Court found it necessary to call on District Magistrates and Sessions Judges for special statements of the convictions under each section of the Penal Code or other Act under which sentence of whipping may be passed, and of the number of juveniles convicted of any offence. With the aid of these statistics, the "total number of other punishments" was determined.

Whipping, it will be observed, was awarded in 22 per cent. of the cases in which it would have been legal sentence.

15. The number of persons fined was 64,227; the amount of the fines imposed, Rs. 3,21,413; and the amount realised Rs. 2,79,099.

The percentage of fines realised to fines imposed (87) was larger than in any one of the preceding twenty years. The increase in the number of prosecutions under special and local laws is the principal cause of the number of persons fined being so much larger in 1882 than in 1881.

16. The number of persons from whom recognizance or security to keep the peace was required was 2,736; and of those required to furnish security for good behaviour under sections 504 and 505, Act X., 1872, 1,005. Recognizance or security to keep the peace was required from 390 persons in Fatehpur, 345 in Bánda,

202 in Sháhjahánpur, 189 in Gházipur, and 164 in Budaon: in Lalitpur from no one, in Azamgarh from only one person, and in Saháranpur from two only. Security for good behaviour was required from 99 persons in Gorakhpur, 89 in Aligarh, and 81 in Budaon: in Garhwál from no one, in Farukhabad from two persons, and in each of the districts of Basti and Azamgarh from four persons only.

646 persons were imprisoned in default of furnishing the security required for their good behaviour.

17. The number of appeals (cases) preferred to District Magistrates was 1,872, and of those disposed of, 1,824. Of the 3,159 appellants whose appeals were disposed of during the year, the orders of Subordinate Magistrates were confirmed in their entirety in respect of 1,747, or 55 per cent.

The number of appeals (cases) preferred to Courts of Session was 2,571; and of those disposed of, 2,422. Of the 3,384 appellants whose appeals were disposed of during the year, the orders of Magistrates were confirmed in their entirety in respect of 1,780, or 52 per cent.

Of the 822 convicts whose appeals to the High Court were disposed of during the year, the Court confirmed the orders of Courts of Session in their entirety in respect of 502, or 61 per cent.

Of the fourteen persons against whose acquittal appeals preferred by the Government were disposed of by the High Court during the year, one was convicted and nine more were ordered to be retried. Thus, the Government was successful in 71 per cent. of its appeals under section 272, Act X., 1872.

No fewer than 61 of the 199 persons whose appeals remained pending at the close of the year in Courts of Session were before the Sessions Judge of Meerut.

The average duration of appeals was 9 days in Courts of Magistrates, 15 days in Courts of Session, and 32 days in the High Court.

18. Revision cases were more numerous than in 1881, and the arrears heavier at the close of the year. Of the 104 cases remaining undisposed of at the close of the year in Courts of Session, 51, in which 89 applicants were concerned, were pending before the Sessions Judge of Aligarh.

19. Columns 16 and 17 of Judicial Statement 1 have been left blank, for reasons already stated in paragraph 22 of the Note on the Administration of Civil Justice in 1882. The receipts, including process-fees, other court-fees, fines, penalties of forfeited bonds, and sale-proceeds of property disposed of under sections 172, 354 and 417, Act X., 1872, and section 27, Act V., 1861, are reported to have been Rs. 3,93,625—a sum less than one-fourth of the expenditure incurred on the maintenance of Sessions Courts and Courts of Magistrates.

The establishment of the Bandih tahsil in the Ballia district increased the number of sub-districts, shown in column 6 of the same statement, from 178 in 1881 to 179 in 1882.

Of the 515 Magistrates shown in column 11 of the statement, 137 were of the first class, 141 of the second and 237 of the third.

20. During the year rules were issued by the High Court regarding fines, deposits, penalties and costs, and the record and payment of expenses of complainants and witnesses.

Since the close of the year the Court has published a complete edition of its Criminal Rules and Orders.

S. HARVEY JAMES,
Registrar.

23rd August, 1883.

CRIMINAL STATEMENTS

OF THE

FOR THE

CALENDAR YEAR 1883.

WITH

NORTH-WESTERN PROVINCES AND OUDH GOVERNMENT PRESS.

ON THE

IN THE

DURING THE CALENDAR YEAR 1883.

1. The number of offences reported during 1883 was 241,717, as against 254,048 for 1882, and there was a similar decrease in the number of cases "returned as true," the figures being 198,809 for 1883 as against 210,387 for 1882. Such cases are those in which complaints were not dismissed under section 203 of the Criminal Procedure Code, or in which Magistrates did not declare that the charges were false, and that the offences never occurred.

2. The number of cases actually brought to trial shows, however, a slight increase. The figures are—

	No. of cases.
1883	100,287
1882	98,259
Increase ...	2,028

3. Increase and decrease took place chiefly under the following heads: —

	Cases.
Increase.—Hurt	1,359
Theft	1,265
Trespass	514
Extortion	103
Decrease.—Offences under Chapter X, Penal Code	274
Ditto ditto XI, ditto	199
Mischief	638

4. The number of persons under trial was 180,373 as against 179,031 in 1882.

5. Of the accused whose cases were disposed of, 48 per cent were acquitted or discharged. Last year the percentage was 46.

6. The number of persons convicted was 91,019 as against 95,144 for 1882.

7. The following figures will show the different classes of cases in which prosecutions were most and least successful:—

SUCCESSFUL.

Offence.	Acquitted or discharged.	Convicted.
Chapter VIII, Penal Code (public tranquillity)	1,821	4,375
Chapter XIV (public health, &c.)	950	3,723
Theft	5,676	12,984
Receiving stolen property	1,845	4,303
Criminal Procedure Code and special and local laws ...	10,304	38,031

UNSUCCESSFUL.

Offence.
Hurt	21,778	7,611
Wrongful confinement	1,533	312
Assault	16,627	4,581
Extortion	530	115
Cheating	702	223
Mischief	10,312	2,302
Offences relating to marriage	2,302	376
Defamation	320	82
Intimidation	684	261

It must, however, be borne in mind that many of the offences shown in this second list may be compounded, and that the composition of such an offence has the effect of an acquittal.

8. There has been little variation in the number of cases under the Code of Criminal Procedure except—

(1) under the head of public nuisances (Chapter X), the figures being—

	Cases.	Persons convicted.
1883	301	808
1882	137	333
Increase ...	164	475

(2) under the head of security for good behaviour, under which the number of persons fell from 1,601 to 1,298; and

(3) in "possession" cases, in which the figures fell from 353 to 199.

9. Under special and local laws the most numerous convictions were as follows:—

	Persons.
Section 34, Police Act	18,709
Municipalities Act	7,311
Canal Act	4,626
Cantonments Act	2,694
Gambling Act	1,529
Excise Act	1,023
Cattle Trespass Act	1,015

10. Convictions under the Police Act were most numerous in Agra (1,333), in Mirzapur (1,248), in Benares (1,136), and in Meerut (1,042); and under the Municipalities Act in Moradabad (799), in Cawnpore (643), in Meerut (595), in Saháranpur (555), and in Allahabad (528).

11. Under the Canal Act there has again been a slight increase in convictions. In Meerut 802 persons were convicted, in Bulandshahr 601, and in Etáwah 585.

12. For breaches of Cantonment rules Benares heads the list, 397 persons having been convicted; while for Cawnpore and Jhánsi the figures are 371 and 350 respectively.

13. As regards gambling prosecutions the following districts are most conspicuous:—

	Persons convicted.
Agra	206
Gházipur	149
Bareilly	118
Benares	110
Mirzapur	105

14. The number of successful prosecutions under the Excise Act was largest in Gorakhpur (103), Allahabad (73), Fatehpur (70), Mirzapur (69), and Farukhabad (61).

15. Gorakhpur alone shows a large number of successful prosecutions under the Cattle Trespass Act (112 out of the total number 1,015).

16. Sixty-eight persons out of 322 for the province were convicted in Agra under the Arms Act; while under the Inland Customs and Salt Acts, 41 and 31 out of 311 for the province were convicted in the districts of Jaunpur and Etah respectively.

17. Under the Railway Act convictions were most numerous in Cawnpore (46), Allahabad (45), and Benares (45).

18. Of the 207 convictions under the Infanticide Act 46 took place in Basti.

19. There were 277 convictions under the Stamp Act, and of these 45 took place in Jalaun and 43 in Mirzapur.

20. Out of 192 convictions under the Hackney and Stage Carriages Act, there were 71 in Allahabad alone.

21. The number of original criminal cases disposed of by Benches of Magistrates was 2,270 as against 2,713 for 1882: by unpaid Magistrates sitting singly 13,453 as against 13,541 for 1882: by stipendiary Magistrates 83,957 as against 83,260 for 1882: by Sessions Judges 1,355 as against 1,405 for 1882: and by the High Court 4 as against 7 for 1882.

22. Of Honorary Magistrates the following gentlemen disposed of a considerable number of cases and have received the thanks of the Court:—

District.	Honorary Magistrate.	Number of cases disposed of.
Budaun	Sheikh Sharif-ud-din	626
Gorakhpur	Bábu Durga Prasád	528
Meerut	Sheikh Muhammad Ali Khán	457
	Ahmadulla Khán	380

23. The number of persons convicted by the different classes of tribunals and the percentage they bore to the number acquitted were as follows:—

	Persons convicted.	Percentage.
Magistrates	89,519	51
Courts of Session	1,492	63
High Court	8	73

In Magistrates' Courts the percentage of convictions to acquittals was highest in Ballia (75), Jhánsi (70), Hamírpur (67); while it was lowest in Pilibhit (27), Basti (33), Azamgarh (35), and Sháhjahánpur (35).

Similarly, in Courts of Sessions the highest and lowest percentages are shown in the following districts:—

District.	Percentage.	District.	Percentage.
Tarái	100	Kumaun and Garhwál ...	0 each.
Muttra	90
Saháranpur	85	Lalitpur ...	19
Jhánsi	83	Aligarh and Etah ...	35 ,,
Muzaffarnagar... ...	82

24. The number of persons remaining under trial at the close of the year rose in Courts of Session from 176 to 210, and fell in Magistrates' Courts from 1,566 to 1,417. The arrears in the former class of Courts were heaviest in Agra and Muttra (36), in Aligarh and Etah (20), and in Farukhabad (18); while in the latter class of Courts the following districts were conspicuous: Basti (187), Azamgarh (109), Meerut (85), Kumaun (78), and Mirzapur (72).

25. The average duration of original criminal cases remained much the same as it was in 1882. It was a little over 4 days for Magistrates' Courts, 34 days for Courts of Session, and 36 days for the High Court.

26. The number of witnesses who attended the Courts was 379,952 as against 384,637 for 1882, viz., 93 in the High Court as against 121; 14,111 in the Courts of Session as against 13,710, and 365,748 in Magistrates' Courts as against 370,806.

27. Of the 14,111 witnesses who attended Courts of Session, 9,372, or 66 per cent., were discharged on the first day, 2,494 on the second day, 875 on the third day, and 1,370 after the third day.

Of the 365,748 witnesses who attended Magistrates' Courts, 334,618, or 91 per cent., were discharged on the first day, 24,397 on the second day, 4,778 on the third day, and 1,955 after the third day.

28. All the witnesses who attended the High Court received their expenses. Of those who attended Courts of Session, 78 per cent., as against 73 for 1882, received theirs; while of those who attended Magistrates' Courts only 11 per cent. received any remuneration for their attendance. Last year, however, in Magistrates' Courts the percentage was less than 7; and while there has thus evidently been more attention paid by Magistrates to the remuneration of witnesses, there is still room for improvement in this respect. The districts which show the best percentages are Hamírpur (36), Lalitpur (23), Bijnor (22), Ballia (20), and Bánda (18); while in Benares the percentage was less than 1, in Garhwál 1, and in Dehra Dún, Meerut, Kumaun, and Gházipur only 4.

29. The sum paid to witnesses was Rs. 25,306, as against Rs. 18,146 for 1882. The details were :—

	1882.	1883.
	Rs.	Rs.
High Court	1,931	1,865
Courts of Session	7,049	7,683
Magistrates' Courts	9,166	15,758

The chief increase thus took place in Magistrates' Courts.

30. The average per witness was Rs. 20 in the High Court, 11 annas 1 pie in Courts of Session, and 5 annas 10 pies in Magistrates' Courts. The average payment naturally varied considerably in different districts, for in large districts witnesses have often to travel considerable distances, and correspondingly high payments have to be made ; but where there is much deviation from the provincial average, the cause ought to be easily discoverable by District Magistrates.

31. Of witnesses who attended, 10,481, or 74 per cent., were examined in Courts of Session and 331,628, or 90 per cent., in Magistrates' Courts.

32. As regards punishments, there was little or no variation in the number of persons sentenced to death, transportation or rigorous imprisonment, 202 fewer persons were sentenced to simple imprisonment, and there was a decrease of 2,965 in the number of persons fined.

33. There was a slight increase of 93 in the number of persons whipped, the number of persons whipped in 1,883 having been 4,780. Of this number the details were—

	Persons.
1. In lieu of other punishment	4,053
2. In addition to „	554
3. Juveniles for offences other than those mentioned in sections 2, 3, and 4 of the Whipping Act	173

34. Of the 4,780 persons whipped further details are—

1—5 stripes	465
6—10 „	978
11—15 „	1,190
16—20 „	1,207
21—25 „	324
26—30 „	616

35. Out of the whippings thus awarded, 4,078, or 85 per cent., took place on first convictions, and 702, or 15 per cent., on second or subsequent convictions.

36. The figures for the main offences for which whipping was inflicted were—

	Persons.
Theft	2,882
Receiving stolen property	950
Lurking house-trespass and house-breaking ...	741

37. Out of the 173 juveniles convicted for offences other than those mentioned in sections 2 to 4 of the Whipping Act, 39 were punished for having committed an unnatural offence and 40 for having committed mischief.

38. Whipping was inflicted in 16 per cent. of the cases in which it might have been legally inflicted. Last year the percentage was 22.

39. The number of persons fined was 61,262, as compared with 64,227 for 1882 ; the amount of fines imposed Rs. 2,83,594, as against Rs. 3,21,413 for 1882 ; and the amount realised Rs 2,55,303, as against Rs. 2,79,099. The percentage of fines realised to those imposed was larger than it has ever been and was 90 per cent. Last year it was 87 per cent. This shows that either the Courts now pay more attention to the status in life of the accused when inflicting a fine, or that more attention is paid to the recovery afterwards of fines which remain outstanding and are not paid in on the conclusion of the case. The fact that in Saháranpur, Ballia, and Basti more fines were realised than those inflicted during the year shows that outstanding fines must have been realised with great care in these districts. The only district in which realisations were small was at Etah, where the amount imposed by the Sessions Court was Rs. 1,110 and that realised only Rs. 5.

40. Rs. 13,010 were paid as compensation, of which Rs. 617 were paid by Courts of Session and Rs. 12,393 by Magistrates.

41. Out of Rs. 617, the Sessions Judge of Saháranpur alone paid Rs. 400. The largest amounts paid by Magistrates were Rs. 1,480 in Kumaun, Rs. 864 in Bánda, Rs. 759 in Meerut, and Rs. 755 in Etáwah; while in Lalitpur, Azamgarh, Jalaun, Etah, and Farukhabad the amounts were only Rs. 36, Rs. 52, Rs. 56, Rs. 83, and Rs. 99 respectively.

42. There were 1,084 cases in which proceedings were taken against 3,813 persons to prevent a breach of the peace. Recognisances or security was taken from 2,508 persons. Last year the number was 2,736.

43. The number of persons was most numerous in the following districts:—

Budaun	360	Gházipur	133
Fatehpur	192	Mirzapur	127
Sháhjahánpur	175	Muttra	120

In Mainpuri only 2 persons, in Jalaun only 9 persons, and in Etáwah only 11 persons were bound down to keep the peace.

There were 716 cases in which 1,298 persons were summoned to show cause why they should not be called upon to furnish security for good behaviour. Security was ordered to be furnished by 879 persons. This shows a decrease, for last year the number was 1,005.

44. The number was largest in the following districts:—

Moradabad	77
Aligarh	75
Gorakhpur	75
Agra	59;

while in the following districts the number of persons was less than 10: Garhwál (0), Dehra Dún (2), Pilibhit (3), Muttra (6), Farukhabad (9), Jalaun (5), Jhánsi (5), Lalitpur (8), Fatehpur (5), and Allahabad (9).

45. In default of furnishing security for their good behaviour 629 persons were imprisoned, as against 646 in 1882.

46. The number of appeals preferred to Magistrates was 2,418, an increase of 546 on the number for last year, which was 1,872. Of these 2,346 were disposed of during the year.

47. Of the 4,280 appellants whose cases were disposed of the appeals of 299 were summarily rejected; and out of the remainder, the orders of Subordinate Magistrates were confirmed in their entirety in respect of 2,259, or 55 per cent.

48. Appeals were most numerous in the Courts of the Magistrates of the following districts:—

Gorakhpur	176
Moradabad	149
Meerut	146
Farukhabad	143
Aligarh	115
Gházipur	115
Bulandshahr	114

49. The number of appeals preferred to Courts of Session was 3,388, or an increase of 817 on the number preferred in 1882, which was 2,571. Three thousand three hundred and thirty-eight appeals were disposed of, or 916 in excess of the number disposed of in 1882.

50. Of the 4,562 persons whose appeals were disposed of, those of 558 were summarily rejected; while of the remainder, the orders of Magistrates were confirmed in their entirety in respect of 2,486 persons, or 62 per cent. This is an improvement on last year, when the percentage was only 52.

51. Appeals were heaviest in the Judgeships of Aligarh and Etah (354), Meerut and Bulandshahr (338), Benares (219), and Farukhabad (197).

52. The number of appeals filed in the High Court in 1883 was 606 as against 550 in 1882; 577 were disposed of.

53. Nine hundred and sixty persons who had been convicted appealed to the High Court. Of the 829 whose cases were disposed of, the appeals of 26 were summarily rejected, and the judgments of Courts of Session were upheld in their entirety in the case of 586 persons, or 72 per cent.

54. The Government preferred 5 appeals against orders of acquittal in respect of 21 persons. Out of 18 persons whose cases were disposed of, 12 were convicted, or 83 per cent. Last year the percentage was 71.

55. The number of appeals pending at the close of 1883 in all Courts as compared with 1882 was as follows :—

	1882.	1883.
Magistrates	48	72
Courts of Session	152	92
High Court	47	76

56. Arrears of appeals were highest in Courts of Session in the following Judgeships: Aligarh and Etah (22), Saháranpur and Muzaffarnagar (18), and Farukhabad (11); while in the districts of Basti, Gorakhpur, and Gházipur, the number of appeals pending at the close of the year was 16, 10, and 10 respectively.

57. The duration of appeals remained much the same. It was 10 days in the courts of District Magistrates, 13 in Courts of Session, and 33 in the High Court. In the case of Government appeals from acquittals, the duration is always high because of the delay necessarily involved in printing the papers; but there has been a marked improvement this year, the duration having fallen from 184 to 93 days.

58. Revision cases in the Courts of Magistrates rose from 920 in 1882 to 1,048 in 1883. Of these cases 1,017 were disposed of, or 118 in excess of those disposed of in 1882.

59. Of the 1,250 persons whose cases were disposed of, the applications of 695 were summarily rejected, and the orders of the Lower Court were confirmed in respect of 315, or 56 per cent. of the remainder.

60. There was also an increase in such cases in Courts of Session, the number having risen from 915 in 1882 to 1,154 in 1883. Of these cases 1,066 were disposed of, or 247 more than during the previous year.

61. Of the 1,585 persons whose cases were disposed of; the applications of 1,167 were summarily rejected; while of the remainder, the orders of the Lower Court were upheld only in respect of 74, or 17 per cent.

62. The number of such cases filed in the High Court also shows an increase, there having been 644 in 1883 against 505 in 1882. Of these, 631 were disposed of.

63. Of the 1,192 persons whose applications were disposed of, those of 166 were summarily rejected; and the orders of Lower Courts were confirmed in their entirety in respect of 426, or 41 per cent. of the remainder.

64. The largest number of such applications was filed in the Judgeships of Cawnpore and Fatehpur (163), Aligarh and Etah (135), Gorakhpur and Basti (123), and Benares (110). Arrears were heaviest in the Aligarh and Etah Judgeships (68).

In the Courts of District Magistrates, the largest number of such applications was preferred in Basti (90), Gházipur (76), Gorakhpur (72), and Moradabad and Allahabad (67 each). In Basti there were 11 cases pending at the close of the year.

65. The duration of such applications was—

CRIMINAL STATEMENTS

OF THE

FOR THE

CALENDAR YEAR 1884,

WITH

NORTH-WESTERN PROVINCES AND OUDH GOVERNMENT PRESS.

1885.

ON THE

IN THE

DURING THE CALENDAR YEAR 1884.

Judicial statement No. 2.—The number of offences reported and of cases returned as true during 1884 as compared with 1882-83, was as follows :—

	"Reported."	"True."
1882	254,048	210,387
1883	241,717	198,809
1884	250,461	196,959

2. The number of cases actually brought to trial shows a steady increase during those years. The figures are :—

1882	98,259
1883	100,287
1884	106,577

3. The offences which show an appreciable increase or decrease in 1884 are as follows :—

Increase.	Cases.	Decrease.	Cases
Criminal force and assault ...	7,018	Criminal Trespass	1,092
Hurt	1,720	Theft	1,026
Offences against local and special laws ...	1,072	Receiving stolen property	556
Mischief	186	Coin, weights and measures	272
Criminal intimidation	153	Relating to marriage	166
		Ditto public tranquillity (Chapter VIII)	154
		Contempts (Chapter X)	154

4. The number of persons under trial was :—

1882	179,031
1883	180,373
1884	176,267

The decrease seems to point to the more careful exercise of the discretion vested in Magistrates as to issue of process.

5. Of the number of persons under trial 49 per cent. were acquitted or discharged. The percentage in 1882 was 46, and in 1883, 48.

The number of persons convicted was as follows :—

1882	95,144
1883	91,019
1884	87,203

6. The number of accused persons who died, escaped, were transferred to another province or remained under trial, discloses little variation.

7. Prosecutions were most and least successful in the following classes of cases :—

Successful.

Offence.	Persons. Acquitted or discharged.	Convicted.
Chapter VIII, I. P. C. (Public tranquillity)	1,579	3,582
Ditto X, I. P. C. (Contempts of public authority) ...	1,915	4,052
Ditto XIV, I. P. C. (Public health, &c.)	706	2,712
Receiving stolen property	1,774	3,860
Criminal Procedure Code and local and special laws ...	10,949	36,757

UNSUCCESSFUL.

	Persons.
	Acquitted or discharged.	Convicted.
Hurt	24,735	5,404
Wrongful restraint and confinement	1,634	279
Assault	15,429	3,738
Extortion	463	77
Cheating	881	160
Mischief	9,464	2,151
Offences relating to marriage	2,087	273
Defamation	924	68
Intimidation	674	252

As far as those classes of offences are concerned, the result is almost identical with that for 1883.

8. Judicial statement No. 3.—There was not much variation in respect of miscellaneous proceedings under the Code of Criminal Procedure. The following figures are, however, noticeable under heads 4 and 8 ("non-attendance of jurors" and "public nuisances"). The number of persons discharged and convicted was:—

	Head 4.		Head 8.
	Discharged.	Convicted.	Discharged.	Convicted.
1883	7	41	1	808
1884	46	27	345	826

There was a decrease of 194 in the number of persons bound down to keep the peace, and an increase of 13 only in the number of those called on to furnish security for good behaviour.

9. Statement A.—Analysing the figures in statement A, we find the following results as regards the different districts in respect of the different classes of offences for which persons were convicted.

10. Chapter VIII, Indian Penal Code (Public tranquillity).—Azamgarh, Moradabad and Meerut head the list with 314, 301 and 200 persons respectively, there having been a marked increase in the figures for the two latter districts as compared with the former year. Etáwah shows also an increase from 41 to 128 persons. On the other hand, the following districts show a decrease:—

Mirzapur	419	to	125
Gorakhpur	315	to	134
Basti	276	to	24
Sháhjahánpur	234	to	137
Ghazipur	100	to	26

11. Chapters IX—X (Public servants).—Meerut heads the list with 1,230 persons out of 4,154 for the provinces, and shows an increase of 539 persons. Muzaffarnagar, Cawnpore and Gorakhpur also show an increase of 101, 107 and 101 persons, respectively; while Bareilly, Agra, Gházipur and Ballia show a decrease of 112, 193, 101 and 95, respectively.

12. Chapters XII—XIII (Coin, stamps, &c.)—Jhánsi heads the list with 13 persons, and the abnormal number of 211 shown for Meerut in 1883 has fallen to 3 in 1884.

13. Chapters XIV—XV (Health and religion).—Allahabad and Meerut both show an increase, the figures having risen from 146 to 544 and 36 to 427, while in Bulandshahr, Bijnor and Mainpuri they fell from 862 to 222, from 986 to 241 and from 186 to 41, respectively.

14. Chapter XVI (Human body).—Gorakhpur and Allahabad head the list with 989 and 833 persons, while in Muthra and Gházipur the number fell from 505 to 266, and from 548 to 366. Aligarh shows an increase of 159 persons.

15. Chapter XVII (Property).—Gorakhpur (1,835), Meerut (1,127), Azamgarh (1,122), Gházipur (1,120), Benares (1,098), Bánda (1,016) all show a large number of persons. There was a falling off in Gházipur (1,468 to 1,120), in Bánda (1,306 to 1,016), in Farukhabad (708 to 496), and in Fatehpur (597 to 457).

16. Chapters XVIII—XXII (Miscellaneous).—The number of persons convicted for such offences was small, save in Kumaon, where it rose from 89 to 119, and in Jhánsi, where it fell from 68 to 20.

17. Statement C.—Turning to statement C, we find that in Moradabad 30 persons out of 216 were summarily dealt with under sections 250, Act X, of 1882, and that in Meerut 23 persons out of 143 were proceeded against with a view to forfeiture of their bail or recognizances. Agra heads the list of recalcitrant assessors.

18. In respect of proceedings to keep the peace, there were 1,000 cases in 1884 against 1,084 in 1883; and 3,697 persons were concerned against 3,813 in 1883. Of these, 429 were in Sháhjahánpur, 253 in Farukhabad, 237 in Badaun, 188 in Bánda and 187 in Moradabad. Decrease in respect of such proceedings was noticeable in Badaun (430 to 237), in Muttra (147 to 48), in Fatehpur (265 to 144) and in Gorakhpur (207 to 71).

The number of such persons was small in the following districts:—Lalitpur (0), Jalaun (1), Dehra (11), Garhwál (14), Muzaffarnagar (25), Etáwah (36), Mainpuri (38), and Benares (39).

Recognizances or security was taken from 2,314 persons against 2,508 in 1883 and 2,736 in 1882.

19. There were 810 cases against 716 in 1883, in which 1,389 against 1,298 persons were summoned to show cause why they should not furnish security for good behaviour. Of these, 120 were in Gorakhpur, 105 in Meerut, 104 in Moradabad, 81 in Sháhjahánpur and 74 in Budaun.

The number was small in the following districts:—Kamaon (8), Garhwál (3), Tarái (8), Jhánsi (4), Cawnpore (7), Azamgarh (9), Benares (5).

Security was taken from 892 persons as compared with 1,005 in 1882 and 879 in 1883.

20. In several districts no proceedings in respect of public nuisances were taken. In such cases 1,199 persons were concerned, and of these 431 were in Gorakhpur, 249 in Jhánsi, 149 in Agra and 108 in Etah.

21. In respect of proceedings regarding disputed possession and maintenance the cases were few, and the only districts which show any number of persons are Gházipur (51), Allahabad (46) and Ballia (37) as regards the former; and Allahabad (74), Benares (70), Mirzapur (57) and Jaunpur (56) as regards the latter class of proceedings.

22. Under special and local laws the most numerous convictions were:—

	1883.	1884.
Act V, 1861 (Police)	13,709	13,753
Municipal Act	7,311	5,953
Canal Act	4,626	4,729
Cantonment Act	2,694	2,980
Gambling Act	1,529	1,812
Cattle-trespass Act	1,015	1,071
Excise Act	1,023	854

23. Convictions under the Police Act were most numerous at Agra (1,413), Meerut (1,369), Mirzapur (1,086), Gházipur (1,060), and Benares (1,015); and under the Municipal Act, at Cawnpore (724), Saháranpur (697), Moradabad (459) and Jaunpur (425). This latter class of prosecutions shows a considerable falling off as compared with 1883.

24. Under the Canal Act there has again this year been a slight increase. Meerut shows 790, Bulandshahr 774, Cawnpore 512, Etáwah 447, Muzaffarnagar 435 and Mainpuri 410 convictions.

25. As regards breaches of cantonment laws, Jhánsi shows 380, Meerut 378, Dehra 367, Cawnpore 332 and Sháhjahánpur 300 convictions. At Dehra and Sháhjahánpur the number would appear to be large.

26. As regards Gambling prosecutions, the following districts are conspicuous :—

Gházipur	269
Agra	188
Mirzapur	169
Sháhjahánpur, Benares	150 each.

27. Gorakhpur again heads the list of convictions under the Cattle-trespass Act (152 out of 1,071), Bulandshahr and Meerut come next, showing 68 and 65 persons convicted.

28. There has been a decrease in convictions under the Excise Act. Gorakhpur and Allahabad show 66 each ; Fatehpur shows 56 and Bareilly 53.

29. Under the Arms Act, out of 353 convictions, Agra shows 53, Kumaon 48 and Muttra 40.

30. Under the Railway Act there were 522 convictions, of which 71 were in Bareilly, 47 in Allahabad, 46 in Benares, 45 in Sháhjahánpur, 43 in Cawnpore and 41 in Agra.

31. Of 156 convictions under the Infanticide Act, 23 were in Saháranpur.

32. Of 358 convictions under the Stamp Act, 71 were in Jhánsi, 68 in Bareilly, 35 in Jaunpur and 32 in Mirzapur.

33. There were 158 persons convicted under the Hackney-carriages Act, of whom 34 belonged to Allahabad.

34. Judicial statement 4.—The following figures show a comparison of the work done in 1882-84.

		Cases.
Benches of Magistrates	1882	2,713
	1883	2,270
	1884	5,787
Unpaid Magistrates sitting singly	1882	13,541
	1883	13,453
	1884	12,689
Stipendiary Magistrates	1882	83,260
	1883	83,957
	1884	80,436

	1883	1,355
	1884	1,319
High Court	1882	7
	1883	4
	1884	3

35. The most noticeable point about these figures is that the Benches of Magistrates have disposed of more than double the number of cases this year, and thus relieved the stipendiary magistracy to a considerable extent.

36. The number of cases disposed of by Benches and by Honorary Magistrates in these districts was considerable and the Court has already acknowledged, with thanks, the assistance so given :—

	Cases.
Sháhjahánpur	1,351
Bulandshahr	1,284
Meerut	1,182
Cawnpore	1,078

	Cases.
Benares	702
Bareilly	694
Budaun	659
Saháranpur	592
Jaunpur	548
Bánda...	216

37. The number of persons convicted by the different classes of tribunals and the percentages they bore to the number acquitted, were as follows :—

	1883.		1884.
	No.	Percentage.	No.	Percentage.
Magistrates	89,519	·51	85,741	·50
Courts of Session ...	1,492	·63	1,458	·67

38. The number of persons convicted on summary trial shows a decrease, as follows :—

1883	522	10,323	861
1884	385	8,539	804

39. The highest and lowest percentages in different districts in respect of convictions were :—

In Courts of Session.—(Statement D.)

Dehra Dún	100·	Gházipur	49·
Tarái	100·	Mirzapur	50·
Etáwah	94·	Agra	54·
Allahabad	90·	Benares	54·
Pilibhít	87·	Azamgarh	55·
Sahárapus	84·

Garhwál	62·	Pilibhít	40·
Dehra	61·	Etah	40
Sháhjahánpur	61·

40. The percentages shown in the last column of statements D and E for 1883 and 1884 show in the following districts variation of 20 or more in Courts of Session, and of 10 or more in Courts of Magistrates :—

Courts of Session.

Increase.		Decrease.
Aligarh	35 to 66	Muzaffarnagar	82 to 59
Bijnor	49 to 82	Pilibhít	80 to 60
Moradabad	53 to 73	Benares	74 to 54

Lalitpur	19 to 74
Allahabad	70 to 90

Courts of Magistrates.

Increase.		Decrease.
Pilibhít	27 to 40	Tarái	39 to 28
Sháhjahánpur	35 to 61

41. Statements B, D and E.—The number of cases and persons remaining under trial at the close of the year was as compared with 1882-83 :—

		Cases.	Persons.
Courts of Session ...	1882	98	176
	1883	110	210
	1884	143	273
Courts of Magistrates ...	1882	802	1,566
	1883	814	1,417
	1884	781	1,347

42. Arrears were heaviest in the former class of Courts at Agra and Muttra (72), and Aligarh and Etah (35); and in the latter at Meerut (132), Basti (102), Gorakhpur (82) and Allahabad (73).

43. Judicial statement 4.—The average duration of cases remained much the same. The figures are :—

	1882.	1883.	1884.
	Days.	Days.	Days.
Magistrates' Courts	4	4	4
Courts of Session	35	34	33
High Court	38	36	35

44. Statement G.—The number of witnesses who attended the Courts in 1882 to 1884 was :—

	1882.	1883.	1884.
Courts of Magistrates	370,806	365,748	358,772
Courts of Session	13,710	14,111	13,991
High Court	121	93	67
Total ...	384,637	379,952	372,830

45. Of those who attended Courts of Session 9,401, or 67 per cent., were discharged on the 1st day; 2,447 on the 2nd day; 978 on the 3rd day, and 1,165 after the 3rd day.

46. The Courts which appear to have detained witnesses most are those of Aligarh and Etáh (132 and 198 discharged after the 3rd day), Allahabad (95), Jaunpur (131), Gorakhpur (144). On this point the Judge of Aligarh (Mr. Aikman) makes the following remarks :—

"The large number of witnesses shown as detained for over 3 days is owing to the practice which prevailed of summoning the whole of the witnesses in each trial for the first day for which the trial was set down for hearing. Thus in one case eighty witnesses, and in another forty-eight witnesses were summoned for the first day, and a majority of them were necessarily detained for some days. I have now discontinued this practice. I allot a certain time for each trial according to an estimate given me by the committing Magistrate of the number of hours the inquiry lasted in his Court, and summon for each day only so many witnesses as can be examined within the day. This will obviate for the future the long detention which this statement brings to light. The 132 witnesses shown in column 11 belong to the period during which I was in charge."

His example might, with advantage, be followed by other Judges.

47. Of those witnesses who attended Courts of Magistrates, 329,484, or 91 per cent., were discharged on the first day; 23,192 on the second; 4,528 on the third, and 1,568 after the third day. The only districts which exhibit a considerable number of witnesses detained over three days were Gorakhpur (223), Moradabad (183), Bánda (158), Allahabad (105), and Saháranpur (100). Gorakhpur and Moradabad also show 592 and 504 witnesses, respectively, as discharged on the third day.

48. Statement F.—The following figures show the number of witnesses who were examined and who received remuneration, and the amount paid to them in 1883-84.

	Attended.		Examined.		Paid.		Amount.
	1883.	1884.	1883.	1884.	1883.	1884.	1883.	1884.
	No.	No.	No.	No.	No.	No.	Rs.	Rs.

Courts of Session ...	14,111	13,991	10,481	10,277	11,058	10,490	7,683	7,774

Total ...	379,952	372,830	342,202	337,431	54,149	63,704	25,306	29,393

49. Thus of those who attended Courts of Session 75 per cent. received remuneration. The percentage in 1882 was 73 and in 1883, 78. Meerut, Bulandshahr and Benares show unfavourably in this respect. In the former Judgeship, although 478 witnesses were examined, only 243 were paid ; while in the latter only 150 were paid out of 412 who were examined.

50. In Magistrates' Courts the number of witnesses paid rose by 10,149, and the percentage in 1884 to 14, which is an improvement. In 1882 it was only 7, while in 1883 it was 11.

51. The districts which show most favourably in this respect are the Sessions Courts of Mainpuri (98), and Gházipur and Ballia (97), Jaunpur and Mirzapur (96), Basti (92) and Jalaun (91); while in Magistrates' cases the percentages were high in the following districts—Hamírpur (43), Jalaun (31), Ballia (28), Budaun (27) and Lalitpur (25). The percentages in the Courts of Session at Meerut, Bulandshahr and Benares were only 34 in the first and 31 in the two last-mentioned districts ; while in Magistrates' Courts the following low percentages are noticeable :—Dehra (2), Meerut (5), Kumaun (2), Garhwál (1), Tarái (3), Aligarh, Agra, Allahabad and Gházipur (8), and Benares (1). Payment of diet money to witnesses seems to depend a good deal on the practice of individual Magistrates, and it is noticeable that while in Meerut the percentage was 5, it was 20 in Bulandshahr, the next district ; similarly, in Gházipur it was 8, while in Ballia it was 28. More uniformity would seem to be desirable.

52. The average amount paid to each witness was Rs. 37 in the High Court, As. 11-10 in Courts of Session and As. 5-9 in Courts of Magistrates. In 1883 the amounts were Rs. 20, As. 11-1 and As. 5-10, respectively.

53. Of those who attended, 10,277, or 73 per cent., were examined in Courts of Session and 327,127, or 90 per cent., in Courts of Magistrates.

54. Judicial statement 5.—As regards punishments, no material difference is noticeable in respect of the number of persons sentenced to death or transportation ; 2,401 fewer persons were sentenced to rigorous and 435 more persons to simple imprisonment. There was a decrease of 2,383 and 1,587 in the number of persons sentenced to fine and whipping, respectively ; also of 181 and 273 in the number of persons ordered to find security to keep the peace or for good behaviour and of those imprisoned in default of furnishing the latter kind of security.

55. The following figures exhibit details regarding the punishment of whipping:—

	Number whipped.
1882	4,873
1883	4,780
1884	3,193

56. The details of 3,193 are—

In lieu of other punishment	2,774
In addition to other punishment	346
Juveniles for offences other than those mentioned in sections 2, 3 and 4 of the Whipping Act	73
Total ...	3,193

Further details are—

6 „ 10	932
11 „ 15	839
16 „ 20	494
21 „ 25	128
26 „ 30	276
Total ...	3,193

57. Out of the whippings awarded, 2,755, or 86 per cent., were on first conviction, and 438, or 14 per cent., on second or subsequent conviction.

58. The chief offences for which whipping was awarded as punishment were :—

	Persons.
Theft	2,266
Receiving stolen property	426
House-trespass and house-breaking	404

59. Whipping was inflicted in 13 per cent. of the number of cases in which it might have been inflicted. In 1882 the percentage was 22 and in 1883, 16.

60. Details of fines are as follows :—

	Persons fined.	Amount.	Amount realized.	Percentage realized.
	No.	Rs.	Rs.
1882 ...	64,227	3,21,413	2,79,099	87
1883 ...	61,262	2,83,594	2,56,303	90
1884 ...	59,879	2,93,459	2,46,355	83

61. Statement H.—Further details are :—

	Amount.	Amount realized.	Percentage.
	Rs.	Rs.
Magistrates' Courts	2,78,903	2,40,878	86

62. In Courts of Session the comparatively small amount realized is mainly due to the fact that in Fatehpur only Rs. 187 were realized out of Rs. 5,950, in Agra and Muttra only Rs. 141 out of Rs. 1,700, and that in Jaunpur and Benares Rs. 450 remained unrealized. The Etah outstanding balance mentioned in paragraph 39 of last year's report has been realized this year.

63. In the Tarái more fines were realized than were imposed during the year, while in Sahárunpur Rs. 8,903 were realized out of Rs. 8,935, in Lalitpur Rs. 1,276 out of Rs. 1,298, in Hamírpur Rs. 2,117 out of Rs. 2,191, in Ballia Rs. 5,347 out of Rs. 5,492, and in Jalaun Rs. 2,180 out of Rs. 2,367. Of larger districts, Gorakhpur shows Rs. 14,520 out of Rs. 15,976 and Cawnpore Rs. 13,428 out of Rs. 14,695. Meerut shows the largest amount, Rs. 25,716 out of Rs. 27,825.

64. The amount of compensation paid during 1882-84 was :—

	By Courts of Session.	By Magistrates.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1882	522	13,726	14,248
1883	617	12,393	13,010
1884	732	12,820	13,552

65. Of Rs. 732, Rs. 400 was paid in Budaon and Rs. 68 in Bijnor. The largest amounts paid by Magistrates were in the following districts :—Bareilly, Rs. 1,170; Meerut, Rs. 1,061; Benares, Rs. 870; Bánda, Rs. 839; and Cawnpore, Rs. 726; while in Ballia, Mainpuri, Muzaffarnagar, Lalitpur and Jaunpur the amounts were only Rs. 52, 69, 73, 83 and 94, respectively.

APPEALS.

66. Judicial statement 6. Statement I.—The following gives an abstract of the appellate business of the Courts in 1882-84.

	Preferred.			Disposed of.			Pending.
	1882.	1883.	1884.	1882.	1883.	1884.	1882.	1883.	1884.
Courts of Session ...	2,571	3,388	4,329	2,422	3,338	4,762	152	92	103
High Court ...	550	606	749	570	577	781	47	76	44

It will be seen that there has been a gradual increase to a considerable extent in the number of appeals in all Courts.

67. The following districts show a large number of appeals :—

Courts of Session.		Magistrates.
Moradabad	273	Gorakhpur	257
Farukhabad	266	Meerut	200
Meerut	264	Moradabad	173
Benares	260	Farukhabad	166
Gorakhpur	239	Mirzapur	155

68. The increase was most marked in the following districts :—

Courts of Session.		Magistrates.
Gorakhpur	110—239	Gorakhpur ...	176—257
Moradabad	146—273	Mirzapur ...	51—155
Mainpuri	45—138	Shahjahánpur ...	41—108
Muttra	45—129
Bánda and Hamírpur ...	90—208

69. Magistrates and Sessions Judges attribute the increase to the abolition of the power to enhance punishment which they formerly possessed. A prisoner now, as a matter of course, appeals from the jail. He has, as a rule, everything to gain by appealing and nothing to lose; for it is seldom that a Lower Appellate Court takes the trouble to refer a case to the High Court solely with a view to enhancement of punishment. Column 6 of Judicial statement No. 6 shows that 34 persons only had their sentences enhanced by the High Court on revision in 1884.

70. The state of the pending files is satisfactory. The largest number of appeals pending is shown in the Court of the Judge of Gházipur (11), and in the Court of the Magistrate of Gorakhpur (19). The number pending in the High Court was 44.

71. Of the 12,334 persons who appealed, the cases of 11,957 were disposed of with the following result : —

	Appeal.
	Disposed of.	Summarily rejected.	Confirmed.	Percentage rejected and confirmed.
Magistrates	5,110	231	2,992	63·
Courts of Session	5,696	969	3,247	74·
High Court	1,151	78	752	72·
Total ...	11,957	1,278	6,991	69·

72. The result as regards Courts subordinate to the High Court compares favourably with that for 1883, when the percentage was only 63·. (Vide statement K.) It was in 1882 only 52· per cent.

73. Statement K.—The districts in which the percentage of persons appealing to Courts of Session and Magistrates is much above the average, are :—

Garhwál	50·
Kumaun	44·
Farukhabad	41·
Hamirpur	30·
Moradabad	27·
Basti	27·

Dehra...	97·	Gházipur	47·
Budaun	86·	Allahabad	57·
Shahjahánpur	83·	Fatehpur	58·

75. The duration of appeals shows a slight improvement. It was :—

	Days.
	1883.	1884.
Magistrates' Courts	10	9
Courts of Session	13	12
High Court against ... { Convictions	33	33
High Court against ... { Acquittals	93	104
Total ...	14	13

76. The following figures exhibit the result of applications for revision which came before the different Courts during 1882-84 :—

	Preferred.			Disposed of.			Pending.
	1882.	1883.	1884.	1882.	1883.	1884.	1882.	1883.	1884.

Total ...	2,340	2,848	2,947	2,214	2,714	2,921	173	198	104

Such applications show a slight decrease this year in Magistrates' Courts, but again an increase in Courts of Session and the High Court.

77. The following districts are marked for the large number of such applications :—

Courts of Session.		Courts of Magistrates.
Aligarh and Etah	149	Gorakhpur	85
Cawnpore and Fatehpur	124	Basti	62
Gorakhpur and Basti	120	Moradabad	59
Benares	86	Aligarh	58
Farukhabad	76

78. The state of the pending files of this class of cases discloses no arrears requiring explanation.

79. Of the 4,905 persons who applied for revision, the cases of 4,735 were disposed of with the following result :—

	Disposed of.	Summarily rejected.	Confirmed.	Percentage rejected and confirmed.
Magistrates	1,064	500	382	83·

Sháhjahánpur	93

81. The result as compared with that for 1883 is much the same. The percentage for Courts subordinate to the High Court was also 79· in 1883. (Vide statement K.)

82. The duration of such applications shows an improvement, on the whole. It was :—

	Days.
	1882.	1883.	1884.
Magistrates' Courts	8	9	9
Courts of Session	14	19	12

83. The original business which came before the High Court in 1882-84 was—

1882	9	7	2
1883	4	4	...

68. The increase was most marked in the following districts :—

69. Magistrates and Sessions Judges attribute the increase to the abolition of the power to enhance punishment which they formerly possessed. A prisoner now, as a matter of course, appeals from the jail. He has, as a rule, everything to gain by appealing and nothing to lose; for it is seldom that a Lower Appellate Court takes the trouble to refer a case to the High Court solely with a view to enhancement of punishment. Column 6 of Judicial statement No. 6 shows that 34 persons only had their sentences enhanced by the High Court on revision in 1884.

70. The state of the pending files is satisfactory. The largest number of appeals pending is shown in the Court of the Judge of Gházipur (11), and in the Court of the Magistrate of Gorakhpur (19). The number pending in the High Court was 44.

71. Of the 12,334 persons who appealed, the cases of 11,957 were disposed of with the following result : —

67. The following districts show a large number of appeals :—

Courts of Session.		Magistrates.
Moradabad	273	Gorakhpur	257
Farukhabad	266	Meerut	200
Meerut	264	Moradabad	173
Benares	260	Farukhabad	166
Gorakhpur	239	Mirzapur	155

68. The increase was most marked in the following districts :—

Courts of Session.		Magistrates.
Gorakhpur	110—239	Gorakhpur ...	176—257
Moradabad	146—273	Mirzapur ...	51—155
Mainpuri	45—138	Shahjahánpur ...	41—108
Muttra	45—129
Bánda and Hamírpur ...	90—208

69. Magistrates and Sessions Judges attribute the increase to the abolition of the power to enhance punishment which they formerly possessed. A prisoner now, as a matter of course, appeals from the jail. He has, as a rule, everything to gain by appealing and nothing to lose; for it is seldom that a Lower Appellate Court takes the trouble to refer a case to the High Court solely with a view to enhancement of punishment. Column 6 of Judicial statement No. 6 shows that 34 persons only had their sentences enhanced by the High Court on revision in 1884.

70. The state of the pending files is satisfactory. The largest number of appeals pending is shown in the Court of the Judge of Gházipur (11), and in the Court of the Magistrate of Gorakhpur (19). The number pending in the High Court was 44.

71. Of the 12,334 persons who appealed, the cases of 11,957 were disposed of with the following result : —

	Appeal.
	Disposed of.	Summarily rejected.	Confirmed.	Percentage rejected and confirmed.
Magistrates	5,110	231	2,992	63·
Courts of Session	5,696	969	3,247	74·
High Court	1,151	78	752	72·
Total ...	11,957	1,278	6,991	69·

72. The result as regards Courts subordinate to the High Court compares favourably with that for 1883, when the percentage was only 63·. (Vide statement K.) It was in 1882 only 52· per cent.

73. Statement K.—The districts in which the percentage of persons appealing to Courts of Session and Magistrates is much above the average, are :—

Garhwál	50·
Kumaun	44·
Farukhabad	41·
Hamirpur	30·
Moradabad	27·
Basti	27·

Dehra...	97·	Gházipur	47·
Badaun	86·	Allahabad	57·
Shahjahánpur	83·	Fatehpur	58·

75. The duration of appeals shows a slight improvement. It was :—
